Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

In Oregon politics there is considerable conjecture just now over the appointment by the governor of a budget director and appointment or election of a new man as secretary of state if, as seems probable, the governor should appoint the present secretary of state, Sam A. Koser, to the new office.

The law creating the office of budget director was enacted by the 1927 legislature at the request of Governor Patterson and $25,000 was appropriated to defray the expenses of the department during the current biennium.

Recent appointments by the governor and other events indicate that the chief executive has his eye on Koser for the new office and the next question that arises is who will become secretary of state. There are several possible candidates but undoubtedly the most popular possibility, and a man of thorough capability, is Hal E. Hoss of Oregon City, a newspaper man and of statewide acquaintance, and the governor's present private secretary. Mr. Hoss has all the natural and acquired qualifications to fit him pre-eminently for the secretary's office and it is believed in an election he would have strong support throughout the state. Mr. Koser has made a splendid secretary of state and could easily keep the office if he does not choose to accept the appointment likely to be offered him.

It won't be long now till Christmas but it looks like many months till the primary election in Oregon next May, the great conventions in June or July and the presidential elections next November. Yet there is an undercurrent of agitation that will break to the surface in ever increasing force until the final vote is taken eleven months from now.

This week the republican national committee will meet in Washington and decide where and when the 1928 convention of that party will be held.

Many things can happen in the next six months but the present indications are that the republican convention will have smooth sailing in the choice of a standard bearer from among such outstanding men as Lowden, Hoover, Hughes, Dawes, Borah, etc., any one of whom has strength, ability and experience sufficient to make him a formidable leader in the 1928 campaign.

Two young men, Flynn and Murphy, confessed holdup men, tried in Judge Tazwell's court, were sentenced to 15 years each in the Oregon state prison. They will join the five other outlaws recently committed for 20 or more years by Judge Tazwell. Pleas of leniency were made for these young men but Judge Tazwell is reported as saying that the public has grown weary of the armed banditry prevalent on Portland's streets lately, and society demanded protection from being held up by gunmen.

Music is an enjoyment (in France) the deprivation of which with us cannot be calculated. I am almost ready to say it is the only thing which from my heart I envy them and which, in spite of all the authority of the Decalogue, I do covet.—Thomas Jefferson to Mr. Bellini.

PLEASANT HOME

A large number of the friends of the Methodist work very much enjoyed the Ladies Aid bazaar which was an interesting event of Saturday evening. The spacious basement of the church was filled almost to the point of being crowded. A dinner was served consisting of chicken, potatoes, various salads, jams, pickles, pies, cakes, coffee and other things too numerous to mention, and last but not least, hot biscuits donated by the Fisher Milling company, made of Fisher's Blend flour, by the company's biscuit experts, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawrence. Mr. Lawrence announced that he made 900 biscuits for the supper. The ladies of the church organized themselves into a very efficient kitchen and table force. Jewel Collins and Harry Blackford gave ample evidence of efficient home training as they joined forces with the ladies who waited on tables. H. Soderberg was cashier of the supper. Mrs. Idell Withon was cashier of the bazaar counters. Mrs. Omen and Mrs. Cook were managers and operators of the "fish pond." The Campfire girls were in charge of the candy booth. Mrs. Clara Lennartz was general superintendent of the evening. A brief but interesting and entertaining program was furnished by Miss Virginia Danforth, violinist, Miss Griffin, pianist, the Rev. H. V. Wilhelm, speaker, and the Methodist men's quartet consisting of H. Lee Ball, W. E. Cory, Arthur Sloop and Oliver Gill. Mr. Blackford was the very able auctioneer and was assisted by Mrs. Joe Caldo and Mrs. Mary Johnson. The ladies of the church appreciate the very generous donations of materials, time and labor, and the patronage of the people of the community.

Mrs. Ella Spear and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Killen, called Sunday on Walter Spear who has been confined at a Portland hospital for several months. He is reported much better and expects to be home by Christmas.

Martin Lennartz called on a boyhood friend, Fred Webber of Linton on Sunday. Mr. Webber is ill. Mr. and Mrs. C. Iverson and sons Allen and Melville, and Mr. and Mrs. Steel of Portland were callers at the Lennartz home Sunday.

George Schaffer, who recently went to Indiana to see his mother who was ill, has returned, arriving Sunday. He reports that his mother has recovered her usual health. Mrs. Katie Barsch is at her home for a few days but the report is that she is not much improved in health.

Mrs. Elmer Pease and daughter Iris of Portland, were at the Methodist bazaar Saturday evening. They were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Gill. Mrs. Pease is the mother of Mrs. Gill. The Pleasant Home orchestra will participate in the services at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Friends of the church and orchestra are anticipating a very enjoyable evening. The service will be at 8 o'clock.

The school at Orient which has been closed for several days opened again Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams, Miss Elva Dolan, and the Rev. A. B. Calder's adopted son Robert, who is staying in Gresham with Miss Dolan, were callers at the Calder home Sunday.

The B. Y. P. U. rally which was scheduled for December 11 at the Pleasant Home Baptist church, has been postponed until some time in January.

Mrs. Spiers is hoping to have her son Walter at home by Christmas. This is cheering news for his friends in this locality. He has been in the Good Samaritan hospital for many months as the result of an accident in a saw mill. Mrs. Spiers and her daughter, Mrs. Nettie Killen, were callers at the hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nelson were dinner guests at the home of their son, W. E. Nelson, in Portland on Sunday.

E. E. Brink and sons Henry and Jack, Arthur Nassbahn and Roland Erickson returned Friday morning from a three-months' trip to Canada where they worked during the harvest, later going to Nebraska and helping with the corn harvest.

George Anderson has been laid up for the past two weeks. The doctor has been unable to determine the nature of the malady, but he seems to be improving very slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Melton drove to Sherwood last Thursday to bring Grandma Waybill home. She had been at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tillie Knight, for several weeks. Mrs. Knight came with her mother to visit old friends in this community as well as her two sisters, Mrs. L. M. Wheeler and Mrs. Sarah Wheeler.

Mrs. Charles Wheeler reports a "trek of nature" at her home, a snow bird which is all white except the head, which is black. It has taken up its winter quarters at their home.

Gordon Johnson will be the supply at the Baptist church again next Sunday. Plans are under way for the Christmas program at this church.

Arthur and Clifford Nassbahn were crowded off the highway Saturday evening near the Orient school and their machine upset in the ditch.

The Orient P. T. A. is having a cement floor laid in the basement of the schoolhouse. Tables will be arranged, and hot lunches served to the children during the winter. Mrs. Ekstrom has been employed to serve the lunches.
