

Gresham Locals

A number are planning to attend the second district quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church which will begin this evening at Alberta church, E. 30th and Wygant street, Portland. The Rev. L. A. Skuzie, formerly pastor at Gresham, is in charge of the work at Alberta. The meetings will continue over Sunday.

Donald and Jean Page, children of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Page, are grieving the loss of their pet dog which was run over and killed a few days ago by a passing automobile.

Mrs. Thomas Wiles writes from Fresno, California, that she is in the best of health. She and her son Walter attended union Thanksgiving services in Fresno and afterwards enjoyed a turkey dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fanning.

The attending physician for the case of infantile paralysis in the family of O. A. Myers southeast of Gresham states that the child is recovering satisfactorily and is gradually regaining use of her lower limbs. He considers that he has the situation well in hand. No other cases have been reported.

At a recent annual election of officers of the Clackamas County Teachers' association, Mrs. Robert Lansdowne of Battin was chosen vice president. Mrs. Lansdowne is a former Gresham resident and sister of Mrs. C. E. Risher. Principal G. D. Orr of Sandy high school was one of the two executive committee members elected.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clow have received the following communication from Longview, Washington: "James Wesley Hill, weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces, arrived at Longview hospital November 27. We are going to keep him." The newcomer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hill.

John Spies, of Springbrook farm, near Beaverton, was here Wednesday arranging with A. Meyers to clerk his sale on December 14. Mr. Spies will sell about 20 head of registered Guernsey cattle.

Among the divorce suits filed in circuit court during the past week is recorded that of Mrs. Hazel E. Beers of Gresham who is filing a suit for separate maintenance from her husband, William McKinley Beers. The plaintiff is asking for $50 monthly for her own support and $35 monthly for the support of their minor child. The couple married in Gresham in 1915. Mr. Beers is employed at the Columbia Brick works. W. J. Cooper is attorney for Mrs. Beers.

Phyllis Edwards, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Edwards, was taken to the Doernbecher Memorial hospital for children in Portland Monday. She is there receiving treatment for the result of the burns sustained a few weeks ago when she playfully put the end of a current-charged electric cord in her mouth. After the burns had healed it was found a hole remained in the under lip, and plastic surgery has now been reported to in the hope of avoiding permanent disfigurement. It is planned to bring the little girl home Sunday.

Anthony Hengstler is recovering from a light attack of scarlet fever which has kept the house on Roberts avenue in quarantine for some time past. It is expected that the quarantine will be lifted within the next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Smith have returned from the Yakima valley where they have been engaged in assisting in the apple harvest for several months past.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Botkin of Tillamook were Thanksgiving guests at the home of the former's parents Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Botkin. Miss Elsa Johnson, living on the Damascus road near the Gresham city limits, has been ill for several weeks with a severe form of stomach trouble. Mrs. H. J. White has been assisting with the household during her illness.

Mrs. George Krebs of Sandy was brought to the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman about ten days ago suffering from a nervous breakdown and in a critical condition. A slight improvement has been noted and hopes are entertained for a complete recovery. Only immediate relatives, the pastor and his wife are being admitted to the sickroom.

At the last meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger on November 22 the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: past guardian neighbor, Emma McBain; guardian neighbor, Elizabeth Van Slyke; adviser, Emma Manning; clerk, Erdine Beadle; banker, Josie Bliss; magician, Elizabeth Jack; captain of guards, Alice Smith; attendant, Genevieve Frommelt; inner sentinel, Carrie Powell; outer sentinel, D. D. Jack; musician, Rosa Craswell; flag bearer, Amelia Duncan; managers, J. H. Metzger, J. E. Metzger and Harry Truitt; correspondent, Eliza Metzger. A social time, including the serving of refreshments, followed the business session.

The Gresham circle of the Evangelical Women's union will meet at the home of Mrs. Philip Bratzel on Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

George Pleasant has purchased two lots of A. Meyers on Fourth street east of Kelly avenue, and is hauling lumber to the location for a new hangar which will be started soon. Mr. Pleasant now occupies one of the Cleveland houses on Main street.

The Joy class of the Bethel Baptist Sunday school met at the home of Dorothy Tetrick on Thursday afternoon to cut quilt pieces for the mission school in California. Light refreshments were served by their teacher, Mrs. Carl Shultz.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Brockway are expected home either today or tomorrow from Los Angeles where they have been spending the past two weeks on matters pertaining to both business and pleasure. The trip was made by automobile.

Plans are going forward for the annual bazaar and dinner to be given by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church on Wednesday, December 7, in the basement of the church. The bazaar will be held during the afternoon and evening and the serving of dinner will begin at 5:30. An appetizing menu, headed by chicken pie, has been prepared.

A 10-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Doeltz of Pleasant Home Thursday. Mother and baby are doing well at the residence of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman.

I believe that much can be done by art, and particularly the art of music, to give satisfaction to the natural and legitimate desire for getting away from unrelieved dullness and drudgery, and to lead the strong impulse underlying it into fruitful, instead of into harmful, or even destructive channels.—Otto H. Kahn.
