ADVERTISING

Rates reasonable. Our representative will call. Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

APPRECIATED.

Our friend and former neighbor Upton H. Gibbs, formerly editor of the Eastern Clackamas News at Estacada, says some very kind things in his present paper, the Washougal Record, about the holiday issue of the Outlook.

For refreshments something easy is always best. Then you won't have to worry and can enjoy the fun, too. Waffles always make a hit because everybody seems to like them. It is perfectly proper to make them right at the table if you have an electric waffle iron.

AGAINST NEEDLESS WARS.

In today's Outlook will be found a rather heavy poem which we publish not so much for its poetic quality but in furtherance of the spirit which evidently prompted it.

Fat or Lean?

Good-natured, fat men are likely to be successful in business. They are at the head of big business organizations. Lean, hungry-looking men are the successful political and military leaders of the world.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS.

Come, thou dear Prince—oh, come to us, This holy Christmas time! Come to the busy marts of earth, The quiet homes,

Sent a Box of Mistletoe

to Recall a First Kiss "SIGN on the dotted line, lady," "But are you sure this is for me?"

Uncle Sam As Friend to Friend!

Uncle Sam—Oh, Prince of Riches! Monied King, the nations o'er, Think full deep, pull in your breeches, And attend your neighbors more.

Holiday Hints

New Year Calls—be prepared for them because it's Leap Year. It would be a lot of fun to plan a midnight supper for this special occasion—or maybe you are kind of half expecting company to drop in.

To decorate the table appropriately is important. A clock laid face up and surrounded with mistletoe and holly berries is very impressive. Guests enjoy watching the "minutes to twelve" tear off.

Jelly or jam, syrup, spiced honey or ice cream may be served with them. But as a "special" and if it isn't too much trouble you can serve chicken or turkey hash and cranberry sauce with the waffles.

Another tasty and easy supper could start with a varied assortment of open sandwiches. Different pastes, cheese spread, anchovy paste, nuts ground up and mixed with cream can be used and the little sandwiches cut into fancy shapes.

A fruit salad—grapefruit and bananas marinated and garnished with a spoonful of cranberry jelly, could be served with the sandwiches. Then to finish up a serving of hot steamed pudding, plum pudding or fig pudding with hard sauce would be fine.

Happy New Year, everybody! And I'm hoping to hear from many of you in the New Year. Whenever I can help you with home cooking or plans for entertaining, be sure to write me.

Good time now to get that forgotten present or exchange the misfit—and prices may be a little lower.

No need to wait until New Year's to make that good resolution you thought of at Christmas time.

"The holidays" seems more appropriate this year than usual for out of nine days four may be called holidays.

The unkindest gift of all was the gift of a smoking set to the fellow who had quit smoking.

Highest Authority for Borrowing by Writers

One reads for thought and for quotation not less; if he finds his thought more finely conceived and aptly expressed by another, let him quote without hesitation or apology. He has the highest authority for the practice.

Let nobody insist upon the matter I write, but my method, in writing. Let them observe in what I borrow, if I have known how to choose what is proper to raise or relieve invention, which is always my own, for I make others say for me what, either for want of language or want of sense, I cannot myself well express.

Odd Foods in Many Lands

Crocodile meat is considered a good food by natives of Africa, and southern negroes relish the tails of alligators, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine.
