Boring Odd Fellows Entertain Children

On the evening of October 29th the Boring Rebekah lodge gave its annual Halloween party for the little folks belonging to the members of the order. About 50 rollicking youngsters were present, who certainly had the time of their lives; all wore masks and were dressed in more or less fantastic costumes.

The energetic committee consisted of the following ladies: Mrs. O. Manary, Mrs. Lucille Hillyard and Mrs. Edith Johanson. Plays and games took up part of the evening, after which an artistically decorated table, containing goodies delightful to the juvenile heart were in evidence. It is hard to determine who got the most enjoyment of the entertainment, the happy youngsters or the enterprising committee that so splendidly contributed to its success.

MRS. FRED MATSON DIES AT ROCKWOOD

Mrs. Bertha Matson, a well-known resident of Rockwood, passed away at the family home there Friday, October 28, at the age of 56 years as the result of dropsy, from which she had been a sufferer for a considerable time past.

Funeral services will be held from the Rockwood Methodist church on Thursday, November 3, at 11 a. m., and interment will take place in Gresham cemetery under the direction of the Gates Funeral Home.

The deceased is survived by her widower Fred Matson; three sons, Ed Smith and Norman Smith of Portland and O. E. Smith of Wendling, Oregon; three daughters, Mrs. Mabel Schmitz of Oregon City; Mrs. Bertha Timmons of St. Helens; Mrs. Clara Emma of Deer Island.

Gustave Nelson Passes Away.

Gustave W. Nelson, a former resident of the Powell Valley district, died at the Pisgah home in Lents Sunday, October 30, at the age of 68 years. He is survived by a brother, Charles Nelson of Chicago. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock by the Rev. Jonas Johnson at the Swedish Mission church in Powell Valley. Interment will take place in Lincoln Memorial park. Arrangements are in the hands of the Pearson Funeral church, 351 Knott street, Portland.

TROUTDALE

Wilkes School District

The pupils of the Wilkes school gave a Halloween program which was enjoyed by a large audience. The auditorium of the school was very prettily decorated in autumn leaves, bats and black cats. Ghosts, goblins, black cats and witches appeared in person during the evening and the jack o' lanterns that talked caused much merriment. Part of the program was for the entertainment of the children. Norman N. Norton, premier ventriloquist of Portland, provided much amusement with George Washington. County Superintendent Alderson was present and gave a comedy reel which the children greatly enjoyed.

The pupils staged a successful paper drive last week and plan to buy paraphernalia with the money realized from the sale of the papers.

The Women's Society of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church of Fairview held a tea at the home of Mrs. W. E. Tegart last week. A large number attended and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ohling of Albany, Oregon, are spending the week at the T. C. Millar home and attending the Pacific International Livestock exposition.

POWELL VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carrell and son Delbert have returned from Wenatchee, Washington, where they have been working for the past two months picking apples. They report a fall of six inches of snow on the third of October which did some damage to apple trees. The snow only remained, however, for about 24 hours.

The Ladies Aid of the Swedish Mission church will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Gustafson Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All ladies of the community are invited.
