Make Washday Easier

Half the work of farm washing is in pumping and carrying the water. A Milwaukee Air Power Water System does away with this part of washday work, and supplies an abundance of hot water, too, right out of the faucet.

You also can have soft water. And the spring or well water comes direct through the pipes absolutely fresh. No stoned water. A water system does away with a lot of hard work about the barn. It's the best investment any farmer can make. Why handle water the hard way by hand when you can handle it better BY MACHINERY? Ask us about it. Call or phone.

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. EMMA JOHNSON

A large number of sympathizing friends gathered at the Saron Lutheran church on Monday afternoon to pay their last respects to the memory of Mrs. Emma Louisa Johnson who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Olsen on March 3 after an illness extending over the greater part of a year.

A profusion of beautiful flowers, for which there was scarcely room, showed the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Mrs. Karl Hagberg rendered a solo, "All the Way," and Mrs. Enoch Sandeen, "The Home of the Soul." Mrs. Ernest Lundbom accompanied them at the organ. An anthem was also given by the choir.

The Rev. Enoch Sandeen delivered a sermon in Swedish from the subject, "Mary at the Grave," and also spoke in English from the words, "Life, a Romance or a Tragedy?" The pallbearers were P. A. Johnson, Andrew Rydberg, Carl Nelson, A. C. Sward, Franz Mattson and C. A. Lindgren.

Emma Louisa Hedman was born in Gefe, Sweden, August 25, 1864, and came to America with her sisters in 1881, settling at Clay Center, Kansas, in September of that year. In 1888 she moved to California and remained there for the following ten years. Later she went to Kansas where, on February 22, 1899, she was united in marriage with Charles Johnson who preceded her in death seven years ago. They moved to Powell Valley in 1903 and settled on the farm where they lived until each was called by death.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by a daughter Mrs. Bert Olsen, who has resided at the home place since her marriage. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Martin of Bloomington, Illinois, and Mrs. C. W. Backlund of Bala, Kansas, also a brother Julius Hedman of Oakland, California.

Mrs. Johnson has been a faithful member of the Lutheran church for many years. She was a woman of sterling character, beloved in the home circle and leaves a host of friends. Interment was made in Douglass cemetery.

Card of Thanks. We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and beautiful flowers during the illness and death of our beloved mother. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olsen.

FAIRVIEW

The Fairview Parent-Teacher association will give a one-act comedy entitled, "Ain't Women Wonderful?" at the schoolhouse Friday evening, March 11, beginning at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served. Multnomah Camp Has Anniversary.

The 36th anniversary banquet of Camp No. 77, Woodmen of the World, was held last Monday night in the Crystal room of the Benson hotel. About 300 members and a few Woodmen of other camps in the city were present. Following one of the finest banquet dinners there was a long program of speaking and entertainment. The camp has nearly 7500 members, is the largest in the order, and is growing in numbers and influence. Many members are residents of Gresham and eastern Multnomah county.
