

POWELL VALLEY

Miss Ruth Shuholm, who is home from her duties as a nurse at Modesto, California, was given a pleasant welcome Thursday evening by a group of young people of Powell Valley and some from the Swedish tabernacle in Portland. The evening was spent socially, followed by refreshments. Miss Shuholm will remain at home a month.

Miss Eleanor Wilner is a guest at the home of Miss Anna Lind. She also spent a week at Carmel by the Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Johnson have returned from the beaches where they spent the past week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jonas Johnson and family are expected to arrive soon from Malmo, Nebraska. They are expecting to move into their home opposite the Mission church. The Rev. Mr. Johnson is a former minister of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carlson, who have been living in the Rev. Jonas Johnson's home for several months, are planning to move to Gresham.

Miss Frances Ekstrom spent the past week with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Chas. Soderquist and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soderquist, motored to California recently. They will be gone about two weeks.

Clifford Ekstrom and Clifford Satterstrom are taking a pleasure trip through Washington and to British Columbia points.

Mrs. A. Inwood and her daughter Miss Kathryn Inwood of Oregon City were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Enoch Sandeen last Monday on a drive around the Mt. Hood Loop highway.

Word has been received of the death of the Rev. A. V. Anderson, superintendent of the Columbia hospital at Astoria, well known to many residents of Powell Valley. His death occurred Thursday morning. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at Emanuel church in Portland. Mr. Anderson was prominent in Lutheran church circles.

Swedish preaching services will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Saron Lutheran church, following the Sunday school session at 9:45. The service in the evening will be in English.

The Rev. and Mrs. Enoch Sandeen and many members of their congregation attended the Lutheran Bible institute held in Colton, Oregon, last week.

3-Day Rodeo at Columbia Beach.

Gresham residents who will find it impossible to visit the Pendleton roundup this year will not lose out entirely since announcement has just been made by the management of Columbia Beach at Portland that a big three-day rodeo will be held at the resort September 3, 4 and 5, the latter day being Labor Day.

This will be the real old-time west with wild horse races, bulldogging, roping contests, roman races, chariot races, and everything that goes with a presentation of this kind.

Swimming races for horses, something new to this section, will be introduced also. As a special night attraction, large fireworks displays will be made.

Visitors will be admitted to the resort beginning at 8 o'clock each morning and they will be permitted to stay to see both shows for one admission. Picnic facilities are provided for thousands and the bathing beach will be open for the benefit of all comers.

PLEASANT VALLEY

PLEASANT HOME

Grant Sloop is enlarging his poultry house by the addition of an extension 150 feet long by 18 feet wide, making the entire house 350 feet by 18 feet. One of the most approved models in poultry houses has been followed. Alfred Sloop is doing the carpenter work, which is practically completed. The entire building will accommodate about 2300 birds. Arthur Sloop is associated with his father in the poultry business. They expect to have about 2000 laying hens during the winter. About 50 young people enjoyed a social last Tuesday evening in the new building. Games and music were enjoyed and lunch was served by Mrs. Sloop.

Miss Anna Lennartz expects to leave tonight for Ferdinand, Idaho, where she will teach in the high school the coming year.

The Methodist Ladies Aid society is planning a social to be held at the church on Saturday evening, September 3. There will be music, readings and stunts, and an address will be given by the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm of Gresham on the subject "After Vacation, What?" A small admission will be charged, which will cover all the events of the evening.

Mrs. P. M. Miller returned on Tuesday from her son's home in Coos county where she has spent the summer.

Services at the Baptist church on Sunday will consist of Sunday school at 10 o'clock and B. Y. P. U. at 8 o'clock p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Scoville and their two sons and wives drove from Elk City on Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of R. L. Anderson.

The Methodist Ladies Aid will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. Lennartz. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the community.

BORING

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mallicoat and little Emma Lue arrived home Wednesday morning from Tennessee where they have been attending a reunion of the Mallicoat family. They have been away for a month. They report a fine trip and a good time while away, but they were very glad to get back to Oregon and their home in Boring. Mr. Mallicoat says that it was great to be able to go and visit with all the home folks, but he likes Oregon far better than Tennessee. The fruit crop is a failure where he was, and they said that they had to come back to Oregon to get watermelons and cantaloupes.

The Wm. Morand family are spending a short vacation at Yellowstone National Park.

Threshing is about finished for this season around Boring. Some small settings are left near Haley. Henry Gerand had some fall oats that threshed $2 bushels to the acre. This was the largest yield in this locality. Johnson and son's machine did the work.

J. Valberg has his new lumber shed about completed and has given his office building and shed a coat of paint.

The school board has had some repairs made to the schoolhouse and outbuildings. School will open September 5. The pupils will meet at the schoolhouse for registration and instructions. The same teachers will be in charge as last term. Mr. L. H. Mallicoat as principal, Miss Edith Anderson in charge of intermediate grades and Mrs. Erand Gregson will have the primary grades.

Mrs. Emma Gregson has been on the sick list the past week.

John Karlan is carrying mail on route 2 while the regular carrier Herman Walters is on his vacation.

The regular church services will be held at the Methodist church on Sunday in charge of the pastor, the Rev. E. W. Withnell. Sunday school at 10:45. All who do not go elsewhere are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Morgan and the former's sisters Mrs. J. H. Revenue and Mrs. L. Mabby, the latter a guest from Kansas City, Missouri, returned Wednesday evening from a 17-day tour of Yellowstone National Park. They report a delightful time.

HURLBURT

Preaching services will be held at the Hurlburt schoolhouse on Sunday evening, September 4, at 7:30. The Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, pastor of Smith Memorial Presbyterian church of Fairview, will preach on "Soul Wrecking", giving some illustrations from his shipwreck on the coast of South America while a sailor on a Danish vessel.
