Base Line Boosters Plan Plate Dinner

The regular meeting of the Base Line Improvement association will be held at Jack and Jill's place on the Base Line road near Barker road, next Monday night, February 13, at 7:30 p. m. where a plate dinner will be served at 50 cents per plate. This is planned as a great get-together and get acquainted meeting, and as this is the first meeting of this kind the club has had it is hoped that there will be a big crowd. There will be a very enjoyable program. Monty Lepper, former secretary of the East Side Commercial club, will speak on the general development of the east side. George L. Rutledge will speak on home beautification. The Jacobsen quartet will be presented through the courtesy of the Jacobsen company, morticians, of 9106 Foster road. There will also be violin solos by Miss Audrey-Dale Fellows, with Mrs. Maude L. Landes at the piano. After this program the general business of the meeting will be taken up and the committee will be named for this year, as this is the first meeting since election of officers. "Meet me at Jack and Jill's next Monday night" will be the slogan of club members and friends.

Local Grown Crops Advertised.

The Outlook's attention has been called to the fact that a well-known chain store with headquarters in Portland is running in its advertising reference to the products obtained in this locality. Burbank potatoes, cabbages, carrots and rutabagas grown near Gresham are especially featured. Among the local growers who furnish these products are the Staffanson Brothers, who grow high-grade potatoes. This is a commendable practice which calls attention to the products of the community.
