POWELL VALLEY

The musical concert given at the Saron Lutheran church Thanksgiving evening was well attended. The singing of the male quartet was much enjoyed, also that of other numbers on the program. The soloist work of William Elliott was particularly fine. His friends consider he has a future of much promise. Nearly 60 selected colored slides were shown depicting scenes of the sea. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $50 which will be added to the building fund of the church.

The Rev. Enoch Sandeen was called to Roseburg Sunday to officiate at the funeral of a young man of his congregation there the following day. He assisted in raising $250 for the needy family of the boy, in addition to securing the donation of part of the undertaker's fees. Mr. Sandeen gave an illustrated lecture on the "Nativity of Christ" at Warren Wednesday evening.

Funeral services at the Saron Lutheran church Sunday will be conducted in English at 11 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will give a continuation of his lecture on the Apocalypse. At the last meeting of the church board the recommendation was made that the question of the building of the new church be taken up at the annual meeting which will be held in January. At this time it will also be recommended that all services of the church be conducted in English.

The revival meetings which began Tuesday evening at the Powell Valley Mission church are progressing well, with a good attendance and interest. They will close on Wednesday evening, December 7. The Rev. Gust E. Johnson will preach three times on Sunday, in the morning at 11 o'clock in Swedish from the subject, "The Ten Virgins," at 3 p. m. from "The Sin Problem," and at 7:30 in the evening from "The Prisoners of Hope and Despair." The services of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be held at 2:30, 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. No meetings will be held Saturday.

HILLSVIEW

A real old-time Thanksgiving reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Forsyth. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Forsyth of Jewel, Oregon. Mr. Forsyth, who is a brother of A. E. Forsyth, is employed there as chief construction engineer of the logging railroad of the B. M. Timber company. Others present were Mrs. Samuel Miller, Edith Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Megert of Portland, George Rhuel of George, Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Miller of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Long, and Mr. and Mrs. David Stabler and children of Hillsview. Despite the inclemency of the weather, they all enjoyed the day.

HURLBURT

Services will be held at the Hurlburt schoolhouse Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted of Fairview Presbyterian church will preach on the subject "Love, the Greatest Thing in the World."

HALEY

Sunday school of the Haley Baptist church will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday, followed by the morning worship in Swedish at 11. The Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service. Junior meeting will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening, followed by the evening preaching service at 7:30. The Mission circle will meet at the home of Mrs. A. T. Stenberg Wednesday, December 7, at 2 o'clock.

The union Thanksgiving service held at the Haley church was inspiring and well attended, considering the weather. The Haley congregation is even now looking forward to next Thanksgiving when the members expect to meet with their Lutheran friends in Powell Valley.

PLEASANT HOME

Miss Rose Wetherell of Baker, Oregon, who is a teacher in the schools at Newberg, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Manary of Portland were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell last Sunday.

The ladies of the Methodist church, after careful consideration, decided to make no changes in the plans for the bazaar and program scheduled for Saturday evening, December 3, and this event will be as advertised. All is in readiness and every precaution has been taken to insure against any possible danger. The church has been thoroughly fumigated by the method prescribed by the health department. The services of the biscuit expert of the manufacturers of Fisher's Blend flour have been secured to augment the cooking staff. An interesting program has been arranged which will be a free extra added attraction following the supper. The patronage of the people of the community is kindly solicited.

The Methodist Junior choir will not meet Saturday afternoon, December 3, as is the custom. The next rehearsal will be Saturday, December 10, at 3 p. m., at which time a full attendance is desired for the purpose of practicing some music for the Christmas service.

There will be the usual services at the Methodist church Sunday, December 4. The subject for the morning sermon will be "The Abundant Life." The story will be "Jewels in the Mud." The Epworth League devotional service will be held at 7 p. m. The subject of the service is "The League's Partner" and will be presented by Mrs. Mable Carlson.

The senior choir of the Methodist church will not meet Saturday evening, December 3, on account of the bazaar. The next practice will be held December 10, at the usual place and hour.

BORING

At the annual road meeting of District No. 22 of Clackamas county held at the I. O. O. F. hall on Monday evening, a special tax of five mills was voted for the purpose of improving some of the roads in the district. The vote for the tax was 40, with four against. The present road boss, John Meyer, was recommended for another year. He was recommended without opposition. Before the meeting there were rumors of several other possible candidates, but on the show down no one came out for the position.

The Boring school is doing its usual line of fine work under the careful supervision of L. H. Mallicoat as principal. Mr. Mallicoat says that the average attendance for this term has been better than it ever has been for the past 12 years of which he has been principal of the school. The average attendance this term has been 99 per cent, a mark of which any school should be proud.
