

Gresham Locals

Mrs. Elgin Kirkwood is ill and is being cared for at the Thomas sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Orofino, Idaho, are here visiting the latter's brother, Steve Wright. They are interested in the chicken business and may decide to make their home here.

Army Smith left this morning for Hood River where he will be employed on the ranch where he worked last year.

Mrs. Laura J. Beard and sons C. C. and G. P. of Withrow, Washington, were in Gresham Sunday to make arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Beard's son, James Beard, which was held at Estacada the following day in charge of the Gates Funeral home. Mr. Beard died March 18 at the age of 46. The funeral was held in the Estacada Methodist church and interment made in the L. O. O. F. cemetery at that place.

A party of about 100 Mazamas hiked over Gresham butte last Sunday on their way to Damascus.

Mrs. Mina McKinley and son Floyd are both sick with flu. Mrs. Bernita Jones and her sister, Mrs. Baldwin, have assisted in caring for them for a few days.

George Tacheron was taken to Good Samaritan hospital last Friday, where he underwent an operation Saturday. Plans are being made to bring him home this afternoon.

A fine menu has been arranged for the dinner to be given by the ladies of the Evangelical Women's union at the grange hall on Thursday evening, March 31. The dinner will be served from 5:30 to 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of the Thomas sanitarium have returned from Tillamook where they were called by the illness of their son Harry.

Mrs. Charles Splawn of Bull Run and Mrs. Carl Howell of Springdale have been recent patients at the Thomas sanitarium.

Mrs. J. E. Gates is recovering from a severe attack of flu. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of the Gresham Funeral parlors for Jiro Osaki, 10-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Torao Osaki, Japanese truck gardeners on the Sundial ranch near Troutdale. The child had been ailing for some time. Besides his parents he is survived by a brother Aiki. Concluding rites will be held at the Lincoln Memorial crematorium.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss, Mrs. Anna Engles and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Camp attended a birthday party last Sunday evening in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Alderman in honor of the birthday of Mr. Bliss's sister, Mrs. Mary Robertson.

A little man, said to be E. Gilbertson's rich uncle from England, made himself popular at the store of the Walrad Mercantile company last Saturday where he was advertising a well known brand of tea and coffee for a Portland firm. He was an affable, baldheaded little fellow with monocle, wig and spats and decidedly clever. However, he turned out to be purely mechanical and was run by a 1-3 horse power electric motor.

Plans are being completed for the box social and progressive 500 card party to be given by the Gresham grange Saturday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to this affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luckens left this morning by auto for their home in Missoula, Montana, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. F. Volbrecht. They have been in California for several months.

Miss Mayme Hoss underwent a surgical operation at the Portland sanitarium Thursday and is now reported to be doing well, though visitors will be excluded from her room for a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schenk and son Gervais, Mrs. L. Lindsey and Mrs. R. Woodbury of Boston, Massachusetts, were Sunday guests at the home of J. E. Schenk. Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Woodbury have just returned from a trip to Honolulu.

Glenn Winters, a junior in the commercial department of Oregon Agricultural college, has turned out for a place on the varsity baseball team. Winters is a member of Phi Kappa Alpha, a national fraternity.

Mrs. Catherine Harmon was at her home here on Sunday and Monday, and returned Monday to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alta Wooley at Lents, where she has been for the past six weeks assisting the latter. Mrs. Wooley fell down stairs last January, breaking a leg and two ribs, besides spraining an ankle.

Chas. Rogers, salesman for the C. T. Mudge company of Portland, has installed Milwaukee rotary pumps at the homes of C. E. Jackson and J. T. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Addy and children of Camas, Washington, visited Sunday at the home of J. N. Mewbirter.

Mrs. Lucy Osborne and her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Long of Portland visited on Saturday with Mrs. Carrie Hansen, Mrs. Mary Dodge and other friends.

Mrs. Vyola Mathews Avery of Montavilla, daughter of Benjamin Mathews of Gresham, is the leader of a big community chorus which will have a part in an entertainment to be given at the Granada theater, Montavilla, on Wednesday evening, March 23. Money raised by the concert will be used to purchase Easter music. A trades display sponsored by the baseball boys, and a 6-reel comedy, "War Paint," will be features of the entertainment.

The 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Aldrich who, with four other children arrived two weeks ago from Sandstone, Minnesota, in the care of Mrs. Heustis, grandmother of the children, is suffering a severe attack of pneumonia following measles, which developed soon after the party arrived in Gresham. She has been removed to the Thomas sanitarium for treatment. The parents and two other children are on their way west and when last heard from were snow bound in western Arizona with 15 other parties of tourists.

C. C. Sheeley and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nash of Portland Sunday. The Nash family formerly resided in Gresham.

W. Norman and family of Portland have purchased ten acres of Mabel Jackson now of Portland. The land is located five miles southeast of Gresham and was purchased by Mr. Norman as an investment. The family may move onto the place later.

A motorcycle accident occurred Sunday opposite the Hornecker place on west Powell Valley road which resulted in a broken leg for one of the riders. Probably a hundred machines were jammed on the highway when the pedal of one motorcycle caught another, throwing the occupant from the seat and fracturing a bone in his leg.

Emmett Riehl received a unique souvenir from Honolulu yesterday in the shape of a coconut intact in the outer shell, on which was written the address. Mr. Riehl's father F. C. Riehl who has a three-year contract in Australia and the Philippine Islands as the representative of the Western Cartridge company, sent the coconut which required 38 cents in postage. Among other things of interest concerning it there was a yellow tag announcing it had passed the quarantining requirements in California.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its business meeting Thursday afternoon at the library. Plans are being made for the bake sale to be held at the A. W. Metzger store on March 26.

Martin Anderson of Boring purchased a Blackhawk spreader which was auctioned off Saturday at the Hessel Implement company's store. Much interest was aroused by means of this sale. Two carloads of Whippets and Willys Knights have been received by Hessel brothers at their show rooms during the past ten days.

C. A. Carothers has purchased a Ford sedan of W. V. Church.

Mrs. W. V. Church of Arboleda visited Thursday with the Carothers, Schenk and William Anderson families.

Among the college students at home over Sunday were Alden Miller from the University of Washington, Joyce Kluder and Wm. McAllister from Willamette University. The latter had as guests for the day John Hetzel and Walter Fuhrer, schoolmates in college.
