

Gresham Locals

Evangelist Booth-Clibborn, who was scheduled to preach at the Un-denominational temple Sunday afternoon, was unavoidably detained and his wife spoke in his stead. Mrs. Booth-Clibborn was in Gresham some months ago and spoke at the temple, where her sermons were much appreciated.

A number from Gresham are regularly attending the Bulgín meetings which are in progress at Foster road and 67th street S.E., in Portland. A most interesting discourse was given Saturday when Dr. Bulgín delivered his famous lecture, "The Folks in Hometown or the White Mountaineers of the South." On the evening previous several hundred people were unable to gain entrance to the tabernacle. Standing room many evenings is at a premium.

Mrs. Wendall Cleveland and children Virginia and Howard spent the Armistice Day week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland. Charles Cleveland of Lewiston, Idaho, was a recent guest at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hascall, who were married last Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bechill, were given a reception Friday evening in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Seeley. The evening was spent in dancing, and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Hascall left Sunday for their home at Pilot Rock, Oregon.

George Hayden has a double garage under construction on his property at Third and Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mealey and family went to Walla Walla, Washington, for a visit with the former's brother and family over the last week end. They also called on old friends at Milton, Oregon. Lyle Mason had charge of the jewelry store on Saturday.

Editor H. L. St. Clair has returned to his work at the Outlook office after several days' absence on account of illness.

J. T. Horr was brought Wednesday from Good Samaritan hospital where he recently underwent an operation. He is convalescing at his home in a satisfactory manner.

Mrs. F. E. Batchelor is assisting at the Radio Electric shop.

C. D. Heddin of Buell, Idaho, has purchased the four-acre tract of Andrew Brugger on Birdsdales road. He will probably build on the property during the coming winter. The sale of the acreage was negotiated through Elkington & Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spraguer of Oregon City were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillett. Mr. Gillett and Mrs. Spraguer are brother and sister.

Among those who were at Eugene during the past week to attend the University of Oregon's home coming and the big football game between the U. of O. and O. A. C. on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Dusen, Dr. George Mallett, W. D. Klander, Mrs. Vida Stubbs and Miss Frances Welling.

Out of town guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Sherwood and daughter Marjorie of Portland who visited Tuesday afternoon and evening. Mr. Sherwood, a nephew of Mrs. Manning, has been a musician in the Circle theater orchestra for the past 15 years. Armistice Day dinner guests were Miss Mary Hendricks of Portland, a teacher in the Brooklyn school, and Mrs. Vivian Gray, a teacher in the grade school at Mollala. Both ladies are granddaughters of Mrs. Manning. Mrs. James Stafford of Sumner, Washington, was also a caller Friday at the Manning home. L. H. Manning of Portland visited Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Mary E. Stoutenberg of Jenne road west of Gresham is recovering from injuries received about a month ago when she fell on a pile of lumber, when she was considerably bruised and shaken up.

Karl J. Hagberg reports the recent sale of the 5-acre place of Mrs. Mary K. Unis on Palmbad road southeast of Gresham to Matt Haney of Portland, who will immediately improve the place by putting up modern buildings. He will make his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jennings have moved from the Beadle house on Roberts avenue to the Heiney house located on the corner of Roberts avenue and Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. John Grevlich of Pendleton.

Robert McDonald sustained a bad cut on the right ankle Saturday afternoon as the result of coming in contact with an axe, wielded by Vernon Bouford in cutting up the Saturday evening supply of wood. Young McDonald was sitting on his bicycle when it tipped and he lost his balance, falling against the axe. He will probably be laid up for a week as the result of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Gibbs and daughter Frances were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Strebin who live east of Gresham. The dinner was planned in honor of Mr. Strebin's birthday. Bobby Gibbs has been spending a week with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mewhirter at Newberg.

Mrs. Fred Southard and son Edward left Friday to make their home in Portland, where Miss Gertrude Southard has been living for some time past. They have rented their house on Main street to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allmon and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Van Dusen. Messrs. Allmon and Van Dusen are the members of the newly-organized Gresham Fuel company with headquarters at the former site of the Eastman planing mill near the Mt. Hood depot.

R. E. Cannon and son Jack spent the Armistice Day week end at Waldport where they have a cabin. The sea is reported as a most interesting sight at this time of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sheely were in Gresham Monday evening greeting old friends and attending to matters of business. They stated that their son Wesley had the misfortune to break his leg last Wednesday. He and another boy were engaged in wrestling when in some manner he fell, with the result of a fractured bone.

The civil cases, which appeared to be growing out of the matter of a mortgaged patch of potatoes in exchange for an automobile from the Hessel Implement company, were brought to a halt Monday in district court when they were ordered tabled indefinitely by the district attorney. It is not known just when, if at all, the three cases will be brought up for consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Walters left this morning for San Francisco. They expect to spend several months, possibly the entire winter in San Francisco and other California cities.

D. M. Roberts, who was brought home from Good Samaritan hospital several days ago, was taken back Sunday in a serious condition. Reports from the hospital indicate that there has been some improvement and his recovery is hoped for.

A change has been made in the interior of the shop of the Radio Electric company. The rear of the room has been very artistically made into a radio parlor where the Atwater Kent and Radiola are featured. A good program is on the air much of the time and greatly enjoyed by patrons of the shop.

The Royal Neighbors will meet at the home of Mrs. Minnie Wyant Thursday evening, November 17. Those wishing to go are requested to meet at Glen Davidson's store at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Russell Akin was taken to Good Samaritan hospital last Wednesday evening, and the following morning underwent a major operation from which she is convalescing rapidly. Her mother, Mrs. S. C. Jones, is caring for her children at the Jones home west of Gresham. Mrs. Akin will not be permitted to receive any callers before next week.

The Gresham Rebekah lodge entertained 41 visiting Rebekahs from Estacada, also the Mountain View Rebekah lodge of Portland last evening at its regular session. Visiting members of the Estacada lodge conferred the Rebekah degree on two candidates of the local organization. About 100 were present in all from the three lodges and a most enjoyable evening spent. A banquet followed the initiation.
