

BORING

The morning worship at the church next Sunday will be at 10 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. E. W. Withnell, will preach. Sunday school will be at 11 o'clock. In the evening at 6:45 the young peoples' Bible class will meet, and at 7:30 there will be an illustrated sermon entitled the "Easter Message or the Latter Part of Christ's Life." There will be a number of illustrated songs. The young peoples' choir, consisting of about 15 voices, will render several selections. This is a special service and both old and young are urged to attend.

The basketball team from the Bible study class went to Pleasant Home last week and defeated a team from that place by a score of 16 to 14. There will be a return game next week. The grade school basketball team defeated the Cottrell school team at Sandy on Thursday of last week by a score of 23 to 10 and on Tuesday they defeated a team from Hillsview by a score of 28 to 0. Next Thursday they will meet the Bull Run team at Sandy.

The Herman Frederick place has been leased to S. M. Anderson for three years. Mr. Anderson has taken possession. He moved from near Seattle.

Eric & Jonsrud have purchased a new Graham Bros. 1-ton truck to do their delivering with.

R. Hendricks is home from the hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

John Karlan is carrying mail on route 2 in the place of Herman Walters, who is at his home ill.

A. B. Jonston has sold 20 acres of his property to Robert Jones.

D. Hederman spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

O. W. Boring and wife attended a surprise party on Mrs. Boring's mother, Mrs. Geo. Tacheron, in Gresham, on Tuesday evening.

POWELL VALLEY

The lenten season will be ushered in next Sunday at the Saron Lutheran church by special services in the morning. The sermon will center around the topic, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem." The pastor, the Rev. Enoch Sandeen, announces as his subject, "The Suffering of Christ, e.g. the Redemption," and this is to be the general topic during the entire season. On the Sunday evenings, beginning March 13, the Passion of Christ in five acts will be presented in song, word and picture. Special singing will be a feature at all these services. Next Sunday the choir will sing, "He Goeth to Jerusalem," a lenten song from the 16th century. The services in the evening will be in charge of the Luther League.

The Rev. A. R. Anderson is unable to be at the Mission church Sunday, therefore the meeting on Saturday evening will be cancelled. The Rev. Mr. Lundell from Seattle will be here in his place. He will speak in the morning in Swedish and the pastor, the Rev. Don Shogren, will speak in the evening in English. The young people will meet on Tuesday evening, and on the following evening the choir rehearsal will be held.

Word has been received by Powell Valley friends of the death of a former resident of that locality, Mrs. Anna Lindquist. Mrs. Lindquist, who has been in poor health for some time, was recently moved to the Columbia conference home of the aged in Seattle.

Columbian High School Notes.

The world history class attended the movie "Neil Gwyn" at the Roseway theater on February 15.

The Columbian vs. Gresham basketball game at Gresham resulted in a victory for both the first and second teams of Gresham. The score for the second teams was 21-13, and for the first teams 14-7.

Hazel Butler, who was elected an officer of the Multnomah Pomona grange, attended the installation of officers at Russellville February 16.

Verna Jenny, a freshman student from Franklin high school, Portland, entered school here at the beginning of the second semester.

The official delegates and the students who attended the O. A. C. Educational exposition were Rosetta Henkle, Adeline Evans, Lynne Woodward, Marjorie Bush, Paul Bush, and Otto Aschoff. As yet the students have not given the reports of their trip.

The students of the high and grade schools were to listen to President Coolidge's speech, February 22, in the assembly hall of the high school.

PLEASANT HOME

The pastor of the Pleasant Home Methodist church, the Rev. E. W. Withnell, will preach Sunday morning at 11:15 on the topic, "The Abundant Life."

The junior church will convene at the same hour in the basement under the leadership of Mrs. Alta Stafford. Choir rehearsal will be held Sunday evening at 7:15, followed by the Epworth League at 8 o'clock. Sunday school will begin promptly at 10 o'clock.

The regular services of Pleasant Home Baptist church will be held on Sunday, with Sunday school beginning at 10 o'clock, followed by preaching service at 11 o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. Wm. Fairweather. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:30 and evening service at 8.

The children's Happy Hour class meets at 3 o'clock. The contest which has been running for several weeks will close Sunday and prizes will be awarded the two high point winners. An evening service by these children will be given in the near future exemplifying the work they are doing.

A large and appreciative audience listened to a very successful production of the comedy drama "Sunshine" at Sandy high last Friday night by the young people of Pleasant Home. Each player was in fine fettle and everything went off with a "bang" from start to finish, notwithstanding three of the cast were in an auto wreck the Sunday previous.

Multnomah grange No. 71 will meet in regular session on Saturday, February 26, at 10:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. The lecture hour begins at 2 o'clock and is open to the public. All visitors are cordially welcomed.

Prayer meeting service at the Baptist church was dismissed this week in order that the members might attend the revival services being held in Gresham. Mr. Fairweather has been leading the singing there.

FAIRVIEW

"The Reward of Faith" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church by the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted. This will be the fourth and last sermon in the series on "Faith." Sunday school will convene promptly at 10 o'clock.
