

Gresham Locals

Continued from page 1

Mrs. H. H. Ott entertained at luncheon Friday, a women's club of Portland, of which she is a member.

Miss Eva Tacheron, who taught last year at Sisters, Oregon, has returned home for the summer's vacation. She is spending this week at Salem with her sister Mrs. Emmett Welling. Miss Tacheron has been engaged to teach the second year at Sisters.

Gale Da'nton spent Saturday night with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan on his way from Centralia, Washington, to Newport, Oregon, to spend his vacation with his father and grandparents.

Jane Fieldhouse of St. Helens is at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Martha Fieldhouse, in the absence of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse, who are at Shipperd springs near Carson, Washington, where Mr. Fieldhouse is receiving treatment.

Mrs. L. T. Lusted is seriously ill at her home from complications and weakness resulting from flu.

Mrs. J. F. Heyne and three children of Waterloo, Oregon, are the guests of Mrs. Heyne's mother, Mrs. A. F. Hoover.

Joseph W. Peak has been engaged to teach physical education in Klamath high school next year. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon in the class of 1926.

Roger Kidder, 11, joined with his uncle, H. M. Miller, in a birthday celebration on June 1 at the Miller home, Fir Grove farm. The two families and the E. R. Kidder family had dinner together in the evening.

Mrs. Eva Saling and Mrs. Ava Bronson of Estacada have moved into the Zimmerman house on Section Line road near Cleveland avenue. They expect to work at the cannery during the canning season.

Charles Adams, who is in a Portland hospital as the result of an accident last Thursday afternoon on the county road southwest of Gresham, is doing as well as can be expected considering the serious nature of his injury. He expects to remain in the hospital at least two weeks longer. He has secured the services of a competent teamster W. J. Samson who will handle his orders until he is able to attend to them. Mrs. Adams will assist in planning out the work.

A midnight prowler, however, not an unwelcome one, found his way into the basement of J. E. Gates Sunday night through an open window. He is a pet raccoon of the gray variety with a black face striped with white. The coon turned out to be the property of Fritz Baumann, who claimed his pet and took it home.

Recent automobile deliveries made by Hessel Implement Company in the Corbett district are two Whippet coupes, one to D. Fay Davis and one to W. R. Lasley. This is the fourth automobile Mr. Davis has purchased from Hessel Implement Co.

Gresham will be represented this year at Corvallis in the 1927 graduating class of Oregon Agricultural college by Walter Schwedler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwedler of Kenney avenue, and Wilbur Altman, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Altman of Pleasant Home. Schwedler is majoring in agriculture and specializing in marketing of agricultural products. He is a member of the Oregon Countryman staff, the Agricultural club and Sigma Pi, social fraternity. Altman is majoring in the commercial course of the college and is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Callers on Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair at the Outlook office on Wednesday were Dr. George S. Innis and his sister, Mrs. Bohanan of Tacoma, Washington, Mrs. E. C. Rossman and her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Given of Portland. Dr. Innis was a college professor of Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair and Mrs. Rossman, also Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson, on whom the party called the same day.

Charley Wheeler has gone to Vancouver, Washington, near which place he has erected and will operate a chicken dinner inn.

Plant Sale

for this week only
We must have the room for winter crops.

Cannas, Geraniums, big plants at 15¢ each. Petunias, double and single, 10¢ each. Thousands of small plants at 5¢ each. Zinnias, Anters, Lobelia stock from flats, 20¢ dozen. Tomato plants, late cabbage, 75¢ per 100, $6 per thousand. This is the week and this is the place.

GRESHAM GREENHOUSES

½ mile east, 1½ miles south Gresham
Hogan Road Phone 806
Flowers for All Occasions

Mrs. R. E. Myers, saleslady for the Walrad Mercantile company, was agreeably surprised Friday evening upon her return to her home in the Shultz apartments to find that her children had dinner prepared in honor of her birthday. Later Mrs. Myers was presented with a handsome gold Elgin watch with bracelet. Besides her son Vincent, those present were her two sons-in-law and daughters Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Pinney and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Richards from Portland.

Miss Edna Mewhirter returned Sunday from a week's visit with her parents at Newberg. She expects to spend the summer, in Gresham.

F. E. Dutcher, a brother of Mrs. Will Hessel, with his family and a cousin Miss Grace Williams came out from Portland Sunday as guests at the Hessel home. In the afternoon the two families drove to Government camp. Mrs. Hessel's father, John Lewis, spends a part of each week at the home of his daughter.

Everett Ward of Enterprise, Oregon, is here for the berry season at the home of his uncle E. M. Ward.

The Gresham grange will meet Saturday evening at 7:30 for a short session, after which the members will go to Fairview to hear the address of the national grange master, Louis Tabor, of Columbus, Ohio.

An interesting program has been arranged for the meeting of the W. C. T. U. to be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Honey.

World's W. C. T. U. day and Flower Mission day will be observed. Mrs. W. J. Cooper will give a review of the book, "Bits of China". Mrs. E. G. Judd will give a short talk on mission work in Africa. Mrs. Carl Schultz will speak from the subject, "White Ribbon Work in Bermuda" and Mrs. I. S. Korsund will speak of the work of the flower mission department. Those wishing to attend are asked to meet at the Gresham Drug company's store where automobiles will be provided.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wright are the proud parents of a baby girl born Saturday, June 4. She tipped the scales at 9½ pounds.

The Hessel Implement company unloaded another car of Whippets Monday. They have delivered eight new Whippets during the past week.

Guernsey Wood returned Friday evening from the Gresham Funeral parlors for Henry Morishita, a three-months-old child, the son of a Japanese family of this vicinity. Death occurred at the isolation hospital from whooping cough and pneumonia. The mother and another child are ill there at the present time. The funeral was largely attended by Japanese and the rites conducted under the Buddhist faith. Interment took place in Gresham cemetery.

Etta Bechill entertained nine young friends Saturday afternoon on the occasion of her 12th birthday. All had a most enjoyable time. Those present were Etta and Winnifred Bechill, Helen Mack, Betty Jean McKillican, Laura and Nellie Johnson, Genevieve and Mary Elizabeth Kirkwood, Violet Nelson and Ruby Sloan.

R. W. Harvey, salesman for the Hessel Implement company, was involved in a slight accident in Portland Sunday evening when the Whippet he was driving collided with a Ford. The matter was a question of who had the right of way, but no one was seriously injured. A young lady sustained a slight injury to her arm which was treated at the emergency hospital.

Mrs. Anna Elliott and Miss Dorothy Elliott of Tacoma are guests this week of Mrs. Marion Johnson.

The Gresham circle of the Women's Evangelical Union will meet with Mrs. John Gantenbein on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. George A. Studer and her six-weeks-old daughter, Marilyn Louise, of Stockton, California, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Studer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Volbrecht.

"Modern Heart Failure" will be the subject of the discourse to be delivered by Mrs. Genevieve Booth-Clibborn next Sunday afternoon at the Gresham Undenominational temple. This will be the last Sunday Mrs. Booth-Clibborn will fill the local pulpit, as the regular pastor the Rev. S. F. Pitts is expected back some time next week. The attendance last Sunday was large and much interest is being manifested.

Miss Claudia Thom, a daughter of Dr. J. W. Thom of Bend, Oregon, is the house guest of her aunt Mrs. C. N. Taber.

HANNEMANN'S ICE CREAM
A pure cream product from expertly fed world famous Jersey cows.
Exclusively at the TABER PHARMACY
in Gresham.
Any Flavor.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Gresham Funeral parlors for Henry Morishita, a three-months-old child, the son of a Japanese family of this vicinity. Death occurred at the isolation hospital from whooping cough and pneumonia. The mother and another child are ill there at the present time. The funeral was largely attended by Japanese and the rites conducted under the Buddhist faith. Interment took place in Gresham cemetery.

Frank Jones gave his new house, which he has recently erected on Division street, an old fashioned house warming last evening by inviting in a company of friends. Some of the more experienced took turns playing violin and banjo and "calling off" for the old square dances. All had a good time.

Mrs. Grace Mast and two children have gone to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where they have relatives. She disposed of her house to Barnes & Son and it will be occupied soon by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barnes and family. J. F. Barnes and sons Robert and James have taken up their summer residence in their cottage at Blue Lake. The house in Gresham is undergoing a thorough renovation. The interior will be newly papered and painted and later the outside will be repainted.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Howell and daughter Alice returned Saturday from a trip to Waldport, Oregon, where an aunt of Mr. Howell was buried on Thursday. They were accompanied by the Rev. Frank Burns of Bell station who conducted the funeral service.

(See additional locals on page 1)

Piano Tuning.
Piano tuning, $3.50. Piano and organ repairing. Fred B. Jones, 2625, 49th street S.E., Portland. Phone Tabor 3952 or Gresham 1561.—Adv.

New Today

For the Swimming Season

Bathing Suits for men, women and children, made in the popular styles and colors. Bathing shoes and caps to match.

Very Special

BIB OVERALLS, a very good grade 98c
This week

WALRAD MERCANTILE CO.

"The House of Quality"

GRESHAM, OREGON
PHONE 1411

We Give Green Trading Stamps

New Styles in Ladies Shoes

$4.95

Blonde, Biege, Tan, Black

Also Slippers and Oxfords $3.95

Aylsworth & Martin Inc.
MEN'S WEAR SHOES
GRESHAM

TRADE IN YOUR OLD TIRES ON NEW

Protected Tires

LIBERAL ALLOWANCE

New Tires are fully protected for one entire year at no additional cost.

See us for bargains in used tires. We buy, sell and trade.

Gresham Battery & Tire Shop

E. P. CHRISTENSEN, Prop. Phone 1701
Ivy Filling Station
Vulcanizing Battery Repairing

Wash Dresses

Ladies and children's wash dresses made up of good quality English prints and percales. Exceptional values. Children's sizes 6 to 14, ladies' sizes 36 to 50, speci-ally priced at $2.95

Kitchen Aprons

Made up of good dark colored gingham in three sizes, small, medium and large. Just what you will want for the berry fields. Priced at

69¢

W. R. HICKS CO.

For Years and Years

RELIABLE DEALERS IN

Automobiles Implements Water Systems

WILLYS KNIGHT

4 — WHIPPET — 6

CHRYSLER

50 — 60 — 70 — 80

STUDEBAKER

DEPENDABLE USED CARS

HESSEL IMPLEMENT CO.

W. A. HESSEL Phone 1141 J. C. HESSEL

This Electric Range... an ever-faithful servant

Without extra cost during June

With every Westinghouse Automatic Electric Range you purchase, you'll receive These Three Conveniences

1 A King Kitchen Stool (price $2.25), all metal, gray enamel, and with rubber-tipped feet.

2 A Westinghouse Automatic Electric Iron (price $7.75). Maintains perfect ironing temperature at all times.

3 A Paragon Clothes Basket (price $3.50). No more stooping or bending—it has folding legs.

Westinghouse
"The Range with the Clock"

These modern days, we solve the servant problem by installing electrical servants in our homes.

During June, you have an extraordinary opportunity to procure a modern, up-to-the-minute Westinghouse Electric Range.

It is an automatic Electric Range—will cook your dinners for you—watch them—keep them piping hot for you, no matter where you are or what you are doing.

Modern in every detail—the Automatic Console pictured—takes up a small amount of floor space—gives perfected service and liberates you from kitchen drudgery.

10% Down (minimum $15)
5% monthly—while you're using it.
May we explain to you in person?

PORTLAND ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY

ELECTRIC STORE ELECTRIC BLDG.
Powell St. Phone 801 Gresham