

PROHIBITION FILM TO SHOW AT CORBETT

The prohibition film, "Lest We Forget", which has been shown in all parts of the nation in the interests of law enforcement, will be put on at the Columbian high school in Corbett on Sunday evening, February 20, at 7:30. This powerful drama presented through motion pictures is a vivid portrayal of the tragedies that existed before the dawn of prohibition. The Rev. R. E. Close, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon, will deliver an address on, "The Present Prohibition Crisis." No admission will be charged, but an offering will be taken. It is requested that children under 16 years of age be accompanied by their parents.

Walter Carlton Brown Dies.

Walter Carlton Brown, who is well known to residents of Gresham and the vicinity of Jenne, passed away at his home in Portland Monday, February 14, after an illness of less than three days from pneumonia following influenza. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Portland and interment was made in the family plot at Harrisburg, Oregon. The deceased is survived by his widow Mrs. Nita Moody Brown, a son Henry Hoult Brown, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Brown. The son attends Gresham Union high school.

ROCKWOOD

A Lincoln and valentine party was given at the schoolhouse last Friday by the Parent-Teacher association. The basement was decorated with white crepe paper and red hearts, and Washington and Lincoln pictures were prominent. Children of the fifth and sixth grades under the direction of their teacher Mrs. Marian Daggett gave a short program. Mrs. Minnie Altman had charge of contests in which Mrs. William Harlow, Mrs. J. F. Dunlop, Mr. Patee and Orrie Eckert were prize winners.

St. Valentine's day furnished the motif for a silver tea which was held Monday by the Woman's Benefit association at the home of Mrs. H. F. Dye. Mrs. Margaret Crane won first prize in a guessing contest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Horton have returned from Seattle where they visited their daughter Mrs. Bonnie Piercy.

FAIRVIEW

"The Joy of Faith" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church in Fairview, service in charge of the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted. This will be the third sermon in the series on "Faith." Sunday school will meet as usual at 10 o'clock.

Extensive plans are going forward by the social committee of the Fairview grange for the hard time dance and card party to be given on Monday evening at the city hall. Modern and old fashioned dances will prevail, with tables for those who wish to play cards. A prize is to be given for the best hard time costume.

TROUTDALE

The regular meeting of the Troutdale Parent-Teacher association was held Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. After the business meeting, Mrs. Arminta Scott gave an interesting report of the county P.T.A. council which met at Russellville. Mrs. Gladys McGinnis gave the paper on current events which was much enjoyed and Mrs. L. A. Harlow gave a reading on Oregon history which was also enjoyed by all. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Zebeck and Mrs. Wallace Spence.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Waite spent the week-end at Olympia, Washington, visiting old friends. Mrs. Waite returned to her home here Tuesday.

The basketball team will give a dance Saturday night, February 19, at the city hall, proceeds to buy suits for the team. Fine music is promised.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burlingame of Gresham spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Davis.

The Troutdale Parent-Teacher association will give a dance on Saturday night, February 26. A good time is guaranteed.

The basket social given by the Parent-Teacher association on Saturday night was a great success. All reported a nice time and enjoyed the talk on China given by Miss Florence Honey.

Mrs. Electa Parsons is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Schenk at Estacada.

George and Russell Wilson are on the sick list this week.

Community church Sunday school will meet promptly at 10 o'clock Sunday. The Rev. R. D. Everett, Sunday school missionary of the Portland Presbytery, will be present and speak to the children.

BORING

The valentine party given by the Sunday school at the church was a success, and a nice sum of money was received, which will go toward getting song books.

Mrs. John Meyer is spending a week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Danielson, of Clatskanie.

C. L. Gregson and family spent Sunday at Longview visiting relatives. Mrs. E. J. Gregson and brother returned home with him from Longview where they had been visiting for a week.

? The Answer is the Same

You wouldn't throw away your watch because the spring was broken—you'd have it fixed by a competent watchmaker and get a lot of additional service from it.

By the same token, don't think your car is hopeless just because it is losing power and hasn't the pick-up it used to have.

We can re-condition the cylinders, install new McQuay-Norris piston rings, pistons and pins, and restore all its old-time power and pep.

Bring it in Today

There'll be no obligation on your part and we'll be glad to give you a price in advance for the necessary work.

A re-conditioned motor will mean additional service, economy and comfort.

We are waiting to serve you.
