Multnomah Grange Holds Session; Elects

Multnomah grangers had an unusually busy day last Saturday. A large crowd of members and visitors held an interesting day session in their hall at Orient, and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Master, M. H. Wheeler; overseer, Lucinda Wheeler; lecturer, Mary G. Fritz; steward, Max Kligel; assistant steward, John Sleret; chaplain, Amanda Byron; treasurer, Sarah Wheeler; secretary, Bertha Ault; gatekeeper, C. A. Wheeler; Ceres, Margaret Wheeler; Pomona, Ursa Sleret; Flora, Louise M. Nelson; lady assistant steward, Mary Kligel; executive committee member, Max Kligel; H. E. C. chairman, L. M. Nelson. In the evening these officers with other members were guests of Damascus grange at Boring, where the officers of both organizations were duly installed by Brother John Chitwood who put on the work in a dignified and impressive manner. Following these exercises all were entertained by the Sandy band in charge of Principal Orr of Sandy high school and refreshments served to the large crowd present. Among the visitors at Multnomah grange were, T. J. Kreuder of Lents grange and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson and daughter Harriett and Oscar Borde of Damascus grange. J. A. Albel was also a welcome guest at his home grange, having been away for some time on his ranch some miles west of Sheridan.
