

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Quinby are being congratulated over the arrival of a daughter weighing 7 1/2 pounds on April 3. Mrs. Quinby and baby are at the home of Mrs. Carrie Powell.

Tige Morgan and Tex Wedgwood, horsemen from San Francisco, are at the home of Mrs. Anna Wallin on Cleveland avenue. They are looking for work and may soon go on to eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Anna Wallin is recovering from a severe siege of flu. She was ill for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Newcombe were happily surprised Monday evening when friends from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. McQuin and their daughter Lorene, and Ed Page of Seattle came in. Music, dancing and cards made the time pass pleasantly. Refreshments were served.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Baker on Maple avenue were Roy J. Baker and family of Grass Valley, Oregon. Mr. Baker, who is an attorney, had business in Portland for the week. Bert Baker and family and his sister Mrs. Clara Baker drove to Grass Valley Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Baker and wife returned Monday but Mrs. Clara Baker remained for a stay of a week with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Schwanke and children have recently moved to Gresham from Schefflin, a small place near Hillsboro, where Mr. Schwanke was in the general merchandise business 14 years. They are occupying the Calkins house on Maple avenue. Mr. Schwanke has obtained a position with the Hessel Implement company as country agent.

Miss Lucy Adams is moving today into her house on Cleveland avenue and Powell street. She plans to remodel the residence which, when completed, will contain a three-room apartment for rental. The premises were vacated Wednesday by Victor Kyle who has lived there for the past two and a half years. J. R. Harlan has leased three acres of the place which he will put into potatoes.

J. F. Barnes is driving a new car, a Dodge sedan which he recently purchased through the agency of Brockway & Nelson.

Mrs. J. C. Hessel is here from Mabton, Washington, for a two-weeks' visit with her sons W. A. and family and John Hessel and her daughter Mrs. James Elkington.

Lewis & Son are giving a complete overhauling this week to their Garford stage, which makes the Portland-Gresham run over the Powell Valley road. It will be newly painted before going back on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putnam have recently bought an acre of land on Birdsade avenue north of Powell Valley road. They came here from Fern Prairie, Washington. Mr. Putnam is a carpenter.

Miss Virginia Currin was given a pleasant surprise shower Tuesday evening by the Sunshine club at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann in honor of her approaching marriage to Melvin Brugger. Hidden in a large bouquet were a number of remembrances from her friends.

The Outlook has a limited number of cooking class lessons, which will be distributed free to any calling for them as long as they last.

Wm. Congdon, of Vernonia, was in Gresham last Saturday calling on old friends. "Bill" is looking fine and says he has recovered from his recent illness. He was on his way home after a visit with his son Carl at Pacific Grove, California, and his daughter, Mrs. Frankie Granville at Marshfield. Carl was recently married.

The Areme club will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Haley on Monday afternoon, April 11. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. George Stapleton, Mrs. Arthur Dowsett and Mrs. W. L. Gorsage. All O. E. S. ladies are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Foust and two children came to Gresham the first of April from Troutdale and are occupying the E. M. Camp house north of their residence.

Charles Cleveland returned Wednesday from a business trip to eastern Oregon.

Four workmen were engaged a day and a half of this week in dynamiting stumps on the roadway up Gresham butte preparatory to the work of grading which will be undertaken later by the county. The property owners on the butte are doing this preliminary improvement of blowing off the stumps and removing them from the right of way.

Miss Edna Brown of Portland, a saleslady at the Meier & Frank store, is spending a week with her mother Mrs. Belle Brown. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Addy of Camas, Washington, the latter a daughter of Mrs. Brown, were guests Sunday at the J. N. Mewhirter home.

Mrs. Mary Kadderly of Portland is being cared for at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong. She will be remembered by old friends as Miss Mary LaDue and resided near Gresham years ago.

Mrs. H. J. Sibley and her husband's mother Mrs. Sarah Sibley of Portland visited yesterday and today at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Harriet Timmerman.

Eula Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan L. Langlitz, entertained her three small aunts Selma, Esther and Mabel Langlitz last evening at a celebration of her sixth birthday. A birthday angel cake, ornamented with six candles, arrived for the party from Eula Mae's grandparents in New Plymouth, Idaho.

A. W. Metzger and family are enjoying a new Buick brougham which was recently purchased through the Walter Metzger Buick agency.

Mrs. W. S. Everett will entertain the sewing meeting of the American Legion auxiliary at her home on Third and Kelly on Tuesday afternoon, April 12, beginning at 2 o'clock.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

High school students and others who wish are to be treated to a rare event Monday morning at 9 o'clock when William Lee Greenleaf, a dramatic interpreter of national reputation, will read "The Merchant of Venice" at the high school. He was present a few days ago and read the prologue to this Shakespearean play to the student body with the result he was invited for a second presentation.

A program of unusual interest was given by the freshmen at the fifth period yesterday. With but one exception the numbers were musical. A piano solo was rendered by Irma Smith, a vocal duet by Kenneth Lord and Evelyn Tauscher and a violin solo by Percy O'Neal, accompanied by Dorothy Kelly. Donna Elmer played a solo on a Hawaiian steel guitar and other selections were a vocal solo by Alice Most, a clarinet solo by William Schmierer and a piano duet by Lois Lucas and Dorothy Kendall. "The Freshmen Follies," a pre-Easter number of school newspaper, was served hot from the bat. The paper was read by Howard Hamilton and Ruth Wallin.

Margaret Kerslake, Emma Kuch and Stewart Cranston have numbers prepared which will be given later. The freshmen class of Gresham Union high school has some fine talent which only remains to be exercised to be appreciated by friends and patrons of the school.
