Many Prizes Offered in Fair Baby Clinic

The list of prizes to be offered in connection with the baby clinic at the coming county fair has now been completed and certainly the fine line of awards will be enough to make every baby sit pretty. For the babies under one year, nearest physically perfect, the prizes are as follows: 1st, baby carriage, contributed by Ira M. Powers Furniture Co.; 2d, silver cup, Carl Greve, jeweler; 3d, gold ring, Isaac Staples, jeweler; 4th, embroidered dress, Mrs. Mabel Korstad; 5th, high chair, Cohn Bros. Furniture Co.; 6th, baby record book, J. K. Gill Co.; 7th, kiddie car, Edwards Furniture Co.; 8th, knife, fork and spoon, Gresham Outlook; 9th, baby bonnet, Mrs. C. W. Brazee; 10th, shoes, Knight Shoe Co.; next five prizes, photo, each, 11x14, D. Perry Evans.

For the babies one to three years, 1st, mahogany rocker, Jennings & Son; 2d, silver cup, Senator Joe Dunne; 3d, sweater suit, Olds, Wortman & King; 4th, bathing suit, Northwest Knitting mills; 5th, bathing suit, Northwest Knitting mills; 6th, child's book, J. Perry Evans.

The prizes for the nearest physically perfect twins are, 1st, a wicker rocker each, Meier & Frank; 2d, silver cup each, Commissioner Clay Morse; 3d, photo, D. Perry Evans. In the triplets class the first prize will be $10 in gold given by the Multnomah County fair directors; 2d, $5 gold, fair directors; 3d, photo, 11x14, D. Perry Evans.

The baby clinic, which is to be conducted under the auspices of the Parents' Educational Bureau of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, has been planned to be one of the most interesting and instructive features ever attempted in connection with the fair. A physical examination which includes measurements, oral and dental examination, eye, ear, nose and throat examination and a survey of the mental status will be carried on under the supervision of experts.

Avoid the rush at the fair grounds entrance and buy your tickets now at the office of the Gresham Outlook. Four-year season tickets, $2.50 plus 25c war tax. Total $2.75.

LEWIS & SON BUY GRAHAM BROS. COACH

George H. Lewis & Son have placed on their Base Line run a brand new, spic and span Graham Brothers coach just purchased of Brockway & Nelson. The bus will be used at present on the Base Line as a Rockwood local.

This handsome coach is the first of this make sold in the Portland territory. It is very attractive in appearance, finished in cream and buff and seats 16 passengers. The interior is done in brown leather and the seats are unusually comfortable and convenient. The car is equipped with Lovejoy shock absorbers.

The adding of this new modern coach to the Lewis line of busses is the first step in possible improvements that will mean increased frequency of service.

BOY CLIMBS TOWER IS FATALLY INJURED

A lamentable accident occurred Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when Earl Herrick, 16, whose home is at 454 Jarrett street, Portland, sustained fatal injuries when he fell 40 feet from a Portland Electric Power company tower at Cotton station after a bolt of electricity had leaped to the boy's body from a high power wire, inflicting severe burns.

The lad with his parents had been engaged in picking raspberries at the Strong berry farm and the remainder of the family had left for home the day previous. With other young people he had gone down to the railway tracks and, despite the insistent warning of companions, climbed the tower. He waved his arm above his head, a flash was seen to shoot from a wire and the boy fell forward. After first aid had been administered, he was removed by a Gresham physician to the Portland sanitarium where he later succumbed from internal hemorrhages. One lung was found to be entirely collapsed.

Those who witnessed the accident claim it was entirely the boy's fault as he had been repeatedly warned not to make the ascent. He replied by saying that had been to the top of the tower before and there could be no danger. Those acquainted with the vagaries of electric current say it will sometimes jump a distance of three feet to make a circuit, even when no direct contact is made. It is thought the wire above the lad's head was of the lower voltage of 30,000. The high tension wires carry 60,000 volts.

COUNTY FAIR - BE THERE!

Just a suggestion. No picture could do justice to the great and varied attractions to be seen at the fair which opens next Tuesday.

The dedication of the new building will take place on the opening day at 2 p. m. There will be music and speaking by Senator Joe Dunne and O. M. Plummer, manager of the Pacific International Livestock show, and others.

The racing and amusement programs will start Wednesday afternoon and continue each afternoon and evening until Sunday afternoon with the best program of events ever presented here or elsewhere in the Pacific northwest.

Each evening's program will start at 7:30 with an auto race and end with a fine show of fireworks. The Pacific States shows will have a great aggregation of rides and shows.

Clubs to be Busy at Multnomah County Fair

For five days of the coming county fair the members of the boys' and girls' clubs of Multnomah county will be busily engaged in various activities connected with club work for which they have been making preparations for several months past. A lengthy program has been prepared for the week by County Club Agent W. D. Kinder and the boys and girls are entering into their part of the program with zest.

Judging of boys' and girls' sewing and baking will begin at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, at 1 o'clock of that afternoon the judging of club poultry will take place. On Wednesday at 9 o'clock the judging of garden exhibits, potatoes, Jerseys, hogs and sheep will begin. This will be followed by several demonstrations,—a cooking demonstration by the Gresham team, canning by the Lusted team and sewing by the Lynch handwork team. The afternoon of Wednesday will be devoted to judging of sheep and hogs in the open class, and Brown Swiss and Guernseys in club and open class. The Fairview team will give a baking demonstration at 1:30 in the afternoon.

The judging of Holstein cattle, both in club and open class, will take place Thursday morning beginning at 9 o'clock. The remainder of this day will be given over to demonstrations of different teams throughout the county. Lynch team, division 2, will conduct a sewing demonstration at 9:30 and at 10 o'clock the Fairview team will give a poultry demonstration on culling. This will be followed by a cooking demonstration by the Rockwood team. Powellhurst will put on two demonstrations on Thursday, camp cooking at 11:15 in the forenoon and table setting at 1:30 p. m.

Friday will be a busy day for the boys and girls, as much interest centers in the big showmanship contest for cattle and hogs of all breeds beginning at 9 o'clock. Valuable prizes are being offered in this department and competition is keen. Division 2 of the Powellhurst cooking team will give a demonstration at 9:30. This will precede the livestock judging contest which will be open to all livestock teams. During the day the Gilbert team will give both cooking and canning demonstrations, the Lynch team will demonstrate with camp cookery and the Pleasant Valley team will give a cooking demonstration.

On Saturday at 9:30 a. m. division 1 of Powellhurst cooking team will demonstrate, the Gresham team will give a cooking demonstration at 10:15, and at 11:15 the last demonstration of the fair week will be given which will be by the Victory calf club team.

Programs have been printed which will give in detail the hour and event in the several demonstrations and judging contests. These may be had for the asking in the new club building on the fair grounds during the fair or from Mr. Kinder at this time. The new house for the county club work is being rushed to completion and it is expected all will be in readiness for the opening work on Tuesday.

Joyride Ends in Death and Injury

A joyride in a stolen automobile did not prove as desirable a recreation as it was pictured when last Tuesday afternoon a youth of 17 was instantly killed and his companion, of the same age, was seriously maimed as the result of the machine crashing into a tree at Arboleda three miles west of Gresham. Marshall Franklin of 387 East 52d street North, Portland, suffered the fatal injuries while Oscar Hoover, 653 East 70th street North, received severe lacerations about the head and body. Before hitting the tree the auto skidded 175 feet and rolled over twice.

The automobile was stolen from Robert Keller, part owner of the Benson hotel, while it was parked at the Portland Golf club during the noon hour. The car was said to be speeding 65 miles an hour, with Franklin at the wheel. As he turned out to pass a hay wagon he lost control, the auto careened from side to side and finally hit the tree. Franklin was pinned between the machine and the tree, and never regained consciousness. His body was brought to Gresham and later taken to Portland by Deputy Coroner Roy Crabtree, formerly of Gresham. The injured lad was rushed to the county hospital by Deputy Sheriff Franklin after receiving first aid treatment by a Gresham physician. Several who viewed the remains of the dead boy, as it lay at the Quinby garage, stated that the features were mashed beyond all hope of recognition.

The boys had been riding around the streets of Gresham prior to the accident and seemed to find much amusement by picking up whatever young girls they could persuade to accompany them on a wild ride. Two girls had left the machine just before the fatal crash, or doubtless the number of victims would have been increased.

It will be recalled that young Franklin's sister Miss Harriet Franklin, a Portland telephone operator, was killed about three months ago when the airplane in which she was riding at Vancouver, Washington, crashed on the field.

FAIR NOTES

Visitors at the county fair this year will welcome the change from wading through dust to reach the buildings to walking along a fine crushed rock walk from the entrance to the main pavilion. Not only will pedestrians appreciate a clean footing, but automobiles will rejoice at the rock driveway which runs parallel with the sidewalk and which eliminates about all possibility of dust. A huge roller has been at work pressing the rock into compact form and the work has been practically completed. Not only is this a much-needed improvement, but the appearance of the grounds has been added to at least 100 per cent. In time when the drive will have been bordered with flowers and the grounds otherwise embellished with shrubs and greenery, the fair grounds will be second to none of its kind.

Street decorations are now in place and lend a festive air to the town, which apparently is speaking well to the stranger within the gate, from what is heard here and there. The Ede Decorating company has been busy placing decorations over the tops of store buildings, including the Outlook office, and banners and flags have been stretched across the street in convenient locations. Perhaps the county fair has never been so well advertised as this year. Thousands of placards have been scattered over the western part of the state and automobiles, trucks, motorcycles and bicycles have done their share to let the people know the fair is here, and "we'll all be there."

The dedication of the new building for the boys' and girls' club work and the new grandstand will take place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The county commissioners will be present. Among the speakers will be Senator Joe Dunne and O. M. Plummer. Music will be furnished by the Sunshine orchestra of Portland.

The big cowboy hats will be worn again. Get a ribbon and join the fair boosters. Whoop-e-e!

Church Services

GRESHAM TEMPLE SERVICES ENJOYED

The Sunday school of the Unitenominational temple will begin at 10 o'clock and preaching at 2 in the afternoon. The topic for the sermon will be, "The Darkest Hour Before the Dawn". A splendid service will precede the preaching. These afternoon services at the temple are always well attended and much enjoyed. There will be preaching again in the evening at 7:45.

Prayer services are held each Tuesday evening and the young people's meeting on Friday evenings. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

EVENING OPEN AIR SERVICES CONTINUE

Honest toil and proper occupation protect us from a multitude of evils. He who has rightly spent six days of the week will find his heart lingering near the place of prayer and praise to God on the seventh. The mind that is free from the thoughts of God during six days will likely find it difficult to think of him devoutly on the seventh. The Baptist church offers its services to the entire community for the upbuilding of its spiritual life.

The Bible school will commence at 9:30 next Sunday morning and the preaching service at 11 o'clock. The evening service of the church will be held in the grove on Mr. Strong's berry ranch and will begin at 7:30. The regular members of the Sunday evening congregation are invited to attend the service in the grove as well as those who are camped there. The old hymns familiar to all will be sung and special musical numbers will be rendered.

Evangelical Church Services.

"Lives With a Purpose" will be the topic of the sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Zion Evangelical church. Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m.

NOTED EVANGELIST TO PREACH SUNDAY

Dr. J. W. Mahood, widely known evangelist and preacher, will bring the message at the morning hour at the Methodist church. Dr. Mahood is a man of wide experience, and has been very successful in his work, and his sermon should be one of vital interest to his hearers. A large attendance is very much desired.

In the evening, the pastor of the church, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, will speak on "Shame". This discussion of the false and true elements of religion should be of general interest. The Sunday school at 10 is progressing nicely in spite of the lowered attendance during the summer months. All departments and classes are being maintained as usual.

The Epworth League meets as usual at 7 o'clock.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kind words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings extended at the death of our beloved husband and brother.

Mrs. A. Ash and Mrs. E. J. Daley.

H. J. Pulfer and family expect to move from Portland to Gresham tomorrow and occupy their new house which has been completed on Ava avenue. This handsome residence is modern throughout and among the most up to date in Gresham.

Do You Know?

The Outlook has arranged to run this interesting feature regularly. The answers to the following questions will be found elsewhere in this paper. Reasonable and proper questions sent to this department care of Outlook will be answered, if possible.

Violet Coe Weds Student Minister

Among the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Wednesday evening when Miss Violet Coe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Coe, was united in wedlock with Royal Mumford, a graduate of this year's class of Willamette University. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Harold Oberg of Portland, an uncle of the groom. He was assisted in the service by the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Gresham.

The Methodist church, where the ceremony took place, was tastefully decorated in ocean spray and goldenrod. Preceding the ceremony Malcolm Medlar of Salem, entirely blind and a graduate of Willamette's 1927 class, played "Love Song" from Nevin on the piano, and later accompanied Wm. Joe Nee of Salem who sang, "I Love You Truly". To the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mr. Medlar, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was beautifully attired in a gown of ivory crepe back satin, with a full length veil caught in a bandeau of Brussels rose point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds, lilies of the valley and sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Carolene Tallman, wore a gown of peach colored crepe and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Harold Mumford, of Salem, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were W. Lucien Cobb of Roseburg and Charles Bodine of Portland, fraternity brothers of the groom in the chapter Sigma Tau.

At the conclusion of the Mendelssohn wedding march recessional Mr. and Mrs. Mumford received the congratulations of their friends and later a reception was held for relatives and members of the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coe. A buffet lunch was served. The newly wed couple left after the reception for a short wedding trip after which they will go to Falls City to attend the Epworth League institute which will convene next week. Mrs. Mumford will have charge of the junior work at the institute and her husband will assist in various capacities.

The bride was graduated from Gresham Union high school and later attended Willamette University where she graduated with the class of 1924. She was prominent in campus activities while attending university. For three years she was a teacher in the public schools at Myrtle Point, Oregon. She is a young lady of charming personality, active in the work of the church and Epworth League, and has a wide circle of friends as may be attested by the large number which gathered at the church Wednesday evening to witness the marriage ceremony. The couple will reside at Amity, Oregon, where Mr. Mumford has been engaged to teach in the Amity high school. His wife will hold the position of supply teacher at the school.

The out of town guests at the wedding, besides those mentioned, were Mrs. Harold Oberg, the Misses Miriam, Ovidia and Elaine Oberg, Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe and sons Earl A. and Wayne W. and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mumford, all of Portland; Mrs. Stella Rice and daughter, Miss Lena Victoria Rice of Fairview, Mrs. R. S. Luttrell and daughters Margaret and Jennie of Myrtle Point, Miss Helen Miles of Falls City, Henry Cross of Wilsonville, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Joe Nee of Salem, Verne Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ford of Amity.
