

POWELL VALLEY

The annual meeting of the Saron Lutheran Ladies Aid will be held at the church Thursday, December 8, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Enoch Sandeen will be the hostess for the occasion. All ladies of the community are cordially invited to attend. As reports of the year's work will be given and the election of officers held, it is necessary that all members be present.

CEDARVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Glese gave a birthday dinner December 3 in honor of Miss Cora Glese. Besides the honor guest those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Heiney and children spent Thursday with Mrs. Heiney's sister Mrs. R. H. West in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron De Young entertained on Thursday 22 relatives and friends. Before leaving they presented Mr. and Mrs. De Young with an electric percolator in honor of their first visit in the new house.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Smith were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hostford in Portland Sunday.

LYNCH

The regular meeting of the Lynch Parent-Teacher association was held at the schoolhouse Friday. A short program by the children was enjoyed, also several relay races that excited a bit of wholesome school spirit. Hot lunches and Christmas plans were discussed in general. The association decided to give a masquerade ball in the auditorium and cards in the basement of the schoolhouse Friday, December 16. Mack's Entertainers, a ladies' orchestra in costume, will furnish the music. Interesting prizes will be given for costumes.

The Lynhurst Ladies Sewing club held its monthly pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Allan Dryden and her mother, Mrs. Lillie Sergeant, on Barker road, Tuesday, November 29. After luncheon and business meeting three tables of 500 were played. Mrs. Sadie McKee was awarded first honors and Mrs. Boeckel second honors. Miss Petzold and Mrs. Boeckel were guests for the afternoon.

COTTRELL

Plans are going forward for the bazaar and chicken supper to be given Saturday evening, December 10, at the Cottrell community church. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, followed by a program which will include music and a three-act comedy by twelve ladies. The sale will precede the program.

CORBETT

Mrs. Geo. Perry entertained her Sunday school class Tuesday evening at the Corbett church. Games were played and light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Olivia Leland, Mrs. Lewis Reed and their guest Mrs. Leghorn of Tacoma, spent Wednesday in Portland.

The Columbia Telephone company is putting in new poles along the highway east of the school buildings.

Farmers in this vicinity are experiencing a great handicap in harvesting their potato crop because of the heavy rainfall.

Mrs. Nettie Kincaid and daughter, Mrs. P. D. Settlemeier, were in Portland Friday.

Thieves broke into the Columbia high school building Thursday night and stole three typewriters. Entrance was made by breaking a lock on a basement door.

Columbia grange met in regular monthly session December 3 with a fair attendance of members and one visitor, Mrs. Chas. Reed of Hood River. The morning session was taken up with business pertaining to the grange. Noon banquet was served from 12 to 1:30. Balloting for state grange officers and electing officers for Columbia grange for 1928 filled the afternoon session. Mrs. Edith A. Butler was re-elected master. She is a very efficient presiding officer and deserves the support of all the members.

Mrs. Edmonson, who has lived here the past two years caring for her nephews and nieces, the Bundy children, has sold her house and moved to Prosser, Washington. Leon Spyrbeck purchased the Edmonson cottage.

Mrs. Chas. Reed and children of Hood River visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. Arneson, Saturday and Sunday, and incidentally attended Columbia grange.

The friends of Mrs. James Ross will regret to hear of her continued illness.

Geo. Kaleriem Sr., has been at Falls City the past week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Roy Muck.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan is having a fireplace built into her home. Miss Shirley Bundy expects to remain here until the end of the school year, and will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Arneson.

Principal H. L. Moody of Columbian High school is recovering rapidly from his operation and is expected home Sunday.
