Dunthorpe Bus Line to Fairview-Troutdale

Motor bus service will be extended to Fairview and Troutdale by the Dunthorpe Transit company as soon as the formal order can be issued and the time schedules fixed, it was announced Wednesday at the weekly conference at the courthouse of the Oregon public service commission. In a news item the Oregonian says.

The Dunthorpe Transit company received a permit to supply the service over the protest of the Gresham stages, the latter opposing issuance of the permit on the ground that in supplying this service the Dunthorpe line would run over Base Line road and thus encroach on their service.

Fairview and Troutdale have been without such service since the Portland Electric Power company was permitted to abandon its trolley car service to those points.

The Gresham stages do not extend service to those points, and the commission seemed satisfied that the time schedules could be so arranged that conflict between the lines could be avoided.

Referring to the new order, W. E. Young, president of the Dunthorpe Transit Company, said: "This means a very material addition to the Dunthorpe system, and may in time form a direct line between Gresham and Troutdale by way of Fairview. The Dunthorpe Transit company has given a very satisfactory service between Portland, Gresham and Sandy and we trust Fairview and Troutdale will be equally well served."

Neighborhood Feud Brings Arrest.

Jacob Hossner and his son Walter were arrested Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff M. M. Squire on charges of assault and battery preferred by a neighbor John Homan. The Hossners, who live east of Gresham, were granted their liberty on their own recognizance. They will be arraigned for a hearing before Justice O. A. Eastman in justice court next Thursday. The trouble is said to be the result of long-continued feud between the men.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many who have helped us in any way in the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Catherine Hall, and in the illness of our son, Stanley.
Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall.

HENRY L. LANGLITZ VICTIM OF PARALYSIS

Henry L. Langlitz, a native of Russia and for the past four years a resident near Gresham, passed away at the family home north of the Thomas sanitarium on Wednesday evening, aged 56; as the result of a paralytic stroke following a week's illness. Mr. Langlitz came to the United States at the age of 21, settling in eastern Washington. He later lived in Canada, and came to Gresham in 1923. He was engaged in farming at the time of his illness, and was a successful berry rancher and a member of the Berry Growers' association.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katie Langlitz, four sons and three daughters. The children, who all reside in the vicinity, are Henry J., Dan L., Walter L., Albert B., Selma A., Esther E. and Mabel B. The funeral was held this afternoon at the Seventh Day Adventist church on Mignonette avenue, followed by interment in Douglas cemetery. Arrangements were in the hands of the Gresham Funeral parlors.

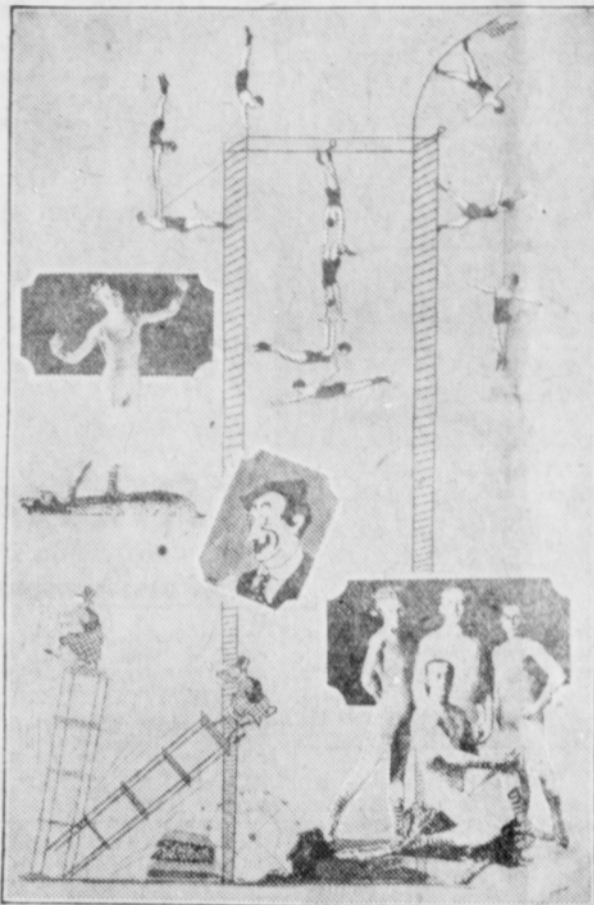

AGED WOMAN DIES IN COTTRELL DISTRICT

Mrs. Harriet M. Decker died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Beers, at Cottrell Sunday, July 17, aged 79 years. Burial took place at the Wamic cemetery, Wamic, Oregon, on Wednesday, July 20, under the direction of the Gates Funeral home.

Harriet M. Pierce was born in Vermont, December 20, 1847, and after living there a few years moved to Wisconsin. A move was next made to Minneapolis, Kansas, where most of her girlhood years were spent. At the age of 22 she married Joseph Decker at Minneapolis, Kansas. Eighteen years later they came to Oregon, traveling across the plains with a train of emigrants. They parted company with the train in Idaho and came on alone, arriving at Vancouver the latter part of September. Oregon has been her home ever since. Seven children were born to the union, four of whom survive, Mrs. Frank Beers of Cottrell; Mrs. D. S. Robertson of Longview, Washington; Mrs. G. W. Lucas of Hood River; I. L. Decker, Aberdeen, besides a number of grandchildren.

Sensational Features at Fair

The Sensational Jacks.

The Sensational Jacks are mid-air athletes who defy every law of gravitation in their marvelous performance. These daring aerial wonders give an exhibition which almost defies description. Their equipment consists of a 100-foot high apparatus from which these superlative athletes defy all danger and perform one of the most sensational acts ever seen in outdoor amusement. Their amazing performance of skill and daring will astound the public. Their wonderful performance has stamped them their kings of their profession.

FAIR NOTES

Loud Speaker Stryker Will Announce Events

John A. Stryker, of Spokane, a general rodeo engineer and all-around fair publicity man, has been employed as announcer for the racing and amusement events. Stryker is striking in his personality and voice. He is six feet two, weighs two ten and has a voice like thunder. He wears a ten-gallon hat and uses an over-size red, white and blue megaphone. When he speaks over the radio he is asked to merely whisper. You'll want to hear him.

Stryker has visited 34 states in his travels. He is a former college instructor, and was fellow teacher with Doris Smith, author of Rosaria, in the Nebraska State Teachers college. Has made a study of rodeos, fairs and public enterprises. He is a poet and writer and producer of cowboy, Indian and pioneer sports and pageantry. It is his profession.

Regarding the opportunity of the Multnomah county fair he says it is marvelous, that we ought to have 100,000 admissions and will have if we feature the competitive sports of the cowboys, Indians and pioneers.

F. L. Marsh has signed up for the cafeteria concession and he says he will spare no pains or expense to make his place first-class.

Baby Clinic Grows in Interest.

Much interest has begun to center around the baby show which is held each year in connection with the county fair. This year the show will be conducted as a baby clinic and will take place on Saturday, August 6, under the supervision of the Parents' Educational bureau, beginning at 9 o'clock in the forenoon. Mrs. Mabel Korstad, 990 Belmont street, Portland, has been named as superintendent of the clinic, and she will be assisted by Mrs. Mary Crane of Troutdale.

Thirty-six prizes, ranging all the way from a tiny gold ring, or photos, to a valuable baby carriage will be awarded under four classifications. The first class will include the babies under one year of age, the second those from one to three years, the third, twins, and the fourth class, triplets.

Each child registered will be given a medical examination by child specialists. Each mother entering a child will be given a free grandstand ticket for Saturday afternoon.

Until the beginning of the fair registrations may be made with Mrs. Korstad or Mrs. Crane and during the fair at the booth exhibiting the prizes. Mrs. A. Bayly, secretary of the Parents' Educational Bureau, will supervise the clinic.

The officials of the Portland Electric Power company are cooperating with the fair board in preparations to handle the fair crowds.

Buick Program on Air Here Saturday Night

Residents of Gresham and vicinity are cordially invited to visit the showroom of Walter W. Metzger, local Buick dealers, Saturday night, July 23, and hear the famous Arthur Pryor and his band, Roxy and his gang, and the rest of the Buick Motor Company's special announcement program, which is being broadcast from coast to coast, also to see the new 1928 Buick models, now on display. The three broadcasting networks of the National Broadcasting Company have been engaged, for an hour each, to span the continent with special music heralding Buick for 1928.

Never before has an automobile manufacturer utilized broadcasting facilities in connection with his announcement, and never before, except in the case of presidential addresses and the homecoming of Lindbergh, has any feature, commercial or otherwise, monopolized the great nationwide broadcasting network. Buick's action in engaging the three great broadcasting chains was consistent with Buick's leadership in the automobile world, a leadership which charges any Buick announcement with unique interest.

Those who prefer may tune in at home on any or all of the three Buick special programs. The Blue network, through its key station, WJZ, New York, will go on the air at 9 to 10 p. m., eastern daylight saving time, 8 to 9 p. m., eastern standard time, or 7 to 8 p. m., central standard time, with a program by the famous Arthur Pryor and his band. The Red will follow, one hour later, with that radio listeners' favorite, Roxy and His Gang, over WEAP and affiliated stations, and the Pacific network will start at 7 p. m., broadcasting a concert orchestra program, also specially arranged for the Buick announcement event. Each program will last one hour. Since many of the stations of the three chains have overlapping territories of reception, it will be possible for thousands of listeners to tune in on all three programs.

In listening to all or any of the three great special musical hours sponsored by Buick, the public will in a sense participate in the making not only of automobile history but radio history too, for Saturday evening of broadcasting, like the Buick for 1928 which it heralds, is entirely without precedent.

They will have a booth at the entrance to the grounds and will run free buses meeting all trains in and out at both depots. The company is cooperating with the fair in its several lines of publicity.

Homer Holcom, of Spokane, known in clown land as "Supple-Si Perkins," will be the ubiquitous clown of the fair. He is said to be the greatest cowboy clown in the world, and has clowned at the Madison Square Garden rodeo, also at Pendleton, Bozeman, Calgary and others. He is a favorite of all the kids from six to sixty. His motto is "Fun for All and All for Fun." He dresses the part of "Rube at the fair" and acts it in all its amusing details. He is a real all-around cowboy contestant and has won money at various stampedes. He has a trained donkey assistant.

Saul Simon is here preparing the daily program for the fair. He handles the daily programs for many fairs on the coast, has had the Multnomah county fair program for several years, is an old hand at the work, and always is reliable and satisfactory in all his dealings.

A $250 silver-decorated saddle, special construction, now being made by the John Clark Saddlery company of Portland, will be presented to the best all-around cowboy on the Multnomah county fair grounds during the coming fair August 2 to 7.

C. I. Raker says the auto races are assured. They will be staged each evening at 7:30, beginning Wednesday evening, the first thing on the night program. They are under the sponsorship of the Western Auto Racing association.

The Domestic Science department exhibit has been placed in the south end of the new club building where a space equal to or larger than used last year has been allotted. Here the superintendents, Mrs. Annie Hevel-Easton and Mrs. B. L. Walrad, promise another marvelous display of needle work and household art and science.

All clubs expecting to exhibit sewing are requested to inform the superintendents at once.

Penty of room and work for volunteers. Help your fair, see H. A. Lewis who is spending all day on the grounds.

Church Services

ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY EVENING

At the Methodist church next Sunday evening, instead of the regular preaching services, a program of music will be presented on the organ. This instrument has been completely over-hauled and an electric blower installed. Several persons will render selections which will, no doubt, be greatly enjoyed by the audience. Those who will render musical selections are Mrs. James Sterling, Mrs. J. E. Gates, Miss Gertrude Alexander, Miss Amy Cooper, Miss Florence Honey and Miss Mabel Winters. The pastor, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, is to give a talk on "The Temple of Israel" in which he will explain the use of music in the temple ritual of the Jews. The general public is given a cordial invitation to attend this service.

Sunday school and Epworth league will be at the usual hours, and in the morning the pastor will preach on "The Glorious Commonplace".

BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCES SERVICES

The morning service in the Baptist church will commence at 11 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. E. G. Judd, will preach and his topic will be "God's Valuation of Men." The choir will provide special music. The Bible school will meet promptly at 9:45. All the people who have recently moved into the community are invited most cordially to attend. In the evening the church will hold an open air meeting at the Strong berry ranch, just west of town, beginning at 7:30 special musical numbers will be rendered by the choir and the pastor will deliver a short address. All are invited to attend this service.

FREE METHODIST SERVICES SUSPENDED

There will be no religious services at the Free Methodist church for the two ensuing Sundays on account of the camping and annual conference which are being held on grounds five miles west of Portland on the Canyon road. The next service to be held will be on Sunday morning, August 7, at 11 o'clock.

CHAUTAUQUA TO CLOSE SUNDAY

The Willamette Valley chautauqua which has been in session at Gladstone park since July 12, will come to a close Sunday evening, July 24. Sunday afternoon a sermon will be delivered by the Rev. William A. (Billy) Sunday, and Dr. E. L. House will deliver the closing address that evening.

Saturday will feature the usual interesting program of sports and other events. On Saturday evening the noted play, "Applesauce", a hilarious drama of American youth and American homes, will be given. The Oregon Institute of Technology and Y. M. C. A. will hold a picnic on the chautauqua grounds at noon.

Do You Know?

The Outlook has arranged to run this interesting feature regularly. The answers to the following questions will be found elsewhere in this paper. Reasonable and proper questions sent to this department care of Outlook will be answered, if possible.

1. What is the utility of the heavy fetlocks on Clyde and Shire draft horses?
2. Who first observed a sun-spot?
3. What was the price paid the Indians for the island of Manhattan upon which the city of New York now stands?
4. How many upper front teeth has a cow? How many has a sheep?
5. What is the English currant of commerce?
6. From whom was Cape Horn named?
7. Why were buttons sewed on the cuffs of military uniforms?
8. Is the race of American Indians disappearing from the earth?

Stock Judging Teams Are Chosen for Fair

Two calf halters in the windows of the Bank of Gresham, donated by S. E. Palmquist as showmanship prizes in Holstein and Brown Swiss classes, remind the onlooker that the 1927 Multnomah county fair is not far distant and that two happy lads, possibly lassies, will be the proud possessors of the fine new halters inside of the next two weeks.

The Bank of Gresham is offering a silver loving cup as the grand champion prize in showmanship for the four breeds of cattle, Holstein, Jersey, Guernsey and Brown Swiss. According to County Club Agent W. D. Kinder, things are shaping up for one of the best and biggest club displays ever attempted at a county fair. He greatly appreciates the splendid cooperation of the fair board which has made this possible.

Demonstration work is to be the big feature of clubdom in the coming fair. Practically every club in the county will be represented by a demonstration team of some kind and the county agent's time between now and the fair will be fully occupied in training the various teams. The annual stock judging practice work took place last Saturday throughout the county and the judging teams were selected. All livestock members competed and the three highest scoring in eight clubs have been named to compete in the judging contest during fair week. They are as follows:

Dairy Herd Record Keeping—Floyd Stafford, John Fleming and Harold Dahl; Victory Calf club, Lewis Dahl, Lawrence Douthit and Ian Burns; Powell Valley Calf club—Bert Gibson, Clyde Jennings and Lester Schroufe; Fairview Pig club—John Welbes, Vernon Burlingame and William Copeland; Pleasant Valley Calf club—Martin Testale, Fred Baker and Kenneth Kosterson; Linton Calf club, Anna and Paul Boeckli and Daa Brooks; Lusted Calf club—Alfred Brinks, John Quay and William Newlands; Gresham Calf club—Tracey Anderreg—Ernest Christ and Alfred Ohrist.

Speaking of the future of the Brown Swiss cattle industry in Oregon, it may be mentioned that Multnomah county has the only Brown Swiss club in the state. Eleven boys and girls are enrolled in the club, and a splendid mention of their activities, together with their picture, was recently made in "The Brown Swiss Bulletin", published at Beloit, Wisconsin. One of the members of the club, Anna Boeckli, daughter of the club leader, has entered her prize heifer on official test along with some of her father's cows. The Brown Swiss breed of cattle is rapidly growing in popularity in farming localities.

Lecture To Be Broadcast.

Notice has been received of a lecture to be broadcast by Judge J. R. Rutherford, president of the International Bible Student association, on Sunday, July 24, at 11 o'clock. The address can be heard over KOMO, a Seattle broadcasting station. This lecture is said to be of vital importance to all. It is non-political, unsectarian and non-commercial in its scope. A musical program will precede and follow the lecture, which it is announced will be broadcast throughout the United States.

Following the custom of former years, interesting concerts are given frequently for the benefit of the pickers camped on the Strong berry ranch. This evening an impromptu program will be given, including readings by three children from the Keating berry ranch. On next Friday evening, July 29, Mr. Strong has announced a program by the following artists: Luella Strech, violinist; Guy D. Jones, tenor; Harold W. Moore, basso; May Pendergrass, pianist; R. D. Hall, baritone.

Coming Events

- July 12 to 24—Annual Willamette Valley Chautauqua at Gladstone, Oregon.
- Friday Evening, July 22—Social at Pleasant Home Baptist church.
- Saturday, July 23—Annual Farmers' Field Day at fair grounds.
- Friday Evening, July 29—Ice cream social and motion picture entertainment Baptist church.
