

Gresham Locals

Announcement is being made of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dan DeGroot of Antelope, Oregon, at the Women's hospital in Portland on Friday, October 28. Mrs. DeGroot will be remembered by friends as Miss Mildred Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, the former a cousin of R. D. and Roy Bailey and Mrs. C. I. Raker and a nephew of Mrs. Pieta Hibbert, arrived last Wednesday from Elmwood, Nebraska, for an indefinite visit with relatives in Gresham and Forest Grove. This is their first trip to the coast and they are enthusiastic over the wonders of the west and the varied scenery along the way. They expect to spend the winter in this vicinity.

Further improvements at the Lee Service station in east Gresham include the installation of a new Wayne gasoline pump, making two now owned by Mr. Dimmick. A canopy has been constructed over the two pumps, which have a driveway between.

Mrs. Mary Welch and daughter Grace were the guests of Mrs. D. M. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen at a pheasant dinner Sunday evening at the Roberts home. Mr. Roberts has been ill for several days and was unable to be present.

A surprise birthday party was given Miss Mildred Kummel Saturday evening at her home west of Gresham. During her absence in the afternoon and early evening the house had been prettily decorated in Halloween colors and the Halloween spirit was further carried out in the games and refreshments. Those present were Miss Mildred Kummel, Miss Pauletta Dowsett, Miss Goldie Bjur, Miss Alta Hendrickson, Miss Florence Willis, Miss Mabel Jackson, Carl Arvidson, Murray Kingswell, Pearl Howell, Clair Gullikson, Quinton Kummel, Harold Lewis, Kenneth Horberg and Harry Bjur.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yager arrived Friday evening from Akron, Ohio, for an indefinite visit with their son Clarence Yager and family. If pleased with the west they may decide to locate here permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tligner are announcing the arrival of a baby daughter. She was born to them Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Buphong.

Mrs. K. C. Roberts and Mrs. Harold Anderson, the latter of Portland, visited friends at Aurora over the week-end.

Doris Stone, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stone, has been ill for more than a week past. She has been under the care of a baby specialist in Portland.

Fritz Stocker left last week for Beaverton where he will make his home with a relative.

Betty Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Donley, enjoyed a birthday party in her honor Saturday afternoon at the home of her aunt Mrs. A. F. Hoover. The house was decorated in Halloween trimmings, refreshments were served and each small guest given a Halloween horn as a favor. Those present were Barbara Deaville, June, Buddy and Phyllis Metzger, Margaret Exley, Robert Hastings, Roy Starbard, Dorothy Kilgore, June Hodge, Janet Johnson, Danny Murphy, Joyce and Wilma White, Joseph Oibrich, Bobby Gibbs, Roberta Millison, Jean Yager, Geraldine Fall, Eleanor Beers and Betty Jean Donley.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson were Professor and Mrs. W. E. Buell and children Pauline, Fred and Evelyn, of Estacada, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stevens of Portland. Mr. Buell is principal of the grade and high schools at Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnson, who have been living in the Easton apartments on East Powell street, have left for Montezano, Washington, for a visit. Mr. Johnson has been in charge of road construction work in the vicinity, which he has now completed.

G. C. Fancher is building a large garage on his premises in southeast Gresham.

Forty guests enjoyed a Halloween party Saturday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Raker at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker on West Powell street. The house was beautifully decorated in orange and black with bats and cats well in evidence, while spooks held sway in the basement. Halloween games and stunts filled the evening, and refreshments of cider, doughnuts and pumpkin pie were served. The centerpiece of the dining table was an original fruit basket made of a half pumpkin and filled with fruit.

The members of the Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid have planned an appetizing menu for the luncheon which will be served by them Friday in the basement of the church, beginning at about 11:45. Creamed chicken and other palatable viands will be served, the proceeds to be devoted to the circle's activities.

Out of a total of 201 who have taken the Schick test recently under the direction of the Multnomah county health authorities 75 per cent are immune. Thirty-seven children were given the Schick test who had not had the toxin anti-toxin last year, and out of that number 25 had a positive test, which means they must have the toxin anti-toxin in order to be immunized from diphtheria. But 12 of the 37 were returned negative which indicates they are immune to diphtheria and will not have to have the toxin anti-toxin. It is thought that arrangements can be made with the local health officer for the giving of the toxin anti-toxin to those desiring it.

Attention is again called to the bake sale which will be conducted Saturday afternoon by the Rebekah ladies at The White Way.

A daughter was born on Monday, October 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Preuss, living on the Birdsedale road. Mother and baby are at the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman. Mrs. Preuss will be remembered by friends as Miss Margaret Koerner.

The Eastman Lumber company is building an addition 16 x 24 feet in size to the office and storeroom on Roberts avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning entertained last week the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Manning of Oakland, Oregon, Miss Pontelle Harvey and Herbert Hogan of the same place. Part of the time was spent in Portland. B. F. Hall of Woodburn was a visitor one day of last week at the Manning home.

The members to the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church and their friends will enjoy a party at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ott on Wednesday afternoon, November 2. A short program, games and refreshments are on the program for the afternoon. The musical numbers will include a piano solo by Miss Margaret St. Clair, a vocal solo by Mrs. Leslie Walrad, a violin solo by Margaret Ott and a missionary story by Mrs. H. V. Wilhelm.

Marie A. Lau, the operator at Bailey's beauty shop, has added to her already well-equipped beauty parlors a new electric Sun-ray dryer, for use in hair and scalp treatments.

Junior and Betty Ruth St. Clair gave a Halloween party on Monday afternoon from 4 to 7 at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair on Division street. The guests were Jean Yager, Billie Everett, Catherine and Charles Gorseage, of Gresham; Nicky Mason of Portland and George, Thomas Lee and Helen Shaw of Fairview. Games and supper filled the evening with pleasure for the children. Mrs. St. Clair was assisted by Mrs. W. S. Everett, Mrs. C. C. Yager and Mrs. Mason.

Halloween came and went as far as Gresham was concerned without anything more than the usual minor depredations, which for the most part were confined to marking up windows which had to be vigorously washed this morning. Anyone so disposed could have purchased the public library building this morning, according to a sign placed near the front door announcing the fact that it was for sale. Woodpiles were disarranged, spooky raps on doors were heard, but without it was a safe and sane Halloween.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase St. Clair played the genial Halloween hosts last evening to a small group of friends and relatives, most of whom are workers in the Outlook office. The rooms were beautiful in a variety of Halloween decorations. A tasty buffet luncheon was served and the evening spent socially. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and daughter Margaret, Leslie St. Clair, Miss Myrtle Schmale of Portland, Miss Emma R. Johnson, Miss Evelyn Metzger, Miss Mabel Jackson, Mrs. Elsie Cogswell, Mrs. Mildred Davies and Mrs. Mary Welch.

Honor Students Are Named in G. U. H. S.

In an open letter from the high school, written by Principal R. E. Cannon, the following interesting information is given out:

"The ruling for an honor student in Gresham Union high school is 90 per cent in each grade and at least 90 in citizenship. The first six-week grades have been issued, warning slips have been sent to parents where students are falling or near falling, and report cards have been mailed together with a circular letter.

"The honor students for this first period are few, but there are a number who are decidedly worthy of mention. Teachers state that this year's freshman class seems to be stronger than usual, yet there was not a single honor student. However, the following were close to being honor students and are worthy of honorable mention:

Elsie Eschebeck, Roy Full, Eleanor Halladay, Caroline Hessemer, Gwendolyn Julian, Lois Kelly, John Langley, Rosabel Metzger, Neil Milner, Mary Moist, Charlotte Mullenhoff, Alberta Sager, Helen Smith, Nola Smith, Edith Sroufe, Lester Sroufe and Lola Wallin. Some of the above named students had 90 in all subjects except one, and we expect them to be honor students when reports are mailed six weeks from now.

"In the sophomore class no honor students appeared, but Laurence Fortner, who, as a freshman, carried five subjects and kept them all above 90, ranks the highest in the class. Mary Simbeni is a close second, and Florence Helber, Gilbert Lind, Laurence Mahaffey, Edna McCreary, Jessie McKee, Cathryn Metzger, Florence Mullenhoff, Gladys Nelson, Joe Palin, Ella Richardson, William Schmierer, Irma Smith, Ruth Sterling, Ethel Surance, John Welbes and Beulah Lord stand high.

"In the junior class we find two honor students. They are Lorna Schede and Arthur Suhr. Those cited for meritorious work are Eva Baker, Ethel Berglund, Annie Boe, Lois Boynton, Elsie Crandall, Jeane Dana, Helen Exley, Margaret Gantenbein, Irma Gill, Regina Hammar, Vernon Kelly, Dorothy King, Stanley Ledine, Fern Lewis, Kathleen Lewis, Grace Lynch, Gwendolyn Metzger, Marie Morehouse, Marie Mullenhoff, Gertrude Ruhl, Frances Swanson and Betty Thorne. As in other classes some of the above students were but slightly below the honor requirement.

"The senior class for this year numbers 61, the largest of any year since the school was organized. The following are honor students: Avilla DeWitte, Irene Johnson, Mary Jane Peterson and Earl Weiss. Seniors who nearly reached the mark are Eva Lockwood, Jane Lord, Linden Lunday, Swea Lundbom, Frances Moist and Earl Whetzell.

"We appreciate the splendid cooperation of parents who are interested in the work their boy or girl is doing in school. There is no doubt that those students whose parents take an interest in their work at school usually make the best progress. We should be able to do wonderful work because we get such splendid cooperation from the parents."

PLEASANT HOME

One of the most interesting events of the season thus far was the Halloween masquerade social which was held in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. The large Sunday school room was beautifully and appropriately decorated, the color scheme of Halloween, black and orange being used with fine effect. The costumes ranged from that of the grotesque "Rube" or clown to dainty gowns of colonial days. The judges, after the company had paired off and marched around the room on parade, decided to award on the basis of uniqueness and originality, first place to John and Harry Carlson, and second place to Miss Ester Sloop and Everett Wright. After a varied and interesting program of games, refreshments consisting of pumpkin pie and cider were served. Thus ended an evening which shall not soon be forgotten.

Iris Pease and Irma Gill, sisters of Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Gill, were guests at the parsonage over the week end. They participated in the social Saturday evening.

Alice Melton has been confined to her home for a few days with an attack of illness, but is now again at her place in school.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bickford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams Sunday. In the afternoon the entire party was driven by Mr. Bickford to Bull Run where they called on Mr. and Mrs. H. Soderberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Sloop.

The junior choir of the Methodist church held another successful rehearsal at the parsonage Saturday afternoon. Four new members, Olive Miller, Betty Miller, Eleanor Johnson and Creighton Burns were added to the roll of this new organization. The juniors plan to sing at the church service next Sunday.

An important date which will be of interest to the people of the Pleasant Home community is December 3, (Saturday), the date of the Methodist Ladies Aid bazaar which will be held at the church beginning at 4 p. m. A chicken dinner is to be served in connection with the event.

A prayer service will be held at the parsonage Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these helpful services.

Oscar Nelson has lately returned from Valsetz, Oregon, and is living with his son Ernest Nelson in a small house which he has recently erected a half mile north of Pleasant Home on the Lusted road.

"IS THERE ANYTHING REALLY PERFECT ON EARTH"

We've often heard it said there is not; but, from a fuel standpoint, UTAH-GRAND COAL is as nearly perfect as a Bituminous Coal can be. UTAH-GRAND is HARD and CLEAN, it LASTS LONGER, burning from the outside of the lump much like Anthracite. UTAH-GRAND makes NO STRINGY SOOT, and NO CLINKERS. Now, what else would you ask? Oh yes, the price. Well, it costs no more, with all its virtues.
