Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March, 3, 1879.

Anyway the federal tax reduction won't concern many of us if they begin at the $10,000 a year income.

Secretary Mellon says most of our excise taxes have been eliminated. Just a few remain, such as excise tax on tobacco, automobile sales, admissions tax and a few stamp taxes. These he thinks should be retained.

Secretary Jardine, to whom the matter of a cableway to the top of Mt. Hood was referred for final decision, has decided to lay the matter on the table for a year. In the meantime, he says, the needs and conditions involved will be given a thorough investigation. The project had wide endorsement in Hood River, Portland and throughout the state. Colonel Greeley, head of the forestry service to whom the matter was first referred, decided against it. So for a while yet those who reach the top of Mt. Hood will have to climb.

Lorena Trickey on trial at Lakeview, Oregon, charged with the murder of her paramour, "Slim" Harris, was born not far from Bridal Veil where her father has lived for many years. She was early taught to handle horses and even to break wild horses and ride the "buckers." At an early age she was in demand at rodeos. She is not a stranger in Gresham having been here on several fair occasions. Her plea is self-defense.

Defending the retention of the automobile excise tax, Secretary Mellon calls attention to the federal appropriation for good roads. For 1928 it will be as high as $71,000,000, and for 1929 it will be $75,000,000. These expenditures he holds are for the direct and immediate benefit of automobile owners. They should make some contribution in return, he thinks.

"The automobile is a semi-luxury article of such wide-spread use that it furnishes a broad base on which to apply a low tax. The rate being low, there is no appreciable hardship to the taxpayer; the base being broad, the tax is a good revenue producer. Unless we are to rely almost exclusively on direct taxes paid by a few and are prepared to see our government supported, not by the entire body of our citizens, but by a limited class, this is the kind of tax which should be retained."

IS HOOVER THE MAN?

It is said on good authority that Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, will carefully refrain from permitting any movement to be organized on his behalf while he is a member of Coolidge's cabinet. This does not preclude his friends, however, from doing anything to prepare the way for his candidacy. We believe that among republicans, right now, eliminating Coolidge, Hoover stands in greater favor than any other presidential possibility. He is in every way the best fitted by native ability and broad experience for the presidency and is fully as deserving as any through his long, successful and honorable public career.

It has been thought Hoover would not be in favor with the farmers. It is true he is not, like Lowden, a farmer but he understands the problems of agriculture as well as any other and undoubtedly could and woud do all that anyone could do to relieve the uncertainties of profitable market and price conditions for farm products.

There is not a man better informed on business conditions generally or more in touch with the people and commercial and economic conditions of the whole country.

It is too early yet to formulate too positive an opinion, but at present we find our gaze directed toward Hoover.

2,000,000TH CAR MADE BY DODGE BROTHERS

At 10 a. m. Saturday, November 5 the 2,000,000th car which Dodge Brothers have made came off the final assembly line, just 12 years, 11 months and 21 days after the first car was built by John and Horace Dodge on November 14, 1914. No. 2,000,000 is a standard four cylinder leather upholstered sedan and was shipped immediately to W. L. Eaton, Seattle dealer, who purchased it nearly eight years ago upon failing by six months to get in his order in time to get No. 500,000.

The passing of the 2,000,000 mark by Dodge Brothers sets a new record for the automobile industry as no other company manufacturing cars that sell in or above the Dodge price class has yet approached the point of making 2,000,000 cars in the short period of less than 13 years.

A measure of the vastness of the automobile industry and what it means to the prosperity of the nation and to Detroit in particular was furnished by President E. G. Wilmer in commenting upon Dodge Brothers' record. He pointed out that Dodge alone, in less than 13 years of existence has produced products whose retail value is estimated at $2,200,000,000, a sum greater than the entire amount of capital invested in automobile manufacturing plants in the United States.

"Dodge Brothers, which last year was third in the production of cars and trucks," said Mr. Wilmer, "has been undergoing an extensive transition during the past 18 months and has been engaged amost exclusively in a readjustment of manufacturing facilities. We have been getting our dealers in a position to offer their customers a complete line of fours and sixes in passenger cars and trucks and Dodge Brothers will be prepared to enjoy in 1928 the biggest business in its history."

A bit of the romance of the automobile industry characterized the final steps in the assembly of the 2,000,000th car as four men who have been identified with the Dodge interests over 35 years were given the honor of tightening the last nuts, testing the motor and making the final inspection tests. These men were associated with John and Horace Dodge, the founders of the now great automobile business that bears their name, many years before the brothers even thought of venturing into the automobile business and they have been identified with the making of Dodge Brothers cars since No. 1 was built.

As the assembly of No. 2,000,000 was completed Al. Livermore, the oldest employe in point of service, with a record of 37 years of continuous employment, took the wheel and with the next three oldest employes, Bill Wohlfeil, Al. Andrich and Otto Graul as passengers, drove the car to the loading docks where they were greeted by President E. G. Wilmer, vice-presidents A. Z. Mitchell, H. H. Springford and A. T. Waterfall and other company officials and congratulated on their remarkable records.

Mr. Wilmer pointed out that Dodge Brothers has been able to make 2,000,000 cars only through the loyalty of its thousands of employes whose careful workmanship has enabled Dodge cars to attain a name for sturdiness and dependability wherever automobiles are driven.
