High School Play Center of Interest

All interests at the high school this week are centering in the senior class play, "The Goose Hangs High", which will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week in the high school gymnasium. Rehearsals are held each evening and everything points to a successful production. Excerpts from the play were rendered Wednesday before the student body and met with a most enthusiastic reception.

It is expected that the new spread curtain which has been purchased for the high school gym will be initiated next Tuesday evening in the opening roll of the senior class play. The need of a new curtain has been apparent for a long time. It will replace the old roll curtain which has well outlived its usefulness. In purchasing the new curtain, half of the expense was borne by the student body and the remainder of the cost by the school district.

GRESHAM MASONS PLAN FATHER AND SON MEET

For the fourth time the Gresham Masonic lodge will hold a "Father and Son Get-together" in the Masonic lodge room on Friday evening, November 25, beginning at 7:30. Heretofore only Masons and sons participated, but this time the doors will be thrown wide open to every "dad and kid" in Gresham. The hilarity rampant at former "get togethers" will be remembered by the youngsters, as well as the "old boys", as a "bully time."

Masonry stands for good citizenship, and it is believed that these gatherings will tend to develop qualities of good citizenship in the boys and their fathers.

The program Friday night will be entertaining and helpful to young and old alike. David James Ferguson of Astoria is scheduled for a short address. He was the principal speaker at a recent gathering of the grand lodge. Other outside talent will be present, also it is expected the Gresham high school band will play.

The arrangements for the evening's entertainment are in the hands of a committee consisting of Roy H. Gibbs, W. L. Gorsage and George F. Honey. All boys of the high school, all grade school boys over eight years of age and dads of any age are cordially invited.

Fair Board Wrestles With New Problems

The fair board met in adjourned session last night at the city hall with Vice President H. A. Lewis in the chair. There was a small attendance due largely to the fact that no notice had been given, the meeting having been adjourned from a former called meeting.

The evening was spent mostly in discussion of ways and means to relieve the present financial stress and avoid a similar situation in the future. The board is not organized yet into standing committees and the discussion was a free for all but the determination to profit by the unintentional mistakes of the past was the dominant idea. All present expressed a desire to cooperate loyally to make a success of the 1928 fair but some adjustments may be necessary.

The resignation of A. W. Metzger as secretary was presented but laid on the table and Mrs. Grace Exley was chosen as assistant secretary to be temporarily at least acting secretary. Mrs. Exley is well familiar with the work.

The matter of employing a manager was thoroughly discussed but the sentiment seemed to be opposed to the method and no action was taken. Chas. Cleveland, though not a member of the board, was present and gave valuable advice gathered from his many years of fair experience and observation.

H. A. Lewis has made a large donation of shrubbery to the fair and arrangements were made to have same set out on the grounds.

H. A. Lewis and O. A. Eastman were appointed a temporary committee to look after certain pressing matters pertaining to grounds and buildings.

An effort will be made to get out a full attendance at the regular board meeting Thursday night, December 1, and all heads of departments for the past year are being asked to present their best suggestions for improvements in the management of the fair.

EARLY MAILING URGED FOR CHRISTMAS MAIL

Postoffices in this vicinity, in common with those throughout the country, are making preparations to handle the ever increasing volume of Christmas mail with the greatest possible efficiency. They are asking the cooperation of their patrons, both local and rural, in bringing this about.

The postal department advocates early mailing of Christmas parcels and greetings, so as to avoid the congestion of the holidays and to insure their delivery on time. Besides the address on a parcel, it may contain the words "Do not open until Christmas."

The fact that the holiday falls on Sunday this year but is observed on Monday, makes it necessary that the Monday delivery of mail be made on Monday. This is necessary as it is felt that two days in which the mail is not delivered is too long to be permitted at Christmas time.

In order that the service may be performed with less exactness to the employees of the postal department, and to facilitate the handling of the mails, postmasters are authorized to permit rural carriers to vary from their usual schedules and to leave early in the morning to serve their routes.

The volume of Christmas card greetings is increasing from year to year, and it is expected that it will be larger than ever this year. As an aid in spreading the Christmas card business over a considerable period, and assuring delivery on time, it has been ruled that Christmas greeting cards for local delivery may be mailed by December 15 or even earlier, and that they will not be delivered until two or three days before Christmas.

The postmasters in this vicinity who unite in giving these facts publicity are E. E. Johnson, Gresham; Wm. A. Morand, Boring; John S. Hudson, Troutdale; Elsie Langley, Fairview; E. Morgan, Corbett.

THE RED CROSS CALLS

It is worth much to live in this early half of the twentieth century even though it costs something—more than in any former time. If the real life depends on giving, life should be larger and happier than ever before.

There is a satisfaction in this day also in giving to great humanitarian causes, such as the Red Cross, which, like a real mother, rises in real benevolence to help the needy and suffering.

The American Red Cross needs no introduction to Americans. It is supported by individual contributions, especially the dollar a year memberships, and dispenses its assistance—in reality your assistance and mine—economically and wisely. It is a great community chest for rendering aid in cases of sectional catastrophe. There is no other agency that functions so expeditiously and well. During the past year it has abundantly shown its efficiency to relieve distress in the case of the Mississippi flood victims, the New England flood sufferers and is now on the ground with relief in torn Pittsburgh.

There will inevitably be other floods, storms, earthquakes and disasters. Shall we keep this "Greatest Mother" prepared with supplies and funds for these needs when they arise?

Then we should willingly give in the annual membership drives which come at this season of the year—not as a charity but as an investment in humanity. It may come back close to home sometime. But if not, we may count ourselves doubly fortunate.

CHRISTIAN SPIRIT IN THANKSGIVING

Is the modern Thanksgiving Christian?

This question will be up for discussion at the Methodist church at the regular service at 7:30 next Sunday evening, when the pastor will speak on the topic, "Making Thanksgiving Christian." There is room for some question as to the religious nature of the day in the celebration of the average American, and the topic should be of general interest.

The morning sermon is said to contain startling truths that will give people something to think about for many days. It is entitled, "Where Is God?" Members of the church are urged to bring their friends with them to hear this sermon.

The Sunday school invites all to be in its studies. And the young people, meeting at 5 for a social hour, to be followed at 6:30 by their devotional gathering, extend a cordial invitation to others to be present.

SARON LUTHERAN SERVICES ANNOUNCED

Bible school will be held at the Saron Lutheran church next Sunday at 9:45 a. m. The school now has a membership of 73 and it is hoped that by Christmas the 100 mark shall be reached. The services of the day will be conducted in the English language. The morning worship begins at 11, at which time the pastor will speak on the theme, "Honest Citizenship in Christ's Kingdom."

In the evening the lectures on the Apocalypse will be continued. The subject for the evening, "The Grand Vision" will be exchanged for, "The Modern Church—Whither Goest Thou?" This change has been made on request and will be a conclusion of the last lecture on "The Seven Churches." An attempt will be made to analyze and explain the modern tendency of the growth of the church and to view this progress in the light of the scriptures.

The choir will take part in the morning service. In the evening illustrated singing will be a part of the program.

THE BIBLE THE MOST POPULAR BOOK

The most popular book in the world today is the Bible, the text book of the Christian religion. Thirty million copies were distributed from the printing presses of the world in 1926. They were issued in 835 different languages and dialects, 168 of which are in America. No other book in the history of the human race has approached such a record.

The pastor of the Baptist church, the Rev. E. G. Judd, is conducting a study of the Bible every Wednesday evening excepting November 24, beginning at 7 o'clock. Each book of the Bible is being studied to ascertain its meaning and message for the present day. The book of Genesis was studied last Wednesday evening and will be reviewed Wednesday evening, December 1st and a study of the book of Exodus will be given. The study will begin promptly at 7 o'clock and will last for 45 minutes. Denominational differences will not

Club Work Shows Gain at International

In making a general summary of the splendid work put on at the recent Pacific International Livestock exposition, W. D. Kinder, county club agent, states that the crop work this year in connection with the land products exhibits showed a marked increase over 1926. The potato displays made were excellent. The exhibit of dairy cattle and hogs from this county at the International was a commendable one from every standpoint, the boys and girls receiving their share of the blue ribbons. The boys' demonstration team, consisting of John Fleming and Floyd Stafford, was selected to represent the state in a northwest contest dairy demonstration.

Sewing, cooking and canning are advancing, several clubs having been organized during the month of October throughout the county. This is the first time that clubs have had a chance to start as early as October. According to Mr. Kinder, it now looks as though there would be more boys and girls engaged in club work this year than ever before. Such being the case active preparations are being made to take of them and their needs.

Following is a list of the projects which were put under way during the month of October; three cooking clubs with a total of 25 members, one of which was organized at Troutdale under the leadership of Mrs. John Denison, one at Pleasant Valley with Mrs. K. C. Bishop as leader, and the third at Gilbert; five sewing clubs with a total of 56 members, two of these at Gilbert with Mrs. E. P. Vigar as leader of one of the clubs, one at Pleasant Valley under the leadership of Mrs. Willard Bliss, another at Powell Valley with Miss Sue Hicks as leader, and the fifth at Corbett under the leadership of Adeline Evans. Miss Sue Hicks will have charge of the bachelor sewing class which was organized at Powell Valley with 8 members. Three handwork clubs with 27 members have been organized, one at Gilbert to be led by Miss Helen Maxwell, another at Powell Valley with Miss Sue Hicks as leader, and one at Troutdale, the leader of which has not yet been selected.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH ANNOUNCES SERVICES

The preaching services Sunday at the Zion Evangelical church will be held at the usual hour of 11 a. m. Sunday is the last Sunday of the church year and is designated on the church calendar as Memorial Sunday. A sermon fitting the occasion will be delivered by the pastor on, "Weighed in the Balances." Special gifts will be received for the ministerial pension and relief fund.

The Sunday school will convene at 10 a. m. The membership contest will close Sunday morning. All the members of the school are urged to be present at that time.

The Evangelical church will join the other churches of Gresham in the annual union Thanksgiving services at the Methodist church Wednesday evening of next week.

Churches to Hold Thanksgiving Services.

Union Thanksgiving services of the churches of Gresham will be held next Wednesday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. D. B. Weintz, pastor of the Free Methodist church, will preach the sermon. There will be appropriate singing and other features, the arrangement for this part of the service to be in the hands of the pastor of the Methodist church, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm. The cooperation of all pastors is desired.
