

Gresham Locals

W. R. Johnson has begun the construction of a modern 7-room house on his property on the Base Line road a quarter mile east of the 12-mile corner. The building will be 28 x 36 feet in size, two stories in height and will have full basement. Mr. Johnson is doing the work throughout and will not have the house completed for several months.

Margie Shaw, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miller, is expected back tomorrow from San Francisco where she has spent the summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Young. Margie is a pupil at the Gresham grade school.

Mrs. Robert Hayes of Albany is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sture were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon when about 50 friends and relatives came in to assist in the house warming of their beautiful new residence which has recently been completed on Ava avenue. A program consisting of numbers by a male quartet, solos and other selections and a number of addresses was enjoyed by those present, after which delicious refreshments were served. Dr. and Mrs. Sture were presented with a pedestal Boston fern, other potted plants and several bouquets of cut flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Felton and children of Millwood, Washington, have been visiting at the home of the former's brother T. A. Felton. Mrs. Felton's niece, Miss Dorothy Secaur, who has been visiting for the past month at the Felton home, returned to her home in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, last Monday.

Mrs. B. W. Emery and daughter, Mrs. Ruby Buckle, visited for several days of last week with friends at Vancouver, Washington.

A number from Gresham and Powell Valley attended the funeral of the Rev. A. V. Anderson which was held in Emanuel church, Portland, on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Louise Howard, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning, has begun her first year of teaching. She will be employed as instructor in English, mathematics and dramatics at the junior high school at Bandon, Oregon. Miss Howard formerly attended Gresham Union high school.

The first regular meeting of the Rebekah Welfare club since the summer vacation met with Mrs. George Kenney Wednesday afternoon with a fine attendance. Mrs. H. E. Davis, a sister of Mrs. E. E. Welling, was the guest of Mrs. Kenney during the morning and later of the club.

The Rev. F. M. Burtch, formerly pastor of the Bethel Baptist church here, now of Notus, Idaho, was a caller in Gresham on Wednesday. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Clara Burtch and his three sons. They had been visiting relatives in Portland and were on their way home.

Mrs. Lelle Runyan and son, Geo. Wadsworth, of Kirby, Oregon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Risher last week. They left Monday for their home where Mrs. Runyan is engaged as teacher in the public schools.

Mrs. Harold Buzick has joined her husband at Oregon City where he is manager of the Walter Metzger Buick agency recently purchased by Mr. Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson and children, accompanied by Moro, Oregon, friends Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fortner and children, enjoyed the Labor Day week-end by a tour of the chain of Tillamook beaches.

A Gresham surgeon was called Sunday to attend the injuries of a Seattle woman, a Mrs. Anderson, whose back was badly hurt when the automobile in which she was riding turned over on East Powell Valley road near the Simonson residence. She was sent to Portland sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galeener, parents of Mrs. M. L. White, have sent word of their safe arrival at Madera, California. They left a week ago Wednesday and arrived home Saturday after a pleasant trip.

Maurice Botkin, who has been employed in the sales department of Swift & Co. of Portland for several months past, has been transferred from local territory to the coast, embracing the area from Taft to Wheeler. He and Mrs. Botkin expect later to make their residence in Tillamook.

W. D. Kinder left yesterday for Moro where he will judge the club work and livestock in the Sherman county fair. Mrs. Kinder is in Eugene where she is visiting with relatives over the week end.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning were C. W. Sherwood and Mrs. Carrie James of Los Angeles, Gene Hastings of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Sherwood and daughter Marjorie of Portland. C. W. Sherwood is superintendent of the Pacific Car Dummurage bureau of Los Angeles, and R. T. Sherwood has been a member of the Circle theater orchestra for the past 15 years. The men are nephews of Mrs. Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat White, the former a brother of M. L. White who recently moved to Gresham, and Mr. and Mrs. James Forman of Portland were dinner guests last evening of Mr. and Mrs. White.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. V. Whetzel visited Sunday with former Oklahoma friends at Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. James Boye and the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson of Terre Haute, Indiana. The Baptist Ladies' Guild is planning a chicken dinner to be given next Thursday evening, September 15, at the church. Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30.

Miss Gladys Bunting has returned to Gresham and will take her sister Hazel's place as office assistant with the Maytag washing machine company. Hazel is planning to enroll for her senior year at Gresham Union high school.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann, Mrs. F. Volbrecht and Miss Ise Schwedler returned Tuesday from a week's trip to Powell Butte, Oregon, where they were the guests of Mrs. Volbrecht's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. William Freund. On the way home they spent Monday night at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. H. Karpenstein of Eugene. They went by way of The Dalles and returned via McKenzie pass. On Sunday the Rev. Mr. Horstmann performed the marriage ceremony of Mrs. Volbrecht's niece, Miss Lena Freund of Powell Butte, and Lloyd Wyatt of The Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Schwedler and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Volbrecht joined the party on Saturday and remained until Monday. Mrs. Walter Volbrecht attended the bride.

Robert Varitz, meat cutter at the Sanitary Meat market, has been absent from his work for the past two weeks as the result of infection in one of his fingers following a cut. The condition is now much improved and Varitz expects to return to his work soon. Mrs. Geo. Dietl was also absent from the market for a week suffering with lumbago but is now recovered.

A letter has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair, who are now in south central Illinois, telling of overtaking Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and family near Sauk Centre, Minnesota, on October 31. The name of W. W. Metzger on the spare tire cover first attracted their attention. They enjoyed a fine visit with the Johnsons, who expected to reach their destination at Litchfield that night.

The auto races at the Speedbowl which were postponed from last Sunday and Labor Day are announced for Sunday, September 11 and September 18. With the indications favoring pleasant weather many will want to see these races.

Mrs. M. I. Sunday and two children left this morning for Hood River to join Mr. Sunday, who has been employed for several months as machinist in a machinery and woodworking plant. They have taken housekeeping rooms and expect to remain to the end of the apple harvest and possibly all winter.

Guests of Mrs. C. H. Lane from Wednesday until Thursday evening were Mrs. George Healey and small son of Costa Mesa, California. Mrs. Healey has spent the past three months in North Dakota visiting with relatives and is now on her way home.

Miss Edna Mewhirter and Miss Maud Phillips have taken housekeeping rooms in the C. E. Risher home for the school year. Miss Phillips will spend the most of her week ends at her home in Oregon City.

Plans have been made by the Women's Home Missionary society for a bake sale to be held on the afternoon of September 17 at the Walrad Mercantile store.

The Gresham band will hold its benefit dance at Blue Lake on November 11, Armistice day. This is the benefit planned for Labor day and called off on account of excessive rain.

Jene Myers Richards will present a group of young pianists at the home of Mrs. Paul Stone on Saturday afternoon, September 10, at 2:30 o'clock. Those who will take part will be Vera and Marjorie Stone and Dorothy Miller of Gresham and two little girls from Portland. Friends of the little girls are invited to be present.

Preparations are being made for the ten-man team golf tournament to be played Sunday between St. Helens country club and Gresham golf club on the Ruby golf course. The following is the lineup of the Gresham players, James Bushong, William Ott, Dr. W. J. Ott, W. J. Todd, Dr. H. V. Adix, J. R. Martin, B. W. Thorne, Walter Zenger, Glen Davidson and W. J. Cooper.

Miss Gladys Sharp is visiting at Seaside for a few days. She was accompanied to the beach by her mother and sister Miss Elsa Sharp, but they returned Wednesday.

County Agricultural Agent S. B. Hall judged the agricultural and horticultural exhibits Wednesday at the Columbia county fair being held this week at Deer Island. Mr. Hall says that they have a good fair, although bad weather had cut down the number of agricultural exhibits. The livestock exhibits were larger than usual.

82 %
Die Penniless

Insurance men tell us that 82% of all men die PENNILESS. This means that but 18% of us are financial successes.

The reason for this TERRIBLE average is simply because most men do not SAVE.

To which Class do you belong? We cannot both SPEND and HAVE.

It is really not hard to be a success. Work faithfully and save SOMETHING consistently. Keep those savings in a safe place and let them alone where they can work day and night at compound interest.
