

Gresham Locals

C. E. Peck and his sisters, the Misses Mary L., Margaret and Emma Peck have gone to Long Beach, California, where they plan to spend the winter.

The Misses Edith and Elsa Johnson, Helen Sandstrom and Amy Noreen spent the past week end with their parents near Gresham. The young ladies are all juniors in Oregon Normal school at Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss are the pleased owners of a new Oakland sedan. Mr. Bliss' health, which has been impaired for several months past, is now completely restored.

The Methodist Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Ott. A pleasing program was rendered consisting of a piano solo by Miss Mary Lambert, a whistling selection by Miss Augusta Hahn, accompanied by Miss Melba Sanders, and a reading by Mrs. Emmett Kelly. Miss Bess Chappell was present and spoke in the interests of the homemaking, dressmaking and millinery work under the Smith-Hughes act. It is expected to organize a class in sewing similar to that of a year ago. Plans were discussed for the annual dinner and bazaar to be given by the Aid at the Methodist church early in December. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson Jones, Mrs. B. L. Walrad and Mrs. Cecil Metzger, assisted by the hostesses.

Panoramic pictures of the eleven Gresham Union high school busses were taken Wednesday by a commercial photographer to be used later for various purposes, possibly in periodicals showing the growth of the state's high schools. The fleet of high school busses has been increased at the rate of two a year for the past two years, seven only required in 1925 for the transportation of students, nine the following years and eleven for the present year.

Mrs. George Pullen has returned from Portland where she has been nursing for several weeks and is now assisting in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood. Mr. Wood has been quite sick but is better now.

Mrs. H. C. Larsen entertained 16 members of her Japanese Sunday school class at her home Wednesday evening with a unique party, which included a trip from Gresham to Japan, via New York city, and return. Mr. Larsen and Mrs. Charles Moore were the engineers who conducted the party in automobiles for a trip around the Wallula avenue loop, and Tokie Hotori and George Hogami were the conductors, while Jimmy Moore acted the part of a porter. A stop was made at the Moore residence where music was enjoyed, while refreshments were served at "New York", one of the auto camp cottages, and "Japan", the kitchen of the camp. The Larsen home was prettily decorated in Halloween colors and pictures.

Word has been received recently of the death of Fred Rugg, a former resident of this place, at his home in Los Angeles. A letter to O. Andrew from his daughter tells of his suddenly breathing his last while on his knees in prayer.

Miss Maude Aldrich has been secured to speak at four schools of this vicinity tomorrow, Columbian high school, Sandy high school, and the Troutdale and Fairview grade schools in commemoration of Frances Willard day, which will be generally observed throughout the world. Mrs. W. F. Honey and several other members of the local W. C. T. U. will accompany Miss Aldrich.

A large number of the friends of Miss Luetta Welling enjoyed the recital which she gave on Saturday evening, assisted by Miss Alice Prindle, Mrs. Catherine Jackson and Mrs. Gertrude Sterling. The numbers were all well rendered and the musicians received much praise. Miss Welling's numbers showed that she has real ability as a violinist. Among those who came from away to hear the program were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Welling of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Conkle and daughter Louise and Mrs. J. Conkle of Portland.

J. H. Sterling, who suffered the loss of 23 sheep recently by dogs, has been allowed his claim of $161 and will be reimbursed for that amount by the county. The claim met with favorable approval through the recommendation of County Agent S. B. Hall. Theodora Brugger was also given an award recently of something over $300 from the same source, the dog license fund, for sheep which had been killed by dogs.

Mrs. Alice Vulleumier left a few days ago for San Francisco for a visit with relatives and friends. She may also visit in southern California before returning, and may be away for several months.

Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth has returned from Salt Lake City, where she spent three weeks visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parry and son Billy of Portland were Wednesday and Thursday guests at the home of Mrs. Parry's brother, M. L. White, proprietor of The White Way. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Metzger left yesterday by auto for the return trip to their home in Lodi, California. During the past few weeks they have been extensively entertained by relatives and friends in Gresham and vicinity and it was with regret they were obliged to say good bye. Mr. and Mrs. Metzger have a chicken ranch in California.

Mrs. Christena Humason has returned from a two-months' visit with her son and wife at Grand Prairie, Texas. During her absence her brother, Alex Gullikson, has had a number of agreeable changes made in their home on Second street. Among these the interior of the house has been newly painted and papered, a bathroom and bathtub with fixtures have been installed, an fine new automatic Westinghouse range, purchased through the local office of the Portland Electric Power company, has been connected up, ready for use.

Galen Fancher and Ted Wright have returned from Wapinitia, Oregon, where they had a few days' contract of hauling veneer blocks for a furniture factory. Burton Walrad and his father-in-law H. T. Caffee of Portland drove to Wapinitia Sunday.

J. T. Horr underwent a major operation at Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday and from latest reports is said to be getting along well. Mr. and Mrs. Horr have recently moved from the Heiney house on Fourth and Roberts to Dr. A. Thompson's house on South Roberts avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mealey entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Shangle and two children of Portland at dinner Wednesday evening. The two families were former acquaintances at Milton, Oregon.

Mrs. A. H. Wright returned Saturday from a trip to Wisconsin where she visited for several weeks with friends and relatives. She was accompanied home by her sister Miss Nellie Loomis who expects to spend the winter here.

Phyllis, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Edwards, was badly burned around the lips last Monday when she placed the end of a connected sewing machine cord in her mouth. It immediately caused a short which blew out the fuse. The child's burns were treated at the office of a local physician. Her lips are still badly swollen, but it is thought no scars will be left. She was playing around the machine which Mrs. Frank Gillett was using in the Edwards apartments, and playfully put the end of the juice-laden cord in her mouth when it was disconnected from the sewing machine for a moment.

Mrs. A. Thompson is recovering from a very severe attack of what appears to be oak poisoning, from which she has suffered for the past three weeks. Her son, Dr. Fred Thompson of The Dalles, has visited his mother three times during her illness and is expected down again on Sunday.

Those who took the Schick test yesterday at the Gresham grade school are asked to go to the schoolhouse next Monday to have the test read.

Oscar Thoren has been making a number of improvements in his wood working shop on Cleveland avenue. A double floor has been laid and more windows installed for additional light. A third electric motor, of five horse power capacity, will take care of the heavier work done by machinery. More floor space will be provided in the plant for the increasing amount of business.

The officers of the First State Bank endorse this simple rule without reservations.

It will give you a standing in the community and entitle you to the friendly and helpful advice and assistance of this banking institution.

"Without frugality few can become rich, and with it few would become poor."—Samuel Johnson.
