COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The funeral of Mrs. Minnie Gaudlitz of Springdale took place Sunday afternoon at the Columbia grange hall and was largely attended. The Rev. H. H. Koppelman of the Zion Lutheran church of Portland and a lifelong friend of the family, conducted the service, and a male quartet from the same church sang. Mrs. Gaudlitz is survived by her widower, who is in the old soldiers' home at Roseburg, and her sons, Fred, Albert and William Salzman. Mrs. Gaudlitz took ill very suddenly and died at the home of her youngest son William. The late Mr. Salzman who died ten years ago, with his wife took up a timber claim near Brower nearly 40 years ago. This they sold later and bought the 80-acre ranch near the highway here, putting up a fine house and barn and spending about 20 years there farming. All of her three sons graduated from the old schoolhouse, known as the Upper Latourell or Mountain school, and later attended the Zion Lutheran Bible school in Portland and all were confirmed by the Rev. Mr. Koppelman. The widower and sons have the sympathy of everyone in the community. Mrs. Gaudlitz was laid to rest in the Pioneer cemetery near the grange hall by the side of her first husband. Mrs. P. Andersen, who had the privilege of knowing the late Mrs. Gaudlitz for the past 25 years, says, "I shall always remember her as a sweet and gentle mother and a loyal follower of the Lutheran faith."

Fred Ough was taken to the hospital last Friday with an attack of pneumonia, principal of Columbia high school, is now much improved and has been able to resume high school.

Julius Meier, who is spending the winter in San Francisco, made a hurried trip to Portland a week ago and spent Sunday at Menucha. Mr. Meier found everything in shipshape after the recent storm.

Mrs. Anna Benfield and Orland Zeek drove to Lebanon last week and spent some time with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Arneson of Corbett spent Sunday afternoon at Columbia View farm.

Lawrence W. Andersen was at home Sunday visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Andersen.

Miss Anna Etling, who teaches at Mt. Waikie, and Fred Etling, attending Heinke-Walker business college, were home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks and little daughter were at the home of Mr. Hicks' mother a few days last week. Mr. Hicks has a filling station on the Mt. Hood Loop highway.

CORBETT

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sacry of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Reed Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Reed and daughter, Mrs. A. B. Fox of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the Lewis Bratley home.

The game of basketball Tuesday evening between Hill Military academy and Corbett resulted in a score of 19 to 22 in favor of the academy.

Mesdames Ethel Smith Stewart and M. Beggs and Miss Herbs of Portland motored out the highway as far as Multnomah falls to view the huge snow and ice banks that have been cut through recently by the county's large snow plows and other equipment.

The Rev. Mr. Hanna will preach at the Corbett community church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school will begin at 10:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.
