

ROCKWOOD

Rev. J. F. Dunlop spent two days at Estacada this week superintending work on his berry ranch.

Dr. C. H. Haynes is remodeling and enlarging his home.

Albert Boice of Portland has been visiting at the J. W. Eckert home this week.

Herbert Dunlop has gone to Neskowin to fill a position in the Harold Frink Mercantile store.

Plans have been completed for the special Mother's Day services at the Rockwood community church, and a large attendance is earnestly desired. A bouquet will be given the oldest mother present, special music has been arranged and there will be baptismal service. The Rev. Mr. Dunlop will preach the morning sermon. Any mother who has no means of transportation will be provided for to and from the church if she will leave word at Eckert's store.

The young people of the Epworth League are anxious that all the young folks of the community be again reminded of the League "birthday party," which is to be held at the church next Saturday evening, May 7. The committee is arranging a program of music and games and is hoping to welcome a large gathering.

Mrs. Walter Tooze and small daughter Suzanne were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olds. Mrs. Tooze is a well known singer in her own community and very graciously gave her assistance at the silver tea given by the Rockwood church last Wednesday.

Bernard Schmidt of Clinton, Massachusetts, near Boston, has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Olds for a day or two. Mr. Schmidt is on a tour of the United States. He has come north from southern California and says that he likes the looks of the country around here best of any he has seen on the coast.

BORING

The service at the Methodist church on Sunday will be appropriate for Mother's Day. The pastor, the Rev. E. W. Withnell, will speak from the topic "Why Honor Mother." There will be special music. The morning service will be at 10 o'clock, followed by Sunday school at 11 o'clock.

Ray Naas and Erma Dugger quietly slipped over to Vancouver last Wednesday and were married. They were accompanied by Bert Garrison and wife, an uncle and aunt of the groom. The bride and groom are both very well known here. The groom was born and grew to manhood at Boring, and the bride has spent most of her life here. She came here from Grass Valley, Oregon, with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harden Dugger when quite small. Ray has been employed as deliveryman and clerk in the store of W. R. Telford for the past four years, and Erma has been doing housework for the Telfords for about three and one-half years.

Mr. and Mrs. Naas are both active members of the Rebekah lodge. They have rented and furnished the cottage belonging to Mrs. J. W. Roots.

Darrel Seifer has purchased half of his father's place and intends to farm.

Ernest Amesbury has leased Mrs. Potter's house and expects to move his family there soon. Mr. Amesbury is going to work as a mechanic for W. W. Metzger in Gresham.

The L. H. Mallicoat family spent Sunday with Mr. Mallicoat's brother and family in Portland.

Sam Gregson went to work for the Union Oil company in Gresham Monday.

The Pleasant Home district Sunday school association will hold its semi-annual convention at the Haley Baptist church on Sunday, May 22. The program will start at 11:30. Dr. Milligan of Portland will speak in the morning, and Dr. John McCormick from Salem will speak in the afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Potter is doing the housekeeping at the W. R. Telford home.

The play given by the Rebekah lodge on Saturday evening was well attended and was declared a success from all angles.

COTTRELL

Mrs. Carrie Noble of Portland will speak Sunday at 11 o'clock at the Cottrell community church. Sunday school will convene at 10 as usual. Some special Mother's Day numbers will be sung.

TROUTDALE

The Troutdale Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Tom Low. Twenty-two ladies were present and an interesting meeting was held. Many important subjects were discussed. After the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. C. I. Thomas, Mrs. Sam Harlow and Mrs. Low, and Mrs. Low gave a surprise of Scotch shortbread, which all enjoyed. Mrs. George Lumsden of Fairview was a guest.

The card party given by the social committee of the O. E. S. was well attended and all had a pleasant time. Edward Stewart of Portland sang several beautiful selections, which were much enjoyed. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Geo. Wilcox and Mrs. Anna Richardson.

Several of the Troutdale men donated a day's work last Saturday toward fixing the school ground. There were four tractors and one team at work all day grading. A few ladies served dinner to the men. In the afternoon the Flower club met at the schoolhouse to discuss the setting of the shrubs and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Dahl have traded their confectionery and lunch room to Mr. and Mrs. Raker for a small farm near Goble, Oregon. Mrs. Buckley will run the confectionery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laudan spent Sunday at their ranch near Woodburn, Oregon.

Mrs. Lee Evans and daughter Ruth and Mrs. C. F. Parsons spent Thursday in Portland at the home of Mrs. Evans' sister, Mrs. Roger Birgefeld.

Mrs. R. W. Price and daughters, Catherine and Ruth, and W. B. Struble were Sunday visitors at the L. A. Harlow home.

Special "Mothers' Day" program will be given at the Sunday services at the church at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Sam Harlow will sing a solo and the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted will preach. A short program by the Sunday school will also be given.

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Margaret Burns were Mr. and Mrs. David Burns and family of Newberg, Oregon, and the Misses Elgin and Isabella Smith and Russell Shepherd, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Federspiel of Oregon City spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Low.

Tuesday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Low were Mr. and Mrs. J. Milne of The Dalles.

Will Crawford and son Emerson left Sunday for Skamania, Washington, to fish during the season.

STATED COMMUNICATION Fairview Lodge No. 92, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening, May 7, 1927, 8 o'clock. Past Masters will confer M. M. Degree. Visiting brethren welcome.

Columbian High

(Lillian Post, Editor)

Six of the American history students participated in a debate last Tuesday, with the remainder of the class as judges. The question debated was, "Resolved: That prohibition should be abolished," with Bella Reed as captain of the affirmative, and Halbert Babbitt as leader of the negative. The negative side won, with quite a majority.

A baseball game was played Wednesday, the 27th, with Parkrose, at Corbett, with a score of 18-0 in favor of Columbian. A game was played at Corbett, Monday, with Sandy, with the close score of 3-4 in Sandy's favor.

The domestic science girls served lunch to the men teachers of the high and grade schools Wednesday. The same evening Mrs. Edmundson of Friendship Gardens entertained the teachers of both schools.

Earnest Nichel, a whistler, gave a 45-minute program before the high school and neighboring grade schools on Friday morning. The program was very much enjoyed.

The Cohimore is expected the latter part of next week. Every one is waiting it anxiously as new features have been put in, and it is quite an improvement over the former ones. The printing is being done by the Outlook Publishing Co. The photographers are Peasley-Jourdan of Portland and the engravers are Dimm & Sons.

Progressive Luncheon Served.

The ladies of the Lynhurst Sewing club enjoyed a four-course luncheon last Tuesday which was much enjoyed by the members and their one invited guest for the day, Mrs. Richard Wisner. The first course, consisting of fruit cocktail, was served at Norma Dryden's cottage on Barker road. Mrs. Wm. Dryden was hostess for the second course of vegetable salad with salted wafers. The third course was at the home of Mrs. W. O. Shaver, who served creamed chicken with dumplings, potatoes and buttered carrots. The fourth course of rhubarb custard pie and coffee was served by Mrs. D. K. Young at her home on L avenue. At the home of Mrs. D. W. Shaver the ladies played 16 hands of 500, honors going to Mrs. W. O. Shaver. Here the hostess served cake and tea.

ROCKWOOD

The Rev. J. F. Dunlop will preach at the special Mother's Day service to be held at the Rockwood Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers will be honored with reserved pews and committees have arranged for the distribution of flowers to all mothers. A child's baptismal service will be a feature of the meeting on Sunday morning.
