

Gresham Locals

Mrs. Georgia Nelson, secretary of KHQ, a radio broadcasting station of Spokane, who has been in Portland arranging radio programs, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith at the C. N. Taber residence.

Mrs. W. F. Honey and her daughter Miss Florence Honey attended the opening of the pageant "Rosaria" in Portland Monday evening at the civic stadium. They cannot speak too highly of this beautiful spectacle. Enos Volbrecht, Hal Jones and Miss Elizabeth Horning of Gresham are connected with the pageant, also Mrs. Raymond Rogers of Portland, a former Gresham resident. A large number of local people have enjoyed the pageant this week.

Six girls enjoyed a merry party at the home of Mrs. W. F. Honey Monday afternoon in honor of the sixth birthday of Margaret Nickerson. The others present were Jean Nickerson, Margaret Brooks, June Forbes, Helen Heiney and Virginia Miller. Games and refreshments were enjoyed on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Scharbrough have secured housekeeping rooms at the home of Mrs. Ed. Smith on Main street.

Flower lovers are becoming greatly interested in a freak blossom of the floral world on the beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kenney. No one who has seen it so far has been able to name the stranger, although it is plainly a member of the lily family. The bulb from which the plant started was a gift to Mrs. Kenney about six years ago and the plant has now attained a height of about two and a half feet. The blossom must have developed suddenly some time during Monday. It is a most wonderful shade of maroon, 24 inches in length and eight inches across and of a velvety texture which must be seen to be appreciated. It produces a sheen when struck by the rays of the sun that is simply indescribable. While beautiful in appearance, the odor is very objectionable. This is the first time the plant has ever blossomed. Mrs. Kenney is anxious that her friends may have an opportunity of seeing the rare blossom while it lasts.

Mrs. P. E. Mills, in an interesting communication, states that apple juice can be canned successfully in a pressure cooker and will keep as sweet as when taken from the press. Mrs. Mills experimented with a few quarts which, when opened several months later, was in perfect condition. A 15-pound pressure was used for three minutes.

Miss Martha Owsley has returned from Toledo, Oregon, where she has been teaching the past year. She will spend the summer vacation at the home of her mother Mrs. Carrie Owsley on Pioneer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Burch of Roseburg are spending a few days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch.

Mrs. Hannah Johnson, a former resident of Gresham, spent a few hours here Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson now resides at Sycamore station. She is 91 years of age and sprightly as a much younger woman.

The Gresham Box works, located west of the cannery, is adding a new crate machine to its equipment. The proprietor, P. F. Felt states that with the installation of this new saw he will be prepared to turn out a complete crate. Heretofore he has been making hallocks only, but as soon as the new saw is ready to run, he can manufacture all kinds of vegetable and berry crates in a substantial manner. Mr. Felt says that although this is the first season for his crate and hallock industry, he cannot complain as to business. He has a separate building where the knocked down crates are assembled and mailed.

The Kallander Floral company of Portland has purchased the 4 1/2-acre tract of Fred Bechill located east of his residence property on Division street and is rapidly making a fine floral farm of it. At present part of the tract is set out to strawberries, but much of the ground will probably later be put into bulbs and shrubbery. Ten thousand gladiol bulbs have been planted and Spanish iris will be largely featured by the floral company. John Lindroth is working the place, picking the strawberries and otherwise caring for the ground for the owners.

Mrs. W. C. Elliott and her daughter Miss Dorothy Elliott of Tacoma have decided to spend the summer in Gresham with Mrs. Marion Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Johnson. Miss Elliott was graduated June 2 from St. Paul's School for Girls at Walla Walla, Washington, and expects to enter college in September.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair enjoyed a motor trip last Sunday afternoon to the Sandy Lumber company mill east of Cherryville. A short side trip led them to a logged-off tract where rhododendrons were plentiful and just now in their glory. Emma Johnson, Mildred Davies and Margaret St. Clair were also in the party.

Milo C. King, well known attorney who formerly resided here, was married June 1 to Mrs. J. E. Steed.

according to a newspaper report of June 12. Mr. King practiced law in Multnomah county for 14 years. (See additional locals on page 1)
