

Gresham Locals

Glenwood Miller and his sister Mrs. Earl Clananhan were called to Seaside Tuesday to see Dr. Clananhan who had been threatened with blood poisoning, the result of an infection on his face. It was thought, however, that the danger point of the trouble had passed. Mrs. Clananhan has spent considerable time in Gresham since the death of her mother several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hornecker left last Wednesday for Oakland, California, where they expect to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hornecker.

Mrs. W. L. Stanley and two children arrived on Sunday from Santa Cruz for several weeks' stay with Mrs. Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley and other relatives. Dr. Stanley expects to be here for the holidays.

Mrs. Clara Pulfer is slowly recovering from an illness for the past two weeks with acute erythra, for which she has been treated by a Portland specialist.

Mrs. L. M. Gilbert, formerly Mrs. Vera Tucker, was in Gresham yesterday to look after the arrangements for the occupancy of her farm, the Tuckerhill dahlia place south of Gresham. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bruce Wolverson, and three small boys from the Oregon State Training School for Boys at Woodburn, Oregon, of which Mrs. Gilbert is the matron. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens and son Wilbur, who have been occupying the A. W. Eastop place on Cleveland avenue, will move onto Mrs. Gilbert's place some time this week.

Army Smith left Wednesday morning for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. O. Shaver and Mrs. Elton Eastman are assisting at Hepp's Racket shop during the pre-holiday shopping.

The interior of the Portland Electric Power company office in Gresham has been undergoing a change which greatly improves its appearance and adds more room. The partition separating the private office from the remainder of the room has been removed. Other changes are contemplated in the near future.

Mayor Charles Cleveland was a caller Thursday at Forest Grove attending to business matters.

According to a recent article in a Portland paper, George Dietl of Gresham is erecting a building in Portland. Mr. Dietl says the article cannot refer to him, as he has no building under construction in Portland. He does contemplate the erection of a new building opposite his present place of business as soon as a suitable method of sewerage is provided here. He says he does not know anything about the source of the article that gave him credit for the Portland enterprise.

In speaking of the advisability of running an auto camp during the winter months, Mrs. H. C. Larsen, manager of U-Au-To camp in Gresham, says that during the three years the place has been in operation but one week has elapsed without a renter for a cabin. They now have three campers on the ground. During the past summer Mr. and Mrs. Larsen added five new cabins to those already completed.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Wm. Smith was a Portland visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. G. N. Sager had as dinner guests last Saturday Mrs. Hilma Bort of St. Paul and her sister Mrs. Mary Wenzel of Cannon Falls, Minnesota. Mrs. Bort and Mrs. Wenzel are on their way to California where they expect to spend the winter.

Kenneth Kesterson was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison of Gresham, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand were in Portland on business matters on Tuesday of this week.

L. C. Hollenberg made a business trip to Newberg Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Lehman gave a tea at her home Wednesday for the benefit of the Parent-Teacher association.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Jenne, who have been on the sick list during the past several days, are on the road to recovery.

The Pleasant Valley Grange Social club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the grange hall Saturday night, December 10th.

Henning Paulsen and H. McGowan attended a turkey shoot at Gillis station last Sunday. Mr. Paulsen attested his skill as a marksman by bringing home a fine big turkey and Mr. McGowan succeeded in winning a fat hen.

Children, young people and their parents and friends are invited to attend Sunday school at the church next Sunday. The hour is 10 o'clock.

Pleasant View Avenue

Mrs. Ben Halstead visited Friday with her niece, a patient in the Sellwood hospital.

An enjoyable card party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hornecker. Dancing was participated in and lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harman and children Ray and Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall and children Wayne and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stewart of Lents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ball, Miss Dahlquist and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Trodge.

Mrs. Ben Halstead, Mrs. W. C. Hall, Mrs. H. D. Titzel and Mrs. Glen Harman attended the Parent-Teacher association Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Lehman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Preston moved on Wednesday to their former neighborhood at Springdale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Borges were Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Halstead.
