

Gresham Locals

The Areme club will give a St. Patrick's dance in the Masonic hall on Friday evening, March 11. The committee is planning for an unusually good time. There will be special decorations and features. Gigray's orchestra will furnish the music and will include in the program a number of the always popular Irish selections.

The ladies of the American Legion auxiliary will meet for sewing at the home of Mrs. O. A. Eastman on Tuesday, March 8. They wish to complete the sewing of rags for rugs for the veterans' hospital and all are invited to join them. The auxiliary hope chest will be on display in the window of the Bank of Gresham at an early date.

The honor students for the fourth six-week period of high school are, seniors, Helena Althaus, Melcher Duncan, Alta Hendrickson, Kenneth Horberg, Mildred Kummel, Amy Noreen and Helen Sandstrom; juniors, Irene Johnson, Mabel Smith and Earl Weiss; sophomores, Margaret Gantenbein, Irma Gill, Elizabeth Robinson and Dorothy King; freshmen, Irma Smith.

About 250 Japanese of Gresham and surrounding country enjoyed a social event at the Metzger hall on Saturday evening which will long be remembered. Part of the evening's entertainment was a pageant by small girls. A drama was also arranged given by Japanese talent. Several Americans were present and enjoyed the production as well as could be expected considering the language was entirely unintelligible to them.

The Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Skuzie and son, D. M. Cathey and daughter Mrs. Mary Gossett and two children left Thursday morning for Seattle to attend a large educational convention to be held at the First Free Methodist church in that city. Mr. Cathey and daughter have numerous relatives whom they will visit while away.

Mr. and Mrs. William Averill and three sons of North Bend, Oregon, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lawrence west of Gresham. Mr. Averill was formerly an instructor in the agricultural department of the high school. He is now engaged in the confectionery business at North Bend.

A meeting of the O. A. C. alumni will be held at the high school assembly room on the evening of March 15. This will be for the purpose of boosting the college band which will appear in Gresham for concert and dance March 25.

Tickets for the junior play, "The Four Flusher," were placed on sale this morning at the three Gresham drug stores for the convenience of the public. Students of the high school will not procure their tickets for a week, thus giving the public the opportunity to secure desirable seats. An exception is made

PLEASANT HOME

At the Pleasant Home Baptist church on Sunday evening the Happy Hour class of children will give a demonstration of their work, occupying the regular evening service hour at 8 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Wm. Fairweather, will occupy the pulpit at 11 o'clock. Sunday school convenes at 10 o'clock.

The "Sunshine" players were given a banquet by the ladies of the Baptist church on Wednesday evening in the church basement. Golden rod yellow decorations gave a neat sunshiny appearance, which added to the happy faces of the honor guests made the occasion one to be long remembered. After the banquet the young people were taken to the Oaks to spend the evening in skating.

An unusually large number of grangers enjoyed the splendid program prepared by Mrs. Mary Fritz, at the last meeting of Multnomah grange. Many fine articles regarding the life of Abraham Lincoln were given. John Sleret gave a very interesting account of hearing Lincoln speak in an Illinois in the case of the parents of the play cast, who will have first choice. This is in accordance with a rule recently passed by the student body.

A large gathering marked the regular meeting of Gresham Chapter, O. E. S., last Tuesday night, when Mrs. Winifred Dyer, grand organist and deputy for the worthy grand matron, made her official visit. Other grand officers present were Worthy Grand Patron John Howard Rankin, Mrs. Lena C. Mendenhall, past worthy grand matron; Daniel O. Webster, past worthy grand patron; Mrs. Minnie White, grand marshal; and Mrs. Amy Webster, past grand marshal. The work was well put on, the officers doing their parts creditably. The music was especially commended. Among the visitors were many members of Troutdale Chapter. The hall was beautifully decorated. Light refreshments followed the floor work.

Brooderhouse and Chickens Burned.

Fire destroyed a brooderhouse, chickens and personal belongings of R. C. Couch on the Base Line road near Ascot Acres a few days ago. One hundred and thirty-five prize winning White Minorca hens and more than 300 baby chicks of the same stock perished in the flames. Mr. Couch's trunk containing valuables and all his personal belongings excepting the clothing which he wore were burned. The value of poultry house and stock is estimated at $3200. Insurance to the amount of $1500 was carried. The fire is thought to have started by a coal oil explosion. Mr. Couch was building a fence to keep his poultry enclosed when he discovered the fire but was unable to save anything.

Relief Offered.

A Tip From Nature

Nature made her WILD CREATURES wise. The Bee stores up honey for the Winter; the Beaver ricks up his woodpile; the Squirrel hoards his nuts.

The Squirrel that lives in comfort during the winter of life did not eat all his nuts as fast as he found them. The Bee, the Beaver, the Squirrel all live within their income—and Bank the difference.

Are you preparing for the winter of life by banking something out of every pay-check or are you eating your nuts as fast as you gather them?

Anybody can make money; any one can spend it; it takes a wise man to SAVE it.
