POWELL VALLEY

The concert rendered Sunday afternoon in the Saron Lutheran church by 35 members of the Immanuel Lutheran chorus of Portland was given before a packed house. In the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Enoch Sandeen, who was at Roseburg, Mrs. Sandeen took charge of the program. The cantata, "The King All Glorious" was beautifully rendered and well received. Miss Lillian Swanson and Mrs. William Skans sang the soprano roles, Mrs. David Lofgren the contralto and Mr. Dahl the tenor. The blending of voices was perfect and the climax unusually beautiful. At the close of the program delicious refreshments were served to those present. A good offering was given which will be used for the benefit of the church building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Read and family attended the wedding Friday night in Portland at the Wesleyan Methodist church of a friend of the Read family, Miss Mary Canfield, who was married to Gordon Mann.

The Misses Winona and Lola Read gave a valentine party at their home Saturday night at which eight guests were present. They were Miss Anna Lind, Miss Olivia Andrensen, Miss Gladys Nelson, Howard Hopper, Edmund West, Louis Hodgdon, of Newberg, Glen Anguish of Portland, and Melvin Magnuson. Games and refreshments made up a pleasant evening.

The Powell Valley Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday evening, February 17, at the schoolhouse. A mixed program is being prepared consisting of music and other numbers. This will follow the business session, and later refreshments will be served.

CORBETT

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodie were hosts at a family dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Woodie's sister, Mrs. Lela Lasley Thompson of Palo Alto, California, who arrived Thursday to visit her sisters here. Those present besides the host and hostess and three daughters were Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Salzman and Ray Lasley. Mrs. Thompson was formerly principal of Columbian high and is now engaged in the ministry.
