

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville and children attended the Piggy Wiggly picnic at Montrose park Sunday. A fine time is reported with a large attendance, probably over 200 being on the grounds during the day. The crowd represented the employes and families of the Piggy Wiggly chain groceries throughout the state of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Edwards of Gresham and the former's brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Clair Edwards of Portland drove to Seaside early Sunday morning and returned that evening. They also went on to Cannon Beach for a short stay.

In a letter recently received by K. C. Roberts from Mrs. F. M. Stuck, formerly of Gresham, she states that her husband has been in the Mayo Brothers' hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, since the first of the year where he has been operated on three times for cancer. His condition is critical with little chance for recovery.

Funeral services were held this afternoon in Portland for Harry Feser, son of Jacob Feser who is the Portland manager of the Mountain View Floral company, a large concern with fields in the Cedar district. The young man, whose death occurred Saturday, would have celebrated his 19th birthday yesterday. He has been in this locality many times in connection with the work of the company of which Otto Griesel, a Cedar resident, is the country manager.

Jimmy, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hopper of Seattle, is spending a few weeks with his grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hopper.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Elchenberger of Walla Walla, Washington, on their way to spend a week at Seaside, visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mealey Sunday and Monday. They are loud in their praise of the Columbia River highway over which they made their first trip.

S. B. Hall states that his son Stanley, who was injured by a truck last Thursday near his home on the Columbia River highway west of Fairview, is gradually improving at the Portland sanitarium where he was taken following the accident. The boy has begun to recognize those around him and, although the shock was a severe one, it is believed he will survive the injuries.

Mrs. H. H. Ott and son David and her sister Miss Violet Perret went to Seaside last Wednesday where they remained until Sunday, at which time Mrs. George Tacheron and John Hessel drove down to the beach and all returned home together.

Week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Mary McAllister were her aunts Mrs. John McVicar of Smith Valley, Nevada, and Mrs. Margaret Hammond of Portland and her cousin Miss Grace McVicar of San Luis Obispo, California. Mrs. McVicar and her daughter have been visiting Mrs. Hammond for the past month and will return to their homes about the first of August. Miss McVicar is a teacher in the public schools of San Luis Obispo. William McAllister entertained Salem friends, John Heltzel and Walter Fuhrer on Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Carlson, Miss Gwendolyn Metzger, Miss Gretchen Moore and Miss Betty Thorne returned last Tuesday from spending four days at Seaside.

Dr. A. H. Wright is driving a new Buick sedan purchased Saturday through the Walter Metzger Buick agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinton of Seattle were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillett. Mrs. Hinton and Mrs. Gillett are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olsen of Powell Valley are rejoicing over the arrival of an 8 1/4-pound son born to them Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong. A daughter weighing 6 1/4-pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kimbley of Troutdale at Mrs. Bushong's home Friday. The baby girl has been named Irma Shirlene.

The interior of the R. E. Cannon residence is being re-enameled by C. E. Jackson during the absence of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon and sons are expected home about the first of August.

The Rev. S. G. Roper and grandson, Wallace Cunningham of Portland, spent the week-end with Mr. Roper's brother-in-law and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hopper.

Kenneth Roberts was one of the American Legion party of over 100 which ascended Mt. Hood Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and the latter's sister Miss Helen Chambers drove to Hood River Friday. Mrs. Roberts accompanied the climbers as far as Cloud Cap inn and witnessed their departure.

A number from Gresham are planning on attending the annual picnic to be given by the Portland Electric Power company to its employes at the Oaks on Thursday, July 21.

Miss Irene Lynch of Portland, a former milliner in Gresham, was the guest on Saturday of Mrs. Nora Withrow. She also called on Mrs. Martha Fieldhouse and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lyman and son, Keith Jr., came from Edmonds, Washington, on Friday to visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lyman. Mr. Lyman has returned home but his family will remain for a longer visit.

Miss Edith Lind of Powell Valley is assisting temporarily at Hick's store.

P. E. Brockway and Ed. Nelson, members of the local firm of Brockway & Nelson, saw the sun rise on the top of Mt. Hood Sunday morning. They made the ascent Saturday night on the south side and report they had a most wonderful view of surrounding mountain peaks the morning following. For two hours they watched the progress of the group of climbers which later met with an accident that cost the life of one of them.

Raymond Van Slyke of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. VanSlyke of Birdsdales Avenue near Ruby Junction, underwent a serious major operation at Good Samaritan hospital on Thursday. He is reported to be doing well.

S. Tajima is again suffering from an attack of tonsillitis but is improving. He has engaged other Japanese helpers to carry on his work of window washing.

H. W. Cooley has recently purchased the 40-acre farm of Alex. Thompson in the Victory district and expects to move onto it in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson expect to move onto the old McDonald place on the Kane road, where they plan to build a new home.

Members of the party which enjoyed a picnic dinner at Welches Sunday and later climbed Huckleberry mountain were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen, Elva Salmonson, Itoi Gansen, Miss Grace Welch and Ralph Baker.

Brockway & Nelson have installed a complete auto washing equipment in connection with their sales and service on East Powell street.
