

Gresham Locals

A party consisting of Miss Mildred Kennedy and Charley Southard of Portland, Miss Daisy Daly, Edward Mink, Clair Gullikson and Miss Goldie Bjur enjoyed a weekend climb of Larch mountain. The young folks were chaperoned by Miss Kennedy's mother.

F. M. McLean, with his assistant J. S. Lynd, is in charge of a display booth at the county fair featuring a line of oil paintings. Mr. McLean is planning to move to Gresham with his family in October and will make this his headquarters as a studio. Mr. McLean and Mr. Lynd are visiting with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson on South Roberts avenue.

Mrs. Frank Gerard and her brother Ralph Wood of Los Angeles are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wood. Mrs. Gerard is accompanied by her sons Johnny and Frank. They arrived Tuesday and will probably spend a month in Oregon. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair are the latter's sister, Mrs. H. Donley and her granddaughter, Barbara Jean Ashworth of Spokane and Mrs. Donley's daughter, Mrs. Dorothy M. Dueber.

B. H. Conkle, principal of the Medford school, is the guest of his sister Mrs. James Sterling and family. Dinner guests of the Sterlings on Wednesday evening were Principal R. W. Rose of Parkrose school, Mrs. Rose and baby.

Mrs. G. F. Gustafson and family from Portland have been the guests for a few days at the Otto Magnuson home. Mrs. Gustafson's little daughter, Genevieve, 6 years old, read 10 Bible verses which she had memorized at the Alm berry farm service. She is a favorite with Portland ministers, who call her the "little minister." To her teacher she is "the baby reader." She often has as many as four direct calls during the week. Genevieve is a pupil of Mrs. Everett Marshall Hurd of Portland, teacher of dramatic art and expression.

Dr. George B. Mallett is planning to spend all of next week at Newport and other beaches and expects to return on Sunday, Aug. 14.

The five miles of paved roadway extending from Powell Valley station to the boundary line of Multnomah and Clackamas counties are now completed and open to traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fendall are moving this week to their new location on a farm five miles from Newberg. On Wednesday evening of last week they were given a farewell reception at the home of Mrs. H. S. Clow. The Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Judd were present in addition to the members of the choir. Mr. and Mrs. Fendall were presented with a handsome framed picture of Mt. Hood as a small token of esteem from friends. They will be greatly missed in church circles where they have taken a prominent part in its activities.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jones and their guest, Mrs. M. W. Pedersen of Long Beach, California, returned Monday from a trip to Pendleton. Mrs. Pedersen will visit the fair here this week and leave for her home Sunday.

Mrs. A. F. Mason came from Westport Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. J. W. Maloy, bringing with her their mother, Mrs. S. Wold, who has been down the river with Mrs. Mason for the past two months. Mrs. Mason was accompanied by her two youngest children, Stanley and Shirley. They will spend the entire week here.

Mrs. John Metzger is able to be out again after an illness of several weeks. She expects to go later to her beach cottage at Seaside.

Considerable sympathy is being expressed for S. S. Thompson, owner of the newly opened Mt. Hood Service station on West Powell street, whose grandson, Lloyd Long for whom the business investment was made, suddenly announced his intention of going to Seattle. Thompson had generously offered to defer payments on the plant until Long became established in the business. Instead of appreciating the offer the young man is said to have made the first payment on a car, which was reported to have been a gift to Mrs. Long from her brother, and to have taken as much money as he could collect on bills before he and his wife left. Enos Volbrecht is assisting Mr. Thompson.

The Rev. L. A. Skuzie and family moved this morning to their new home in the Alberta district and the Rev. D. B. Weintz and family are here from St. Johns to occupy the parsonage of the Free Methodist church. There will be the usual Sunday services in the church, Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 and again in the evening.

The roof of the Odd Fellow hall is being re-shingled, Frank and R. W. Gibbs doing the work.

Miss Cora Johnson, while attending to the duties as secretary of the boys' and girls' club department during the fair, is visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson on Cleveland avenue. Miss Johnson has been employed as secretary to Miss Ruth Glasgow, director of physical education at Oregon Agricultural college. She expects to leave soon for a trip through Yellowstone National park.

Raymond F. VanSlyke of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. VanSlyke of Gresham, has been removed to his home from St. Vincent's hospital where he underwent a serious operation two weeks ago, when a large part of his stomach was removed on account of ulcers. He is making a remarkable recovery from his operation.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison this week are the former's nephew, Judge Walker F. Hull of the probate court of Winnebago county, Illinois, and Mrs. Hull. They are going by automobile and are expecting to make the round trip in 30 days. On the way they visited Coolidge's summer White House in the Black Hills and came through Yellowstone National Park. They expect to leave Saturday morning for southern California, and from there will make Salt Lake City and proceed eastward to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble and the latter's sister Miss Eleanor Hoag are here from Chicago for a few weeks at the home of Mr. Noble's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore.

Among the names of those recently granted divorces in the circuit court of the county appears that of Rosa M. Rook, who has been given a divorce from Pleasant H. Rook.

Miss Sadie Dotson of Astoria is the guest of Miss Emma B. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and is taking in the attractions of the fair.

Miss Lily Maud Phillips of Oregon City is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carothers. Miss Phillips, who is a graduate of the Ellison-White conservatory of music, hopes to organize a musical kindergarten in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brooks of Hillsboro will be entertained this evening at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan. Mr. Brooks is one of the snare drummers in the fife and drum corps on the county fair grounds.

Mrs. Ethel Miller, her mother Mrs. Elizabeth McLain, Mrs. Ralph Miller and Theodore McLain left this morning for a three-weeks' trip east. They expect to visit the Rocky Mountain national park in Colorado and possibly Glacier park before returning.

Needlework Art Scores

One never envies the work of the judges who have to decide as to the merits of such exquisite pieces of handwork as crowd the display tables. Embroidered centerpieces, lunch sets, buffet sets, scarfs, vanity sets, pillow slips, rugs, quilts, etc.—one woman said she was lost in contemplation of how they ever found time to make all those dainty stitches and so perfectly. A shawl is on exhibition by a Portland woman and is said to have been made in the blind school in Palestine.

Too much credit cannot be given the two ladies in charge of this department for their unflagging energy in putting on this excellent display. They have given much of their time for weeks to getting the details worked out.

Floral Exhibits Are Delight to Visitors

Many exclamations of delight are heard these intensely hot days as visitors wend their way from the blinding sun into the cool atmosphere of the floral department of the fair where an aquatic pond of water lilies and a shimmering fountain delight the senses, to say nothing of the beautiful blossoms that shed their beauty and fragrance alike on all.

Mrs. A. R. Heiney is again in charge of the floral display, and as usual has made it a success. There are several new entrants this year.—the Capitol Hill Community club, the Bauer Aquatic gardens and the Boys' Training School at Woodburn. Julius Broetje's pond lily garden attracts much favor. Mrs. Minto of Tea What nursery at Clackamas deserves the credit for the rockery of this beautiful lily pond.

The Troutdale Flower club won the Portland Seed company's special grand sweepstake prize for the best amateur cut flower display. The Meier & Frank special for the best display of Oregon dahlias by professionals was won by the boys' training school. Miss Cora Giese won the Mountain View Floral company's first prize for the best amateur display of cut roses.

Hands of Hardship

Hovering hands of trouble and danger, loss and suffering, are constantly ready to clutch the man who has no money saved in the safety of a bank account. An easy prey to any form of misfortune, he is ever haunted by worry and fear that sap self-confidence, undermine efficiency and unfit him for success. But, since it is self imposed by not saving, why should anyone of sound mind and able body submit to such a handicap? The practice of thrift, actualized in deposits, provides protection against adversity and enables mastery over emergency.

The grip of fate is broken by the banking habit.

Banish calamity by building an account in our Bank.
