

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bushong visited on Sunday afternoon with their nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Bert Herald and family at Oak Grove.

The Rev. H. E. Kreider of Seattle spent Friday and Saturday as the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. L. A. Skuzie. He made the trip to Portland and vicinity in the interests of Seattle-Pacific college of which he is the field agent.

Jep Robertson attended a picnic at Peninsula park Sunday which was a reunion of former residents of Gilliam county, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and two children of Seattle arrived Sunday to spend a week with Mrs. Minnie Brown, her son Ross and daughter Mrs. Miriam Adkins. The small daughter of Mrs. Adkins, who has been seriously ill in a Portland hospital, is reported improved.

A Portland woman and her two-year-old daughter were badly bruised Sunday afternoon as the door to the automobile in which they were riding opened and the child was precipitated to the paved highway, the mother following in an attempt to rescue the child. A Gresham physician was called to the scene of the accident which happened in the vicinity of Krebs mill east of Gresham. The child evidently was playing with the fastening to the door of the car which suddenly opened as they were proceeding 35 miles an hour. It is considered almost miraculous that both were not seriously injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Smith are entertaining the latter's mother Mrs. Mary Campbell, and her niece Miss Della Campbell, both of Mabton, Washington. They enjoyed the pleasures of rose festival week and Miss Campbell has been assisting at the local cannery for a few days.

Recent automobile deliveries made by the Hessel Implement company include Whippet sedans to the Rev. Enoch Sandeen and W. L. Gorsage and Chrysler roadsters to Nick Meter, Carl Arvidson and Archie Stone.

Mrs. Henry Barbee and her son William and daughter Elizabeth, on their way to the New England states from San Jose, California, spent Friday and Saturday with Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilhousen and son John of The Dalles were week-end visitors at the home of W. W. Hastings. Mrs. Gilhousen and Mrs. Hastings are sisters.

Mrs. Mark Nickerson returned Saturday from spending two weeks with college friends at Wenatchee, Washington. Saturday noon Mrs. Nickerson ate lunch at an Arlington, Oregon, hotel which probably was washed away 24 hours later in the terrific cloudburst and consequent flood of water.

George Duncan has purchased a Ford touring car through the local agency of Raker & Son.

Mrs. Ada Burton of Sacramento, California, is spending the summer in Gresham and vicinity visiting her sisters Mrs. Carrie Powell, Mrs. T. H. Hawes, Mrs. A. E. Miles, her brother P. H. Roork and other relatives.

The Baptist Ladies Guild will hold a bake sale on Saturday, July 2, at the Piggly Wiggly store, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

The Misses Leona and Amelia Beckman returned to their home in Spokane yesterday after spending ten days as the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann. During their stay they visited in Portland and made a trip to Seaside.

Miss Lillian Danielson and Mrs. Frank Adams, the latter's sons, John and Marshall, of Tacoma, Washington, are guests at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson of Mrs. Anna Elliott who, with her daughter Dorothy, has been here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Page and children spent the week-end at Manzanita at the Lawrence beach cottage. They reported the former Gresham people there doing well. John Fieldhouse, now 87, is well, as is Miss Alberta Allen who is keeping house for him. Mrs. Kardell, widow of the late Emil G. Kardell, is caring for the postoffice and store with the aid of her daughter, Evangelina.

Mrs. Carrie Powell went to Wasco, Oregon, Saturday and returned Monday evening with her grandchildren Gertrude and George Jr. Lee who had been visiting their father there since the close of school. They will remain until after the Fourth of July with their grandmother when they will return to Wasco until the beginning of the Gresham schools.

Lois Bryant of Moro, Oregon, who has been the guest of Charlotte Johnson for the past two weeks, returned to her home last week accompanied by Charlotte who will visit in the Bryant home for two weeks.

W. S. Everett, all around trouble adjuster of the Oregon Telephone company, was unwittingly the cause of considerable commotion Thursday morning while engaged in testing out the lines in connection with his regular routine of duties. In some manner the circuit became shorted which caused the fire bell to ring vigorously for several minutes. The wire running from the telephone office to the bell runs parallel with the telephone wires and when he began the test of the different wires, the bell wire was included which caused it to start ringing.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. W. D. Kinder and Elwood Duncan drove to Corvallis Wednesday to spend the day with the club members who are attending the O. A. C. summer school. Mrs. Kinder remained and went to Eugene for a day or two and will return to Gresham tomorrow with Mr. Kinder at the close of the school session.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning, John Roberts and George Curran attended the 55th reunion of the Oregon Pioneer association held last Thursday in the public auditorium. This affair, which occurs annually, is of much interest to the pioneers and their descendants. A fine program was rendered in the afternoon in which a number of notable pioneers had a part. Mr. and Mrs. Manning were present Sunday at the 17th annual meeting of the Douglas County People's association which took place at Peninsula park. L. P. Manning was re-elected president of the association; A. B. Caster, first vice president; Burt W. Hollister, second vice president; Nancie Drain Singleton, re-elected secretary; C. H. Gossett, treasurer. Others attending from Gresham and vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Sharps Durling and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snuffin.

Charley Wheeler was attending to matters of business in Gresham yesterday. He is now proprietor of "Kentucky Hut", a chicken dinner inn located 3 1/2 miles north of Vancouver, Washington, on the new Pacific highway.

C. A. Rogers of Portland was calling on friends in Gresham yesterday.

G. A. Noreen was elected to succeed himself Monday at the election held at the high school for the selection of a member of the board of directors. Thirty-three votes were cast, of which Mr. Noreen received all but two. Mrs. Pearl Fortner was clerk of the election board and C. E. Rusher, Mrs. James Elkington and Mrs. O. A. Eastman judges.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. Q. Barry, former Gresham residents, left yesterday on an eastern trip to be gone two months. They will visit a son in New York and later attend the International Baptist Young People's Union convention in Philadelphia to which Mrs. Barry is a delegate. They expect to visit some time in Michigan during the two months' vacation.

Mrs. James Sterling and Mrs. Arnold Ruegg entertained 17 ladies at luncheon on Friday at the former's home on Division street. A social afternoon was enjoyed following the lunch. Miss Gertrude Alexander won a prize in a guessing contest in which each lady represented a book. Mrs. H. V. Wilhelm won first place in a flower guessing contest. Mrs. Gladys Ruegg and Mrs. James Sterling rendered a piano duet, Miss Alexander gave a planologue and Mrs. Marie Morgan a reading.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire motored to Camp Clatsop Sunday where they visited for a time with their sons Harry and Arden who are in the National Guard summer training camp. With the boys they went on to Seaside where they enjoyed a clam dinner together. The trip amounted to 281 miles for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott were surprised Saturday evening, the event being the 17th anniversary of their marriage. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ott, Mrs. H. S. Alexander, Miss Gertrude Alexander, Leslie Walrad, Miss Helen Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Adix, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Haley, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorne, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Morgan of Portland. Cards were enjoyed, followed by refreshments. The couple was presented with a beautiful glass dish.

H. L. St. Clair, Mrs. Elsie Cogswell and Emma B. Johnson enjoyed a hike up the Eagle creek trail as far as Tunnel falls on Sunday. This enticing point, where the trail has been tunneled through rock back of a high, thundering waterfall, is six and a half miles from the highway and is half the distance to Wahum lake on the same trail.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hughes returned last evening from their wedding trip which included a tour of Vancouver island. They have been housekeeping on the George Towle place on Wallula avenue and will live there while their new house is being erected.

Ted Wright left Monday for The Dalles where he is bidding on some road work for Walrad & Wright. He expects to return tomorrow.

O. I. Neal and Arnold Ruegg were delegates from the Gresham grange to the state grange which met in annual session at Corvallis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Babcock enjoyed a fishing excursion up the Deschutes river over the week-end. They returned with 28 fine trout.

Mrs. J. H. Metzger has been ill for the past week. While her condition was regarded as serious for a time, she is thought to be slightly improved.

Poisoned Booze.
The health commissioner of the state of New York has asked the surgeon general of the United States public health service to conduct a federal inquiry into deaths from alcoholism. The New York official asserts that the increase in the death rate from alcoholism in New York has been 260 per cent in five years. He claims it is due to illicit liquor, of which, according to his statement, there must be considerable in New York.
