Columbian High

By Frances Evans, Editor.
The Columbian high boys' team ended a very successful basketball season when they defeated the Cascade Locks team 24-14 on Tuesday, March 15. The Columbian girls, however, were not so fortunate. They lost the game to the Cascade Locks girls, the score being 25-18. Vye Mendenhall, a former student of Columbian, attended the game.

On Wednesday, March 16, a banquet was given at the high school for the three Columbian basketball teams, the boys', the girls' and the alumni. Toasts were given by the captains, coaches and the principals of the high and grade schools. After the banquet, which was served by the domestic science class, those who wished attended a dance at Chanticleer Inn.

Lucile Johns, who recently entered school, entertained a group of high school students at a party given at her home March 18.

The school board has purchased a machine, the "Multistamp" for the student body. It is for the purpose of getting out advertising.
