

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson of Pasadena, California, are guests at the home of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Rhoda on South Roberts avenue. The two families with Mr. Rhoda's mother, Mrs. Ingoborg Rhoda, expect to leave Monday on an extensive trip. They will first go to Seattle to spend a few days and will then come back through Gresham on their way to California where the Rhodas will spend the winter with their relatives. Mr. Rhoda will dispose of his property in Gresham.

Reuben Peterson, who formerly was engaged in trucking for Walrad & Wright, has begun driving one of the Lewis & Son stages between Gresham and Portland, over the Powell Valley road.

Mrs. D. A. Todd of Centralia, Washington, and her daughter Mrs. Leonard Robertson of Portland called on Mrs. Mary Welch at the Outlook office for a few moments yesterday. Mrs. Todd was accompanied by friends from Centralia.

D. J. Kerr of Longview, Washington, is the newly-appointed assistant in the office of the Union Oil company. For the present he is staying at the home of Miss Elva Dolan but will move to Gresham as soon as he can procure suitable living quarters.

Miss Alice Evans of Lebo, Kansas, is the house guest of Mrs. Clifford Burlingame on Cleveland avenue. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame, Miss Mary Miller and Glen Burlingame on their recent trip to the beach at Newport.

Miss Grace Welch attended a party Wednesday evening given at the home of Miss Grace Lynch in the Lynch district. Among those present were Miss Lynch's cousins, the Misses Bennett of Seattle, and Miss Ruth Pederson, daughter of Dr. B. H. Pederson of Ilwaco, Washington. Miss Lynch will accompany Miss Pederson to her home at the coast Sunday for an indefinite stay.

Word has been received from Mrs. J. W. Hendricks, who recently sold her farm on the Section Line road west of Gresham and started east on a visit, that she is visiting with relatives in Delisse, Saskatchewan. She went over the wonderful Canadian Rockies, through beautiful wooded valleys and finally reached the great wheat farming country, all prairie, as far as the eye can reach, miles and miles of grain in fine condition. It seems odd, says Mrs. Hendricks, not to see any mountains in the distance. After a short visit Mrs. Hendricks planned to go to Northfield, Minn.

Wednesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anderson of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Mr. Anderson's sister Mrs. Roy Hayes of Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have been spending their vacation in San Francisco and are now on their way home. They were former acquaintances of the Rakers in Nebraska.

Mrs. Pearl Mack and daughter Helen are the guests for a week at Seaside of Mrs. R. R. Harford of Blalock, Oregon.

Marie Cogswell of Portland, who is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Cogswell, and Jean Yager were guests on Tuesday evening of Mrs. Elsie Cogswell at a waffle supper at the H. L. St. Clair home.

Lee Wilkins and Walter Dalton of Newport, Oregon, brother and brother-in-law of Mrs. George Duncan, arrived Wednesday evening to visit at the Duncan home for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Portland, nephew and niece of Mrs. Ed. Smith, gave her a pleasant surprise Wednesday when they came out to spend the afternoon with her.

Mrs. R. L. Baker and sister Miss Dolores Freeman are spending two weeks at the beach at Ocean park.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Smith are again at their home on South Roberts avenue after a stay in Portland where Mr. Smith was in a hospital for several weeks and his wife remained in the city to be near her husband. They were obliged to cancel their trip to Illinois and Michigan on account of Mr. Smith's critical illness. Mr. and Mrs. Smith appreciate the value of kind friends and in a brief communication to the Outlook expressed sincere thanks to those who had been so kind to them during Mr. Smith's sickness.

Mrs. J. G. Metzger, Miss Mabel Metzger and Mrs. M. R. Grass and children are spending a few days at Seaside.

Robert Lambert, Roy Calkins and Beryl Raby left Wednesday evening for Arlington, Oregon, to work in the harvest fields. Mr. Calkins will haul wheat. Ernest Cox went about a week ago and will haul wheat during the season.

Mayor and Mrs. Charles Cleveland last evening gave their annual reception to the members of the Gresham fire department. The Gresham band was present and during the evening played a number of fine selections on the lawn of the Cleveland residence where the affair was held. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. Mrs. Cleveland has been an honorary member of the fire department and is an ardent supporter of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cannon and sons Jack and Billy returned this morning from a two months' eastern trip, much of the time of which was spent with relatives and friends at Culver and Kewanee, Indiana. Each member of the family greatly appreciates reaching Gresham again, although the trip and visit has been a most pleasant one. On the return they made a tour of Yellowstone National park.

The announcement has been received of the marriage at Alta Vista, Kansas, on July 27 of Miss Estelle Webb, former teacher in the high school at Gresham, to Ruben Sanford Fleming. The couple will be at home at LaGrande, Oregon.

Friends of Mrs. Otto Magnuson from Powell Valley, Damascus and Gresham, to the number of a score or more, surprised her yesterday afternoon and brought fine gifts for Grace Marie, the month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Magnuson. The ladies provided lunch, also, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Berry pickers on the Nickerson berry farm enjoyed a picnic at Sanborn's on the Sandy river yesterday afternoon, when swimming, games and picnic supper made a happy occasion for young and old. About 35 were in the party.

Miss Mabel Wood is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood at their farm near Gresham. Miss Wood has been home farm demonstrator for San Joaquin county, California, and has been elected for another year.

Mrs. Hannah M. Shaw has been seriously ill from heart trouble at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair, for a day or two but is now considerably improved.

The motion picture program to be offered at the Baptist church this evening is of a high order and promises an entertainment of unusual interest. Vocal and instrumental numbers will be features of the program. Ice cream, cake and fruit will be served.

Many Gresham merchants are in Portland this week taking advantage of the opportunities as well as the pleasures of buyers' week. The city is alive with visitors and much entertainment of a pleasing variety is being offered.

Charles Cleveland recently purchased a new 70 A Willys-Knight sedan from the Hessel Implement company. This is the sixth car which Mr. Cleveland has bought through the Hessels.

Four year season tickets for the Multnomah county fair are now on sale at the office of the Gresham Outlook. These tickets are good for every day of the fair for this and the next three years. The price is $2.75, including war tax.

Clyde McMurry is having his house on Main street moved to the front of the lot and alterations and improvements made which will transform the small building into a modern shingled bungalow with cement foundation. Two rooms and a bathroom will be added on the rear, a front porch on the west and the entire house painted. Frank Jones is in charge of the moving and renovation of the residence. While the work is going on Mrs. McMurry and children are at the home of her parents at Barton.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Adix entertained at a dinner Friday evening in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Gertrude Alexander and Leslie Walrad. The dinner was given at Henry Thiele's, in Portland, after which the party motored to Gresham and spent the evening in bridge at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Adix. Covers were laid for 23, Dr. and Mrs. Adix, Victor and Jeana Adix, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Haley, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Moreland, Miss Helen Fisher, Miss Gertrude Alexander and Leslie Walrad.

The attendance at the open air concerts of the Gresham band continues to increase. An unusually fine program was rendered Wednesday evening to a large and attentive audience. On account of the fair which will be in progress next Wednesday evening, there will be no concert, but they will be resumed after the fair.

Roy Asakawa has just purchased of Brockway & Nelson a Graham Brothers three-quarter-ton truck for use on his farm east of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and son and daughter of Fenimore, Wisconsin, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Ezra Thomas and other former Montford, Wisconsin, people living in the vicinity. Mr. Allen is a retired farmer and has made the western trip with the intention of locating permanently in this part of the country if he can find a suitable place. They are greatly pleased with the territory in and around Gresham.

Mrs. N. P. Nelson and son Leonard arrived last Friday from Benedict, North Dakota, and are in Portland at the home of Mrs. Nelson's son Ed Nelson of Brockway & Nelson. They will take up their residence in the Tom Cooper house opposite the high school.

Mrs. Raymond Rogers of Portland was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Benj. Davies this afternoon.

Several photographers from Portland dailies have been on the fair grounds taking pictures of buildings and grounds, which will doubtless appear in Saturday or Sunday editions.

$2.75 will buy a ticket for the fair for 1927, 1928, 1929 and 1930. On sale at Outlook office.

TROUTDALE STAGES TO RUN TO FAIR GROUNDS

The Dunthorpe Transit company, which will begin its Troutdale, Fairview-Portland schedule Saturday, has been granted permission by the public service commission to run the stages to the fair grounds entrance during the fair. This will give Fairview and Troutdale people the privilege of bus service to and from the fair. There are five round trips on the daily schedule, all of which will accommodate those desiring to attend the fair. The last stage out will leave for Troutdale after the evening program about 11 o'clock.

All departments are being filled up, the superintendents report and the stage is being set for the biggest fair with a record attendance.

New Shoes for Ladies, $4.95.

No where will you find such splendid slippers at so low a price. Ask to see our ladies' shoes at $2.95 and $3.95. Aylsworth & Marton, Gresham.—Adv.
