

Gresham Locals

Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall, was given a thorough examination at his home Thursday and is reported by the attending surgeon to be getting along nicely. The cast has been removed from his leg and he will be permitted to walk in about two weeks.

Roy D. Drake of Gresham and Miss Cleo E. Wilson of Pasco, Washington, were married recently at Vancouver, Washington, and have come to Gresham to reside in the Lane building on Cleveland avenue. Mr. Drake is one of the drivers for the Dunthorne Transit company.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts spent Monday and Tuesday with their daughter Mrs. Avon Sutton and family at Parkdale.

Mrs. Walter Metzger and daughter Doris are spending a week or more at Boring where Mrs. Metzger is taking care of the postoffice in the absence of the postmaster, William Morand, who with his wife is making a tour of Yellowstone National Park.

E. J. Gradin this morning brought into the Outlook office a generous sample of his late Crawford peaches, raised in his orchard east of Gresham. The luscious fruit was enjoyed by each member of the force.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lumbard left this morning for their home in Hayward, California, after spending nearly two weeks in Gresham where Mr. Lumbard was engaged in an inspection tour of the local branch of the Oregon Pickle & Canning company. While here they stopped at the Todd apartments.

Mrs. Ruth Calkins has been severely ill several days this week, but is now improving.

Mrs. Alta Gentry of Salem is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood near Gresham.

Guests of Mrs. Mina McKinney on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edmondston of St. Johns and the former's sister, Mrs. Elsie Freshett of Duluth.

Mrs. Steve Wright and her sister Mrs. McMillan and three children of Warrenton, Oregon, were the instigators of a delightful surprise Wednesday afternoon on their father, J. Johnson who lives near Linemenn, when 15 guests dropped in to help celebrate his 73d birthday and enjoy the sumptuous supper.

W. D. Kinder, county club agent, left yesterday to judge club and open class livestock at the Wasco county fair held at Tygh Valley. He will also judge in club and open class at the Sherman county fair to be held at Morrow next week. S. B. Hall will be present at the Wasco county fair to judge farm crops and is planning on attending the Columbia county fair next week.

Mrs. James Lawrence is in Good Samaritan hospital where she was taken Wednesday afternoon following a sudden attack of acute intestinal trouble. She will be given an X-ray examination the first of the week to determine the exact nature of her ailment.

Mrs. W. C. Burch has returned from Roseburg, where she spent two weeks visiting with relatives. Clair recently returned from Outlook mountain in the Columbia Forest, where he has been employed in forestry work during the summer.

Mrs. Mina McKinney had as guests on Monday and Tuesday of this week her sister, Mrs. Anna Jones, the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bunge and their daughter Winnifred, all of Seattle. They had been on a pleasure trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Althaus and daughter Helen have gone on an automobile trip to Ohio, where they will visit relatives. They may extend their trip as far as New England. They expect to be gone two months or more. During their absence their farm home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hewitt and family. Herman Blaser of Troutdale accompanied the Althaus family, but expects to go only to Kansas.

On account of the inclement weather Wednesday evening no band concert was attempted by the Gresham band in the open air series. The concerts will be continued through this month, however, the weather permitting.

Mrs. W. S. Everett and son Billy returned Sunday evening from Ocean Lake after a delightful beach outing of two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peak left Monday for Klamath Falls where the former will soon begin his work as supervisor of physical education in the Klamath Falls schools. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak left Thursday for Bandon, Ore., for a ten-day trip. They will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks, at Eugene.

Miss Mildred Coe of Portland was the guest of Mrs. Frank Peak last week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sture and family spent most of last week at Colton, Oregon, where they attended the Portland district Luther League Bible institute and annual convention. Dr. S. J. Sebelius of Augustana college, Rock Island, Illinois, was the main lecturer.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday afternoon, September 8, at the public library. Officers for the coming year and delegates to the county convention will be elected at that time. Annual reports will also be given. A good attendance is desired.

The interior of the First State bank is being repainted. Ezra Thomas is in charge of the work.

William Booth, an employe of the Metzger Buick agency, left this morning with his parents and younger brothers and sisters for a week's stay at Seaside. Miss Lillian Lekander accompanied the party to the beach.

Gwendolyn and Bobby Metzger are spending a week with their grandmother Mrs. J. H. Metzger at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bentley and son are planning to leave tomorrow morning for their new home near Grants Pass where they have purchased a 16-acre alfalfa and orchard ranch. Mr. Bentley plans to erect a new house at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deardorff left last week for a two-weeks' tour of California, intending to go as far south as Los Angeles. They will also visit relatives at different way points.

Mrs. Nels Lekander and her daughter Miss Lillian Lekander returned last Saturday from Denver, Colorado, where they have been for the past four months assisting in the care of Mrs. Lekander's daughter, who has now fully recovered her health.

Miss Minnie Johnson has recently come from Arlington, Oregon, to take the place of Miss Ruth Annable, former marceller in the Bailey Bob & Beauty shop, who left a few days ago to join her sisters.

Mrs. Mary Leslie, who has been seriously ill for the past two months at her home on Roberts avenue, continues about the same. She is being cared for by her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Norton of Sacramento recently visited at the Hallrose ranch on Sandy boulevard. They were en route to their home from Pennsylvania State college where Mr. Norton had been attending a special school of chemistry. He is head of the chemistry department of the junior high school at Sacramento.

Ira Barlow left yesterday for Pendleton to visit his brother John Barlow who was injured in an automobile accident near that city some time ago.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the church at 3 o'clock. Mrs. H. V. Wilhelm will lead in the discussion of the topic, "Rally of Forces", and Mrs. W. J. Cooper, Mrs. Mary Patch and Mrs. P. A. Gould will serve.

Truck loads of reinforcing steel are daily passing through Gresham on their way to the Bear creek dam above Bull Run. The run is often made at night. Some of the pieces are 40 feet long and are loaded onto the sides of the truck, extending out front and rear. The cement is being hauled from Boring where it is delivered by freight, several car loads a day being used. This dam will create a reserve reservoir for the Bull Run water.

Miss Irene McDermott has returned to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, after a visit of ten days at the home of her sister Mrs. S. B. Hall.

Omar Groff of Reedsport, Oregon, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross on Fourth street. His wife, a sister of Mrs. Norcross, has been here for some time. On Tuesday evening Mr. Groff enjoyed a pleasant visit with an old friend, James Murphy of Bull Run. The two men had not met for 20 years.

The condition of Mrs. Ed Smith remains serious. On Friday of last week she fell at her home and has been in bed since that time. On Tuesday evening she suffered a stroke of paralysis which has affected her left arm. But little hope is held out for her recovery. Mrs. Smith is being cared for by her niece Mrs. Mabel Jones of Portland and Mrs. Rosa Rook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Swift and three daughters left yesterday for a week's outing to the Tygh valley country south of The Dalles. Much of the time will be spent with Mr.
