G. U. H. S. Football Games Played and Won

Gresham 12, Milwaukie 0.
Gresham 38, Sandy 0.
Gresham 12, Beaverton 7.
Gresham 19, Oregon City 6.
Gresham 32, Sandy 0.
Gresham 13, Molalla 7.

Gresham high school football team played another winning game, this time with Molalla on the latter's field Armistice Day, the score standing 13 to 7 in Gresham's favor at the close of a warmly-contested bout. Squire was the outstanding star of the game, bearing the brunt of the battle.

Gresham scored its first touchdown in the first half on a forward pass, Squire to Okuda. Molalla made its only score on an intercepted forward pass. Gresham scored another touchdown in the final quarter when Whetzell picked up a fumble and almost crossed the line.

A feature of the game was the holding of the Gresham line when Molalla had the ball on the forward yard line.

Gresham second team plays Parkrose today.

The great game of the season, and the closing one, will be played on Stapleton field, Thanksgiving day, at 10:30 in the forenoon.

This will be a game that many townspeople will be able to attend. Estacada is a strong rival and with Gresham having won every game so far this season our boys will be on their keenest mettle to win this one.

FORMER GRESHAM BOY ENDING LONG SERVICE

Harry C. Mason, who has spent much of the past 17 years in China where he has been in the enlistment of Uncle Sam's service as marine, sailor and soldier, visited his brother Lyle Mason and his grandfather J. N. Mewhirter Sunday evening for the first time since his term of service began. Mr. Mason, whose last station was at Tientsin, China, has been transferred to Vancouver barracks, Washington, arriving in the United States on October 22d last. He has but about two months before the expiration of his enlistment, when he may go to Canada, although he states his future plans are somewhat indefinite.

Sergeant Mason first enlisted in the service of the marines when a lad of 17. Four years were spent with the marines, when he began four years' work in the United States navy. Upon completion of that period, he joined the army where for the past five or six years he has been employed as radio operator. His first work with the marines took him to the Philippines, but practically the entire time has been spent in China before coming to the United States.

Evidently the long term of close application to Uncle Sam's interests has proved agreeable to Mr. Mason and speaks well for his power of perseverance. He appears to be in fine health.

PITTSBURG IS TORN BY GAS EXPLOSION

The explosion of a natural gas reservoir in Pittsburg yesterday morning brought violent death to 27 or more persons, injured hundreds and wrecked buildings over a wide area of the city's north side.

The report says that at 8 a. m. men went to work with blow torches to do some repairing on the huge tank. A short time afterward the terrific explosion occurred which wrecked the tank, tore up streets, rocked buildings and wrought destruction generally throughout that portion of the city. The tank was shot high in the air, heavy portions descending on buildings over a wide area.

The work of rescue is under way but the difficulties are great.

There are other gas storage tanks in the city and an investigation has been ordered which may lead to their removal to the outlying districts.

This death-dealing disaster follows close on last week's flood in New England which took many lives and destroyed millions of dollars worth of property.

Pittsburg is a city of around 700,000, located in southwestern Pennsylvania at the point where the Allegheny and Monongehela rivers unite to form the Ohio river.

Base Line Boosters Seek Improvements

The Base Line Improvement club held its regular meeting on Monday evening at "Jack and Jill's" chicken dinner inn on Base Line road. The meeting was the largest the club has ever experienced and those who have been working on this project were gratified both as to attendance and enthusiasm.

W. H. Harlow, the president, reported the placement of a large sign during the past year out on the Columbia highway directing travel over Base Line road. This was done entirely by subscription and was not taken from the funds of the club. Mr. Harlow also told of a petition which the club presented to the county commissioners for the widening of the highway from the intersection of Burnside and Stark streets to the Fairview road. County Commissioners Grant Phegley and Clay S. Morse were called upon and in their talks told those present that the allotment for Base Line road for this year was $20,000 and was to be used inside the city limits of Portland.

The East Side Commercial club was represented by M. B. Mack, who spoke on cooperation. J. King Bryon, A. J. Rose and E. A. Clark, Mr. Clark, who is vice president and cashier of the Citizens bank and a director of his club, gave a snappy talk on "What Base Line Should Expect." He left no doubt in any one's mind as to what other cities of Portland's size would do with an artery as important as this one. He emphasized the fact that it is a shorter and more direct route to eastern Oregon and that this road carries more freight tonnage than any other east and west highway out of Portland in spite of its hazardous condition. This enthusiast finished his address by asking volunteers from the entertaining group to be his personal guests at the East Side club's luncheon on next Wednesday.

John Manning gave a short talk on the danger to the people of this district driving on such a narrow pavement of the popularly-named "Black Top" type. He enumerated the accidents which have recently occurred as a direct result of these two things and appealed to the commissioners on this point of public safety.

Following this group of talks the president announced that the meeting place had been donated by L. C. Binford, proprietor of "Jack and Jill," and that the Davidson Baking company and Hanneman Ice Cream company had made it possible to serve refreshments. The meeting was then adjourned for a very pleasant social hour.

POMONA GRANGE TO MEET ON WEDNESDAY

Lents grange will entertain tomorrow the regular quarterly meeting of Multnomah county Pomona grange, composed of the nine subordinate granges of the county. There will be a business session in the morning, a program in the afternoon, and initiation in the fifth degree and a program at night. Dinner will be served at noon and supper at night.

A pleasing program has been arranged for the lecture hour by Pomona Lecturer John Stansbury, county fruit inspector. Mr. Stansbury is a member of the Rockwood grange, as is also the secretary of Pomona grange, Mrs. Grace Exley. F. H. Crane, a member of Rockwood grange, is master of Pomona.

ROCKWOOD

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Rockwood church next Sunday morning at the regular morning service hour. Special music will be provided and all those attending are urged to bring some article of food for the less fortunate of the community. The "Sixth Commandment" will be the subject for the evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Olds and daughters Mary Katherine and Janet and Mrs. Olds' mother, Mrs. M. O. Shackelford, have arrived from McGehee, Arkansas, to make their home in Oregon. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olds until the completion of their own home which they are building on the adjoining property.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse, Friday afternoon of this week. A large attendance is desired and a cordial invitation extended to new members.

The cast of the play, "Down By the Sea," to be given in conjunction with the Ladies Aid bazaar December 3 at the grange hall, are working diligently and have found that there is something to building a reputation, for they have been invited to give their play for the Gresham grange at some early date following the home production. The other work for the bazaar is also going forward and everything points to success.

Mrs. W. H. Harlow entertained at luncheon for the teachers last Friday at the school, the occasion being "Teachers Day." A number of gifts were presented to the teachers by the pupils in appreciation of the work that these good women do.

The County Council of P.-T. A. will meet at the Portland library next Saturday at 11 a. m. Miss Edna Mindas from the normal school at Monmouth will be the speaker, and a report of the state convention at LaGrande will be given. All teachers and delegates are urged to attend.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Cottage Cheese Demonstration.

Representatives of Red Rock cottage cheese will demonstrate their finest recipes at the Gresham Meat Market on Thursday and Friday, November 17 and 18.—Adv.

Lynch School Plans Elaborate Carnival

Elaborate plans are being made this week for the carnival to be held Friday evening, November 18, at the Lynch schoolhouse, the proceeds of the entertainment to be used for the beautifying and furnishing of the schoolroom of the fine new school building which was recently completed there. No pains are being spared to make this event an outstanding one in the community. Not only will the evening be a most enjoyable one from a social standpoint, but an opportunity will be afforded to assist in putting the finishing touches on the interior of the splendid building which has been erected by the district for its school children.

No admission will be charged for entrance to the carnival, but it is to be hoped no one will make the fatal mistake of leaving the family purse at home. There will be numerous attractions to patronize. Many of the diversions of the typical county fair will be found, including the peanut man, the popcorn man and the vendor of toy balloons.

There will be side shows with snake charmers and fortune tellers. The manager of the shows declares there is a laugh in every show. A hot dog stand will be in evidence where hot dogs can be purchased by the yard or by the carload. All kinds of candy, from an all-day sucker all dolled up, to a wonderful large box, can be purchased at the candy booth. There will be a fish pond where everyone is sure of a bite; a bazaar where everybody will have a chance to buy small gifts for a mere trifle; a bartender without a bar room; serpentine, horns and all the rest of it that goes with a good time.

For those who enjoy dancing there will be a jitney dance in the school auditorium, the music to be furnished by a Portland orchestra. A doll show will hold the attention of the small girl and possibly some of her older sisters. Anyone who wishes may enter the contest with a doll, prizes for which will be awarded in different classes. Last but not least, all are invited to visit the country store if for no other reason than to see the pretty clerks.

R. H. Confrey, clerk of the Lynch school district, is chairman of the carnival committee and is doing all in his power to make the affair a success. He has chosen for his helpers Miss Elizabeth Canning, principal of the school and Mrs. Otto Skalstad, who, with Mr. Confrey, selected some of the most wide awake people of the district to have charge of the various booths and features. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. E. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, Mrs. Floyd Halladay, Mrs. D. and Mrs. W. MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. George Fortner, Mrs. H. W. Lynch, Mrs. A. R. Fairbank, Mrs. Clawson, Mrs. S. A. Thompson and Mrs. Adams.

Door prizes will be given, also there will be awards for the best hand work by the boys and girls. An art exhibit will be in charge of Miss Canning. Although the opening of school in the Lynch district was delayed for a month on account of the new building not being in readiness, it is now progressing with much interest. Shrubbery is being planted on the grounds. Everyone is given a cordial invitation to the carnival, which it is planned to make the biggest and best affair of its kind ever held in the county.

BURNSIDE WILL BE THROUGH STREET

(Montavilla Times)

Some misunderstanding has been experienced by those living along East Burnside street in the zone where opening up and widening has been ordered by the city council, which extends from Gilham to 92d street, making Burnside a through street from the Burnside bridge to the city limits on the east and connecting up with the proposed county road on the abandoned Troutdale electric railway track. Some have been led to believe that the $14,700 assessment made by the city was for the purpose of opening up Burnside street at 68th street only, but the truth is the assessment is for the expense of opening and widening of Burnside from Gilham to the city limits. These times the assessment may seem a little stiff but considering the fact that the property affected will be doubled in value, there does not appear to be much ground for kicking, and also in consideration of the fact that property owners will have ten years to pay their assessment in.

LOCAL AMATEURS FORM CINE CLUB

(By Benj. H. Davies)

If you are numbered among the nearly 200 local owners and approximately 200,000 users of amateur motion picture equipment throughout the world, or, if you plan to be one, you are cordially invited to attend the meetings of the Portland Cine club held regularly the first and third Thursdays of each month at the Oregon building, room 705.

The club is organized for the purpose of helping the amateur to get a full measure of pleasure and profit from the use of his cinematography and through exchange of views and personal experiences, and through listening to lectures by expert amateur and professional movie photographers. Programs are arranged wherein personal films "shot" by the members of this club and those of similar organizations throughout the world are shown.

Through the untiring energies of its president, Ray LePever of the Hotel Benson, the final organization of the club was effected the evening of October 6th. The annual meeting and election of officers will be held January 12, 1928.

Parents who have the welfare of their boys and girls at heart, and in general entire communities, are often and rightly concerned about the demoralizing influence of the average motion picture play. The charge of degeneracy cannot be laid at the door of the amateur cinema maker for the subjects of his productions are the loves, hopes, ambitions and achievements of real folks who are the builders of homes and communities.

POWELL VALLEY

Word has been received of the death at Pacific Beach, California, on November 2, of Joseph Gist at the advanced age of 92 years. Surviving sons and daughters are Mrs. George Beers and Mrs. Ed. Crosier of Sandy, Oregon, Miss Olive Gist of San Diego, and Harry Gist of Pacific Beach, California. Interment was at San Diego. The Gist family formerly lived near the Powell Valley schoolhouse. They moved to California about 15 years ago.

Otto Arvidson arrived Monday from St. Paul, Minnesota, for a visit with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Arvidson and family.

Approximately $120 was secured as the result of the Saron Lutheran bazaar held at the Powell Valley schoolhouse Saturday evening. This will be used for the various interests of the Ladies Aid.

The regular meeting of the Powell Valley Parent-Teacher association will be held Friday evening at the schoolhouse. As special business is to be transacted, it is desired all members be present. There will be a program followed by refreshments. Chas. Saverude, a member of the high school faculty will speak on "Cooperation between Teachers and Parents."

The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Saron Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. G. Sture in Gresham. As the annual election of officers will take place at this meeting, all members are urged to be present. Mr. and Mrs. F. Mattson and daughter Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindgren, Miss Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Amelia Frank and daughter Clara and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olson and baby son were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hulaner Sunday in honor of the latter's birthday. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed.

Another collection of books has recently been arranged which will be of special interest to mothers of children from the toddler age to those in the teens. This collection has been assembled and placed at the disposal of mothers at the suggestion and through the help of Mrs. Mark Nickerson, who is superintendent of the child welfare department of the Gresham W. C. T. U., and who urges mothers to use these books for their information on the numerous problems which arise in connection with the children. Besides the special "child welfare shelf," there are many other books in the library of assistance to mothers, which Mrs. Irma Ansley, the librarian, will gladly furnish.

Among the books on the "child welfare shelf" are the following: Training the Child, Problems of Childhood, and School and Home, all by Angelo Patri; Misunderstood Children, Harrison; Mothers and Children, Dorothy Canfield Fisher; The Faults of Childhood and Youth, O'Shea; How to Know Your Child, Scott; The Happy Child, Shaw; Character Training in Childhood, Haviland; Training the Toddler, Cleveland; Trend of the Teens, O'Shea; Training the Girl, McKeever; Wholesome Childhood, Groves.
