YOUR FAIR.

The 1927 Multnomah County Fair is on.

The Outlook has been full of announcements for weeks and the stories of departments and features are being given prominent places and generous space in the daily papers of Portland.

Advertising cards and posters have been scattered almost broadcast in Portland, over this county and adjoining counties. Other methods of advertising are also being used. Stryker, the human magna vox, is announcing from the "housetops" in Portland.

There is no reason why every man, woman and child in this favored part of the state should not be fully informed about the Multnomah county fair which is second to none.

It will be a great fair. It is everybody's fair. It is your fair.

The stage is set, the players are ready, the music starts, now let's have the crowds filling the grounds, buildings and grand stands to capacity.

The "Summer White House" in the Custer State Park in the Black Hills of South Dakota, where President Coolidge is spending the summer months, adjoins the Black Hills national forest and the Harney national forest, which are not only rich in Indian lore and pioneer historic interest but furnish one of the earliest examples of forest management in the United States.

SANDY BLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wilkenson entertained Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wilkenson and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilkenson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Gordeau of Portland. On Sunday they all motored to Hill Crest, the former home of both families.

Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Watkins' mother visited several days with Mrs. Watkins.

A. C. Browning went to the Mountain Lumber company Saturday evening, and on Sunday went with a crowd from there on a picnic, returning home Monday.

While unloading hay one day last week, A. J. Ault fell from the load and fortunately escaped injury aside from being shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Radford entertained Mr. and Mrs. Huston of The Dalles over the week-end.

A. J. Ault has another sick horse but thinks the danger is past and that he will save the animal.

SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 7.

The Warren Construction company has finished the cement foundation on the Sandy road from Fairview avenue to Parkrose. They are now working from Parkrose to 82d street, making a detour necessary in Roseway.

The Geo. Webber orchestra of Portland is now playing at the Oasis tea room on Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hofman of Portland were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Millar.

Wm. Tegart, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tegart and children, Virginia, William and Violet recently enjoyed a picnic at the Pudding river park, two miles west of Barlow.

Mrs. Laurence Lavagette has returned home after spending 11 days at the Emanuel hospital caring for her four-year-old nephew, who was struck by an automobile.

Mrs. Jessie Zimmerman and daughter Isabel left last week for Long Beach, Wash. Mrs. Zimmerman's grandson, Leonard Hofman accompanied them.

A party of three men from Yakima, Wash., passed through here last week with 13 riding ponies. They stayed in this community over night and rested the ponies before going to St. Helens, where they hope to dispose of them.

The Misses Frances and Dorothy Carlson of Portland are house guests of Mrs. Ulrich Burgener at her home on the Sandy road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bell attended the dance at Springdale last Saturday night and report a pleasant evening.

Miss Jessie Wilde, primary teacher in the Woodlawn school, spent the week-end with Mrs. U. Burgener.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN ANSWERS LAST CALL

Stephen Childs passed away at his home in Boring Friday afternoon. Mr. Childs was born at Wau-pin, Wisconsin, July 2, 1848. He moved with his parents to Minnesota when a boy and during the civil war he enlisted and served about one year with Company B 2d Minnesota Infantry Volunteers, and was with Sherman on his famous march to the sea.

After his discharge from the army he returned to Minnesota and on January 7, 1867, was united in marriage with Miss Hannah Green. To this union four children were born.

Mr. Childs came to Oregon in 1889 and located in Eugene where he stayed for one year moving then to Portland and then to Forest Grove where he was in business until 1905. Since that time he has spent most of his time at and in the vicinity of Boring. His health had been impaired ever since he was discharged from the army. The cause of his death seemed to be from a slight paralytic stroke which paralyzed the throat.

Mr. Childs leaves to mourn their loss his aged widow, Mrs. Hannah Childs, two sons Wm. E. of Boring, and Earl, a guard at the federal prison at McNeal Island, one daughter, Mrs. Max Grim of Taft, Oregon, eleven grandchildren, and three great grandchildren, besides a host of friends. Mr. Childs and wife celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at their home on January 7.

The funeral services were held from Gates Funeral Home in Gresham on Monday at 10 o'clock, with interment at Lincoln Memorial Park.

BORING

L. H. Mallicoat, wife and little Emma Lou, expect to leave for Tennessee on Thursday. They are going to a family reunion of Mr. Mallicoat's folks. Out of a family of 13 children, who are all living, all expect to be present at the reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Mallicoat expect to return September 1st to be ready for the commencement of school on September 5th.

Notices are posted for a special school election to be held on August 8 at 8 p. m. for the purpose of electing a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of S. E. Lyon.

These hot days, the most favorite place for old and young is the old swimming hole.

A number of people from Boring attended the pioneer picnic at Jonsrud's grove on Sunday.

Joseph Osborn of Hood River spent the week-end at the home of his brother-in-law, C. Z. Lake and attended the pioneer picnic on Sunday.

John Osborn and family took a trip around the Mt. Hood loop Sunday.

Wm. Boring was out from Portland Sunday and was at the home of his son, O. W. Boring.

Mike Anderweg was out from Portland Saturday visiting relatives and calling on old friends.

A. Hedermann and wife were callers at D. Hedermanns' on Sunday.

POWELL VALLEY

The Deborah Ladies Aid society will entertain itself at the Mission church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meeting Thursday evening is under the auspices of the young people's society. A Swedish address will be given by the Rev. Nils Malmstedt of Portland and a talk in English by the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, pastor of Gresham Methodist church.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

ROOSEVELT TELLS OF "GOOD OLD DAYS"

People who have been led to believe that prohibition has started drinking among youth would do well to read William Roscoe Thayer's life of Theodore Roosevelt, in which occurs the following paragraph concerning Roosevelt as Police Commissioner.

"The city of New York forbade the sale of liquor to minors. But this ordinance was so completely unobserved that a large proportion of the common drunks brought before the police court were lads and even young girls, to whom the bar-tenders sold with impunity. The children, often the children of depraved parents 'rushed the growler'; factory hands sent the boys out regularly to fetch their bottle or bucket of drink from the saloons. Everybody knew of these breaches of the law, but the framers of the law had taken care to make it very difficult to procure legal evidence of these breaches. The public conscience was pricked a little when the newspaper told it that one of the youths sent for liquor had drunk so much of it that he fell into a stupor, took refuge in an old building and that there the rats had eaten him alive.

"Use Want Ads"—a good adage.

Now You, of course, know the many advantages of pleasure and convenience that a 'phone would mean in your home. But, have you also thought of this for your family? This is something to consider NOW. By all means order a 'phone installed today.

"Whether it was before or after this horror that Chief Commissioner Roosevelt decided to take the law into his own hands, I do not know, but what he did was swift. The police engaged one of the minors who had been in the habit of going to the saloons to go for another supply and then testify. This summary proceeding scared the rum dealers, and no doubt, they guarded against being caught again.

"But the victims of moral dry rot held up their hands in rebuke and one of the city judges wept metaphorical tears of chagrin that the police should engage in the awful crime of enticing a youth to commit crime. The record does not show that this judge or any other had ever done anything to check the practice of selling liquors to minors, a practice which inevitably led thousands of the youth of New York city to become drunkards."

These were the "good old days" to which the wets refer when personal liberty and the saloon stood hand-in-hand on the street corner.
