

Gresham Locals

The Gresham band will give an open air concert Wednesday evening at the fair grounds entrance if the weather continues favorable. Conductor Johnson has announced that the concerts will be held as long as suitable weather permits.

Robert Hayes came from Albany Saturday and on the following day he and Mrs. Hayes, who had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bushong for several days, returned home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taylor of Lynch on Monday a son weighing 8½ pounds. Mother and baby are doing well at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Todd returned Sunday evening from a week's auto trip to Vancouver and New Westminster, B. C. At the latter place they visited relatives.

Darrel Peterson, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, was badly injured about the face last Saturday when a Ford which he was cranking kicked and struck him full force, causing a laceration on the cheek near his mouth which required six stitches in closing. With other boys he was playing around the car and attempted to crank it while the switch was turned on. The surgeon in charge of the case hopes to avoid the possibility of a scar being left.

As the result of colliding with a Bealey Military Academy automobile at the intersection of Fourth and Main street Sunday, the car driven by H. C. Larsen is minus a running board and has a damaged fender. Cadet Ray Ross, 18, driving the Bealey car, turned at Fourth to avoid striking the Larsen car, but the two machines scraped sides for a short distance.

Miss Mabel Shipley expects to leave tomorrow for Seattle where she will attend Seattle-Pacific college the coming year. Her work during the past three years in Pacific Evangelistic Institute in Portland will give her credit for two years of college work and she will enter the college next week as an accredited junior.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Eastman moved last Saturday to Portland where they will reside during the winter. In addition to retaining his interest in the Eastman Lumber company in Gresham Mr. Eastman will be employed in the clothing store of Ben Selling. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman will move soon into their son's house on Wallula avenue, the former property of the late Thomas Wiles.

K. A. Miller has purchased 14 acres on Wallula avenue from Mrs. Daisy Shaw, a part of the N. L. Smith estate. The property is situated on the west side of Wallula avenue and is a decidedly slightly acreage. Mr. Miller plans to build on the south end of the tract and will plat and sub-divide the remainder of the land for sale on the market.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts, Geo. and John Sleret and Ed Rueppel left Monday morning for a week or ten-day deer hunt in the Blue mountains near Ukiah, Oregon.

Miss Helen Chambers of Hood River is spending a week with her sister Mrs. K. C. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller and daughter Winona of Scappoose, Oregon, were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kenney. Mr. Miller is a nephew of Mrs. Kenney.

Elvis, Loda and Clair Stockton and Ed Rueppel returned Sunday from a hunting trip to the region around Olalla lake. They were successful in bagging two fine deer, pieces of which they are generously distributing among their friends. They report rain practically all the time they were gone.

In a letter received from Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson they report they reached their destination at Litchfield, Minnesota, in safety and had a very enjoyable and interesting two-weeks' trip. They have not yet decided just where to locate permanently. Side trips were taken to Spokane, Yellowstone park and the Black hills. They had the pleasure of twice seeing President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, once in the national park and again in the Black hills. They report wonderful weather during the entire trip.

Ted and Joe Wright returned Sunday from a four-day hunting trip in the Blue mountains near Ukiah, Oregon, and as a reward of their skill brought back with them a 200-pound four-point buck mule deer of which they are justly proud.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson of Pendleton, the latter a sister of Mrs. Adolph Nelson, and Mrs. C. A. Nelson, mother of the two ladies, visited at the Nelson home on Cleveland avenue Monday. Mrs. C. A. Nelson, who has been in Portland during the summer, will soon return to Gresham to make her home with her daughter and family.

Ed Nelson, of the firm of Brockway & Nelson, is now known as a proud papa. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Portland on Friday, September 9.

Mrs. P. E. Brockway is at Frog camp, Three Sisters, where she is assisting in the cooking for the rescue squad searching the nearby mountains for the two boys from The Dalles who, it is feared, have lost their lives. A report from the locality yesterday was to the effect the weather was clearing in the Cascades and the hunt would be renewed with vigor.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Edwards have procured living quarters over the J. E. Metzger furniture store and will move their household goods there from the Ranley house on Hood avenue this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Light were callers Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen. They are on their way from Portland to their former home in Kansas and will make a stop at the Pendleton Round-up. Mrs. Light, before her marriage, was a bridesmaid 24 years ago at the marriage of Mrs. Larsen's daughter, now deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Light have been visiting the latter's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Warren Douglas in Portland. The four and Mrs. Larsen's daughter were in the same high school graduating class at Colby, Kansas.

Harry Bjur and Vearl Howell left this morning for Pendleton where they will take in the sights of the Round-up for the week. The boys, who are members of the Gresham band, have been assigned places in the Tillamook band which has been engaged to play during the Round-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carlson and three children, who have been occupying the Jonas Johnson house in Powell Valley, have moved to Gresham and are living in the Knox house on East Powell street. The Rev. and Mrs. Jonas Johnson have recently arrived from Malmo, Nebraska, and will occupy their home opposite the Mission church, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Carlson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown of Portland, the former a nephew of Mrs. M. J. Allshouse, have been at the Allshouse home for the past week where Mr. Brown is engaged in building a garage. Mr. and Mrs. Brown came from Pennsylvania several months ago and are much pleased with the west. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bowman and daughter Dorothy of Seattle were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Allshouse.

Edmond West, a brother of Mrs. J. F. Read residing east of Gresham in the Powell Valley district, drove through from Pasadena, California, arriving Friday evening. He plans to spend the winter in Oregon. Mr. West and his niece Miss Lola Read left yesterday morning for Mist, Oregon, where they will visit a few days with Mr. West's sister Mrs. Annie Holding. Mrs. Read received word recently of the birth of a son on September 3 to her sister, Mrs. Joseph L. Loggson of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. Mrs. Loggson will be remembered by her friends as Miss Esther West. Mr. and Mrs. Loggson moved to Kentucky at the time of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Allshouse, with a party of relatives and friends, spent the Labor Day week end at the beach at Netarts.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Noreen enjoyed a trip around Mt. Hood last Friday and on the way took Mrs. M. I. Sunday and children to Hood River, where they expect to live for some time.

Roy Gibbs, assistant cashier of the First State bank, is enjoying a vacation from his duties. During his absence from the bank Miss Lavina Lille of Portland is assisting in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wright have rented an 18-acre berry ranch from Mr. Ross near Linnemann and moved there Sunday.

Miss Lucille Jennings visited friends and relatives in Oregon City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. O'Dell of Bull Run were callers at the Outlook office today. They are moving to Powell Valley to give their three children school advantages and will be located in the small house of John Vicklund opposite the schoolhouse.

W. Staffenson, residing east of Gresham, says that he and his wife were wrongfully named as defendants in a suit for $262 being preferred by a Snoqualmie, Washington, undertaker for funeral expenses of Mrs. Staffenson's brother-in-law Emery Burbank, who was brought to Gresham for interment. An article recently appeared in a Portland newspaper involving Mr. and Mrs. Staffenson and the latter's mother Mrs. Tice in a suit for the amount of the bill.

Excavation has commenced for a residence for Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hughes on their property on Wallula avenue. L. J. Winter has the contract. He expects to have the building completed in 90 days.

Mrs. Ed Stafford was taken to Portland sanitarium last Saturday where she is receiving medical treatment in preparation for a major operation which she will undergo some time this week. During her stay in the hospital her home and baby are being cared for by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Chris Fieser who are here from Fairfield, Washington. Mr. Stafford is recovering from a two weeks' siege of neuritis and grip.

Lyle Winters of Hollywood, California, paid an unexpected visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Winters last week, arriving on Monday evening and returning on Friday. Winters is employed in the shipping department of a large well drilling company. This was his first visit home in two years. He was accompanied from California by two others, his landlady, Mrs. Marshall, and a friend who stopped off at Salem. Mrs. Winters, Mrs. Marshall and Lyle took the Mt. Hood Loop trip, a new experience for all three. The scenery was a delight to the visitors.

FACTS... about your watch

but the oiling of a watch is a very delicate operation and requires great skill. A very small wrist watch should be cleaned, oiled and cared for more often than a large one because in the tiny watches worn by women of today the "oil-cups" cannot possibly retain oil for more than six months at a time.

Our over 20 years at Watchmaking is your guarantee.
