TIRED LINDY.

How would you like to be in Lindy's shoes? We ask the young men of this locality. Lindy is 25 years old. He has been through more in the past few years—few months, in fact, than most men in a lifetime. Each day with this young man is incalculably strenuous.

Starting from New York early in August his itinerery includes 77 cities, flying from one to the other, speaking to vast gatherings, meeting thousands, giving interviews, attending banquets, etc.

Lindbergh is naturally retiring, modest, thoughtful, silent. To come into this acquisition of world-fame so suddenly and have to bear the great honors and respond to the unrelenting demands of an idolizing public and feel the responsibility he must feel is certainly burdensome, wearying and almost distasteful.

Everywhere, yesterday, it was said the Lone Eagle was tired. No wonder when one thinks of what he has gone through since he hopped off on his famous flight last May. Probably to him the least strenous part of all was the time he was in the air for he must feel more at home in the cockpit of his Pride of St. Louis than facing the acclaim of the crowds.

After the celebration at Minneapolis recently, Lindbergh landed at Little Falls, Minesota, the location of the Lindbergh farm and Slim's early home. His sister, Mrs. George W. Christie, of Red Lake Falls, Minn., who attended the celebrations in honor of her brother, stopped at Long Prairie, Minn., and the Long Prairie Leader, under date of September 1, has the following item which is interesting to read:

"Mr. and Mrs. George W. Christie and children, of Red Lake Falls, were here the latter part of the week en route home after attending the Lindbergh celebrations in Minneapolis and Little Falls. Mrs. Christie is a sister of the famous aviator. They spent considerable time with the young man and learned much about his trip to Europe and the wonderful receptions he has received since his return home. Mr. Christie says that Lindbergh told him that these constant receptions and welcomes, while he realized are a great honor, are nevertheless great drains on his strength and he will be glad when they are over and he can take a long rest. Starting out from New York City last month his itinerary carries him to 77 cities, over a period of several months. Inasmuch as his welcome is almost as strenuous in every city as it was in Minneapolis and Little Falls, it can easily be seen that it takes considerable strength and a strong constitution to stand up under it."

Lindy was all there but nearly all in. His famous smile was not much in evidence. Yesterday he rested, today he continued his round-the-country flight, going to San Francisco. He will end his tour in a month or two at Washington. The purpose of his present tour is largely educational and is sponsored by the Gugenheim foundation.

PLEASANT HOME

Wm. Stone of Portland will occupy the pulpit at the Pleasant Home Baptist church on Sunday, both morning and evening. The young people will hold their service at 7:30. The Sunday school convenes at 10 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Mrs. F. W. McKinney was a visitor at the home of Mrs. P. M. Miller on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wheeler returned on Tuesday from Carson, Washington, where they have been the past three weeks for the benefit of Mr. Wheeler's health. His many friends are glad to hear he is much improved, and hope he will continue until permanently cured.

The members of Multnomah grange No. 71, are urged to attend the next session of Pomona which meets with Columbia grange Wednesday, Sept. 21.

FACTS...

about your watch

OIL PREVENTS FRICTION

but the oiling of a watch is a very delicate operation and requires great skill. A very small wrist watch should be cleaned, oiled and cared for more often than a large one because in the tiny watches worn by women of today the "oil-cups" cannot possibly retain oil for more than six months at a time.

Our over 20 years at Watchmaking is your guarantee.
