

Gresham Locals

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. V. Cogswell Wednesday afternoon, January 4. The topic "The Adventure of the Church in America" will be discussed under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Cooper.

Mrs. J. E. Gaskill and two children have joined Mr. Gaskill in Montana where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley, who last summer purchased the Alex. Thompson place of 40 acres about four miles east of Gresham, are now occupying the basement of their residence while the upper part of the house is undergoing extensive repairs. The kitchen is being entirely remodeled, a bath and other plumbing installed and the house made modern throughout. Mr. Cooley is building a new garage and a cement walk is being laid from the road to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Brockway spent Christmas with friends and relatives in Seattle. They returned Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kido, their two children and two grandchildren left Monday for Seattle where they later boarded a Japanese ship for a trip to Japan, where they will visit with aged relatives for several months. The Kido family for some time has occupied the Chas. Cleveland ranch house near his home.

The Rebekah Welfare club will meet Monday afternoon, January 2, at the home of Mrs. A. F. Hoover. Mrs. Gus Donley and Mrs. Annie Beers will have charge of the serving of refreshments.

The Gresham W. C. T. U. has called upon its membership and friends to observe national W. C. T. U. prayer day in their homes on Thursday, January 5. A public observance of the day will be made at an all-day meeting of the W. C. T. U. on January 12, detailed announcement of which will be made later.

Principal R. E. Cannon of Gresham Union high school and C. N. Quicksall, principal of the Gresham grade school, with their respective corps of teachers, are this week attending the sessions of the Oregon State Teachers' association being held in Portland.

W. S. Everett, lineman of the local branch of the Oregon Telephone company, is assisting in the cut-over of lines at Forest Grove, where a new switchboard for the Oregon Telephone company branch at that place is being installed. Mr. Everett is staying at Forest Grove while engaged in his work.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White and daughters ate Christmas dinner at the home of Mr. White's brother in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Gradin have purchased the house formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Botkin on Wallula Heights. The house is now being put in good shape and will be occupied soon. The real estate transaction was handled through B. W. Thorne.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lundquist and three sons were the guests at Christmas dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James of Portland. Monday they enjoyed a trip up the Mt. Hood Loop highway.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridges have purchased the J. E. Gaskill house on Lawrence street and will move into it as soon as arrangements can be made.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Goudy and children, Marian and Robert, of Denver, Colorado, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Goudy's mother, Mrs. Marion Johnson. Other guests at the Johnson home on Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Johnson and sons, David and Webster, of Portland, Oregon.

Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gates were the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Moss of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Gates' son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harold Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lenard and daughters Mary and Margaret were the dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Furrer in Portland.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. A. Zenger enjoyed a merry Christmas reunion at their home on the Barker road near Powell Valley road last Saturday evening when 15 gathered around the family Christmas tree and later partook of a bounteous dinner. Those present besides the parents were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zenger and children Betty Jane and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zenger, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zenger, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zenger, Walter, Alfred and Elmer Zenger.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Svendsen were here for several days this week at the home of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman. They attended the installation of officers of the American Legion Tuesday evening.

MUSHROOMS

VS

TOADSTOOLS

Mushrooms and toadstools look alike. Good and bad insurance policies look the same. There is not much difference in the looks of a good and bad egg until after the egg is broken. Likewise with insurance policies. Good and bad are both good until something breaks—until you are in trouble—then comes the real test. Let us show you the difference.
