PLEASANT HOME

The Epworth Leaguers of the Methodist church put on a very interesting and entertaining program at the church on Friday evening, November 18. The program was a diversified arrangement consisting of piano, violin and voice, musical numbers, readings and skits. Nellie and Patty Greenwood, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenwood of Bull Run presented several piano numbers in their usual interesting way. Mrs. Agnes Walters presented a reading "Josiah Allen's Wife at T. Warner's Store" in a pleasing and entertaining manner. Miss Luetta Welling of Gresham, assisted at the piano by Miss Mahel Winters also of Gresham, delighted those present by two well rendered numbers. Mr. Phillips of the Gresham Standard Oil station presented a few comic songs assisted at the piano by Mrs. Oliver Gill. The shadow graph skit "A Surgical Operation" presented by Ralph Ellsworth, Herman Walters and Oliver Gill pleased the younger members very much. Ralph Ellsworth and Oliver Gill also appeared in a negro dialogue "The Two Black Crows." Barbara Walters was chairman of the evening and Harry Carlson presided at the ticket table. The candy booth was in charge of Alma Cook assisted by other girls of the league. The evening was pronounced a success in every way.

Several days ago W. B. Cory, the superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school appointed Christmas committees and plans for the observance of that festival are now well under way. Mrs. Alta Stafford heads the program committee; G. H. Bickford is chairman of the music committee; H. Lee Ball, is in charge of decorations and E. E. Van Fleet of the candy feature of the program.

The junior choir of the Methodist church will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parsonage. Last Saturday another new name was added to the membership roll, that of Helen Soderberg of Bull Run.
