A good attendance greeted the fourth Gresham band concert of the winter series rendered at the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening. In addition to a fine selection of band music, Miss Rose Potter sang and violin selections were given by W. D. Kinder, one of which was accompanied by his wife at the piano and the other given to the accompaniment of the band. Numbers by a mixed quartet of high school students, accompanied by Miss Alice Prindle, were much appreciated. Other special numbers included clarinet and saxophone solos and a baritone duet. Many favorable comments were heard on the concert of Wednesday evening. Two remain in the series, one for the evening of April 13 and the last one on May 11.

Mrs. N. K. Holmberg of Brush Prairie, Washington, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. J. Gradin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore of Newport visited with the latter's mother, Mrs. L. Radford, from Sunday to Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their aunt Mrs. Mary Radford of Kearney, Nebraska, who has been spending the winter with her daughter Mrs. Jack Weeks at Pleasant Home, Mrs. Radford expects to return to Nebraska next month.

Clover Circle No. 202 Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger Tuesday, March 22, at 2 o'clock. It is desired that all officers and members be present as there will be installation of officers and also it is expected that a number of visitors will attend.

Several auto loads from Gresham Wednesday evening attended the revival meetings in progress at the First Free Methodist church in Portland.

The American Legion and the Women's Auxiliary will meet at the grange hall on Tuesday evening, March 22. A pot luck luncheon will be served at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jarvis of Portland were Gresham callers Tuesday. Mr. Jarvis is manager of the investment department of the Portland Electric Power company and was here in connection with business for the company. It was the first time he had visited the local P. E. P. store and he expressed himself as much pleased with the showing of the branch at Gresham.

Mrs. J. T. Horr returned Tuesday evening from a six weeks' visit with her daughter and family at Helena, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sletet were dinner guests on Tuesday evening of Mrs. L. T. Lusted and Miss Inez Lusted.

Miss Rachel Headley, a senior of Gresham high school who has been ill in a Portland hospital four weeks, is said to be slowly improving from an attack of rheumatic fever. It is expected she will be obliged to remain in the hospital several months longer.

Dinner guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Skuzie on Wednesday were the Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Coffee of Portland and their guests the Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Burritt of Greenville, Illinois. Dr. Burritt has for the past 19 years been president of Greenville college, a Free Methodist institution. He recently came from Seattle where he was one of the speakers at an educational convention and he and his wife will soon leave for California to visit for two months. On Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Skuzie and their visitors enjoyed a trip up the highway as far as Horsetail falls. The eastern people were enthusiastic in their praise of the wonderful scenery of the upper Columbia river.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers came from Portland Thursday to attend the junior play at the high school that evening. They were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Rogers' sister, Mrs. Benj. Davies.

Mrs. Arthur Dowssett entertained Saturday with a luncheon for Mrs. W. R. Burke of Berkeley, California, who is the house guest of Mrs. Benjamin Cameron. Covers were laid for 12 and the afternoon was spent with cards. Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. James W. Kington and Mrs. Cameron were also recent hostesses in honor of Mrs. Burke.

Clarence Beckman left Tuesday for north China ports as radio operator and freight clerk on the shipping board steamer, "Wawalone." Mr. Beckman is the son of Mrs. E. J. Gradin.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, returned missionaries from Africa, took dinner with the Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Skuzie yesterday. They were on their way from eastern Oregon, where they had been visiting, to Seattle where they are spending the time of their furlough. Mrs. Anderson's father, the late Rev. C. M. Damon, is buried in the Gresham cemetery.

A son weighing 8½ pounds was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lashbaugh of Portland at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

Rinar Mattson of Powell Valley, Edward Stubbs, Edward Schenk and Jack Dowsett, University of Oregon students, are enjoying the spring vacation of ten days at their respective homes. Ernest Nelson, a Powell Valley boy attending U. of O. has been in the university infirmary for some time but is now on the way to recovery.

Ed Wall of Brightwood was brought to the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman on Monday where he is under observation and medical treatment.

R. D. Mickey of Portland has purchased 10 acres of the 20 which E. W. Aylsworth recently bought of the former Andrew Brugger farm and is having a small building erected. His house is located on the Fairview road between Gresham and the Base Line. He plans to put the entire 10 acres into raspberries. The deal was negotiated through Ross Brown.

A large number from Gresham attended the supper and entertainment given by the Altar society of St. Henry's parish at Troutdale Thursday evening and report an excellent time. The proceeds amounted to over $65. A one-act comedy and musical selections composed the program of the evening.

The Methodist Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. O. A. Eastman on Wednesday afternoon.

March 23, at 2:30. The Southeast circle will be the hostess for the afternoon. All are cordially invited to be present.

The Bentley tire shop will move on April 1 to the old building next to A. W. Metzger & Company, on Powell street. Mr. Bentley has a three-year lease on this location. This is the first tenant to vacate property of the telephone company. The stores in this building it is said will not be rented except by the month. Plans for building are said to be forming.

Thomas Olds, manager of the service department of the Benj. Franklin Savings & Loan association of Portland, was in Gresham today meeting citizens in the interests of his institution. He lives in Rockwood and is in close touch with this community. (See additional locals on page 1)
