

AMERICAN LEGION

Gresham Locals

The regular meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be held at the grange hall Tuesday, November 22, at Gresham grange hall. Full attendance desired. TED JOHNSON, Commander.

supper will be served. The annual election of officers for both organization will be held at this time.

Mrs. Clark Melugin and her son, Howard Power, have returned to make their home in Gresham and have found living quarters at the Hornish apartments. Mr. Power has been here for some time and Mrs. Melugin arrived last Monday. Mr. Melugin has gone to Texas where he plans to spend the winter with his mother.

In a list of 13 young men who were recently initiated at the Oregon State college at Corvallis into Alpha Kappa Psi, a national honorary commerce fraternity, appears the name of Grant McMillan, a former resident of Gresham. McMillan was graduated with the 1924 class of Gresham Union high school and is now a senior at the agricultural college. He has been a member of the varsity debate team for the past two years.

Ed Lewis, of the Lewis & Son Portland-Gresham stages, is in the Veterans' hospital in Portland convalescing from the effects of an operation for appendicitis which he underwent Tuesday. His condition is reported as entirely satisfactory.

Clyde McMurry, who is employed by the Radio Electric company, installed a large radio receiving set Wednesday at Palmer, the site of the Bridal Veil Logging company.

A card party will be given by the Areme club on Friday evening, December 9, at the home of Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth.

Miss Ulala Stratton, an instructor in Gresham Union high school, is at her home in Eugene for a month, part of the time being spent in a Eugene hospital recovering from the effects of an operation. Mrs. Randles of Portland, a former teacher in Jefferson high, is substituting for Miss Stratton.

A pleasant Halloween surprise party is reported from Wasco, Oregon, by the relatives of Florence and Evelyn Williams who visit in Gresham occasionally at the home of their great grandfather J. N. Mewhirter. The party, which was also in joint celebration of their birthdays, was given at their country home by 19 young friends. A large birthday cake, ornamented with Halloween decorations, received considerable approval.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Conrad and daughter Ada and Mr. Hostler of Woodburn were callers Wednesday at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood.

R. C. Frace has been nursing a large carbuncle on the back of his neck for several days past. The pain was so severe he was unable to work for some time.

John Rayl, driver of the Base Line bus of the Lewis & Son stages, has returned to his work after being absent several weeks sick at the home of his mother in Oregon City. During his absence his bus was driven by Reuben Peterson.

The recent high winds in this vicinity leveled several hundred feet of the board fence enclosing the speedway north of Gresham.

Mrs. F. E. Alsop of Portland, representing the Red Rock company, gave an interesting demonstration yesterday and today at the meat market of A. J. W. Brown.

The county fair grounds at Gresham is to be the starting point of a walking race, scheduled to take place Sunday, November 27, between employes of the Southern Pacific Railway company and the Portland Electric Power company. Permission has been granted by the city of Portland to use Brooklyn park as the city terminus of the race.

The football game Thursday afternoon between the grade school team and the freshmen of the high school resulted in a victory for the latter, the score standing 6 to 0.

Among recent deliveries of machines sold by the Hessel Implement company were a Whippet to Lester Becker on the Base Line road west of Gresham, and a Willys-Knight sedan to W. H. Hansen of Portland.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Mary Hayes, 70, of Halsey, Oregon. Mrs. Hayes was the mother of Mrs. Grace Nash, a former resident of Gresham.

Mrs. Alleta Myers, manager of the Myers bakery on Powell street, is in Scotia, California, called there by sickness in her son's family. Her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Leavens of Portland, has taken her place in the bakery during her absence.

Answer These

In displaying the U. S. Flag on a wire stretched across the street which position does the Union (Stars) hold?

When the U. S. Flag is displayed on a wire extended from building to pole at the edge of sidewalk where should the Union (Stars) be?

When displaying the U. S. Flag on the wall back of a speaker, should the Union be on the congregation's left or right?

What should be the position on staff of U. S. Flag in the afternoon on Memorial Day?

When carried in a procession with another flag, what should be its position? If with several flags of other countries?

Every new depositor in our Savings Department opening an account of $5 or more is entitled to Flag Etiquette, a Flag 3 x 5, jointed pole, halliards and bracket.

This holds good until December 1, 1927.

Act promptly, only a few flags remain.
