Local Grange Wires Protest to Korrell

The Gresham Grange, in regular session last Saturday, passed resolutions protesting against the proposed appropriation by congress of a vast sum of money to enlarge the naval program of the country. It was believed that the act would aggravate trouble rather than deter war, and that the cost would be an unnecessary addition to an already overburdened people.

The grange had an interesting program for the day. The first and second degrees were conferred on candidates at the morning session. In the afternoon a public installation of officers was held by Mrs. Jessie Millar. The presentation of the provision of the McNary-Haugen bill by D. E. Towle was thorough and interesting. The text of the resolution which was wired to Representative Korrell is as follows:

Whereas, congress is about to consider an enormous appropriation in order to possess the largest navy in the world, and,

Whereas, recently in his annual message the president stated that our navy was surpassed by none and,

Whereas, we feel that it would aggravate trouble, rather than deter war and,

Whereas, we are already overburdened with taxes, be it

Resolved, that Gresham Grange in regular session this 11th day of February, 1928, protest against the two and a half billion dollar naval program, and urge our representatives to use their influence against the measure.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Five high school seniors, Edna Burlingame, Mabel Smith, Margaret St. Clair, Linden Lunday and Eugene Davis, with a member of the faculty, W. K. Gowan, left for Corvallis this morning where they will attend today and tomorrow the annual educational exposition which began Thursday evening at the Oregon State college. This event is planned each year in the interests of high school students who wish to choose a college home in the pursuit of higher education.

The cast has now been selected for the junior class play, "The House of a Thousand Thrills", which will be presented at the high school gymnasium on the evenings of March 8 and 9.

The baseball field is now being put into proper condition for the annual diamond contests, the complete schedule of which will be announced later.

MULTNOMAH CAMP HAS BENEFIT PARTY

A big '49 party and industrial celebration is being held this week, ending Saturday night, at the beautiful building of Multnomah Camp No. 77 Woodmen of the World at East Sixth and Alder in Portland. This will be for the benefit of the camp's relief fund, through which needy members are aided during sickness or distress.

The decorations and attractions will be in keeping with the typical western town of '49, and will be a source of much merriment. There will be a kangaroo court, wrestling matches and other games, and booths of all kinds.

Multnomah Camp has many members in the Gresham territory who will attend the celebration, which is also in honor of the 37th anniversary of the organization.

WOMEN GIVE PLEDGE OF DRY SUPPORT

Those attending the National W. C. T. U. conference held at Portland on Tuesday and Wednesday, report most profitable and enthusiastic meetings.

It was unanimously resolved by the conference to submit the following plank to political parties:

"We pledge ourselves to carry out the provisions of the national prohibition act, to place enforcement in the hands of its undoubted friends and to support such other legislation as may be necessary to secure full benefit of the prohibition law."

Members of Gresham Union in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Honey, Mesdames W. F. Honey, H. S. Clow, Frank Peak, C. O. Horning, B. W. Emery, E. B. Kirkwood, Hattie Wolfe, M. J. Allshouse, H. C. Larsen, W. T. Hensley, L. P. Manning, W. Beegle, C. G. Fancher, Jas. Sterling, N. R. Landis, W. J. Cooper, Geo. Metzger, Marian Johnson, and Alice Robinson, Miss Maude Aldrich, Miss Cora Green and Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

Outlook Announces 4th Cooking School

The housewives of Gresham and vicinity will be delighted to know that arrangements have been made for the fourth annual free cooking school to be held under the auspices of the Gresham Outlook at the Methodist church on Tuesdays and Thursdays, February 28, March 1, 6 and 8.

Rose Bartlett, who has made herself popular with Gresham housekeepers by her seemingly unlimited fund of advice along culinary lines, will demonstrate the latest methods of modern cookery. Mrs. Bartlett is employed by the Portland Gas & Coke company as home service director.

No enrollment is necessary to secure the advantages of the four-day session of the classes, but it is wise to plan the housework and other home affairs so as to be on hand early for a good seat. The first gathering of the school will be on Tuesday afternoon, February 28, at 2:30 sharp.

LEGION CARD PARTY VOTED GREAT SUCCESS

The American Legion and Auxiliary card party given Tuesday evening at the Walter Metzger Buick salesroom was an unprecedented success. More than 175 persons were present to enjoy the progressive bridge and 500 card games, 40 tables of which were played. Nothing like the splendid turnout was anticipated and the event from a social standpoint alone is outstanding.

First honors in 500 were awarded Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Leslie St. Clair, and in bridge to Mrs. E. Giberson and Burten Walrad. The gifts for the ladies were nests of six mixing bowls and for the gentlemen smoking sets. Much credit for this affair must be given Walter Metzger who generously donated the use of his ample showroom for the occasion.

A similar party will be held at the same place on Wednesday evening, March 21. All proceeds of these parties will be used for the benefit of the Legion and its auxiliary.

Methodist Choir Given Valentine Treat.

Mrs. H. H. Ott entertained the choir of the Methodist church Friday evening of last week with a delightful St. Valentine party at which 20 were present. Games were played, and solo numbers rendered by Mrs. Mary Dodge and Dr. George Mallett and a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Cooper. Dainty refreshments were served in which the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Dodge, Miss Helen Rogers and Miss Amy Cooper. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Jones, the Rev. and Mrs. H. V. Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorensen, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher, Mrs. Elsie Cogswell, Miss Winnifred Osburn, Dr. George Mallett and Dr. H. H. Ott.

Kruger's Plucky Quint Yields Game to Hill

(By Benj. H. Davies)

Playing against overwhelming odds Kruger's heretofore unbeaten quintet lost Tuesday night's game to Hill Military academy's super squad by a 37-10 score.

The locals scored first with Okuda behind the ball. Further progress by Union high was blocked in this quarter by Hill's perfect machine work. McKy, 208-pound marvel of accurate shooting, supported by crack teammates located the hoop six times from the field and once from the foul line. Squire set Gresham forward two points leaving this quarter with Hill 13-4.

Three foul shots marked Gresham's gain to four points for the military in the following quarter, with Gresham's more effectively guarding. Although the home team used every strategy known to the game little headway could be made against the heavier team and the beginning of the second half saw the embryo soldiers ahead 7-3. From this point the local defense weakened. Okuda having injured his wrist in a fall taken in an effort to secure the ball in mid-air, went to the bench. Hill surged forward and during the final quarter kept the scrappy locals from winning. Hill gained 11 points in this clash.

The lineup follows:
Gresham 10 Hill 37
Okuda (6).....(6) Turner
Speth.....(19) Lawson
Squire (3).....(19) McKy
Satterstrom (1).....Loos
Timmerman.....(3) Coe
Lindrooth.....8
Referee, Al. French.

Loss of this game blocks Union high's further advance in the tournament but were it to lose the balance of the scheduled games an enviable record has been already established.

The second team lost the preliminary game to Hill's junior squad 14-10, but, as in the main game, were opposed by life-sized players. The fans who saw this game got a great thrill from watching Jennings, Barnes, Nass and others in action. Great stuff is seen in this lineup for next year's squad.

In the final award of merits we hope the yell kings, Bill Ott and Ralph Quicksall, are not forgotten. No one ever worked harder for victory than Bill who directed cheer after cheer for the team.

Tonight the squad goes to Corbett for a return game.

Baptist Young People Present De Moss Family.

America's most widely known and famous musical family, the De Moss entertainers, will favor the people of Gresham and vicinity with a high class musical concert on Thursday evening, March 8, under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Union of the Bethel Baptist church. The members of this world famous family of musicians are natives of Oregon. They have visited the principal cities of Europe, England, Canada and the United States a number of times in presenting their musical concerts. They hold the record of having traveled more miles and given more concerts than any other musical family in the world. Lovers of high class entertainment will do well to reserve the above date for the De Moss entertainers.

Church Services

GRESHAM TEMPLE SERVICES ANNOUNCED

Preaching services at the Un-denominational temple will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and in the evening beginning at 7:30. The pastor, the Rev. S. F. Pitts, will preach. Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m.

Prayer meeting will be held on Tuesday evening and young people's Bible study on Friday evening. All are invited to attend these services.

The opening service at Portland last Sunday evening was well attended and a goodly number identified themselves as wishing to join in the new work there. The meetings there will be held Sunday mornings at 11 o'clock hereafter.

LENTEN SERVICES BEING PLANNED

Services at the Evangelical church will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. The sermon topic will be, "Bartimeus—A Blind Beggar." This will be a pre-lenten service which will be of help to the serious-minded worshipper in preparing for the lenten season which will begin on Washington's birthday. Beginning with Sunday evening, February 26, special lenten services will be held in the church at 8 o'clock. All people in the community not attending church elsewhere are cordially invited to our services.

BOOK OF JOSHUA TOPIC OF SERMON

Services in the Baptist church next Sunday will be held at the regular hours. The Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m. At the morning church service the pastor will conclude a series of sermons on the first six books of the Old Testament. The topic for next Sunday morning will be, "The Meaning and Message of the Book of Joshua." The young people's meeting under the leadership of W. K. Gowan will begin at 6:30. The topic will be "Honoring the Home." The subject of the evening sermon will be, "Getting the Right Start."

HELPFUL DAY PLANNED AT METHODIST CHURCH

The morning sermon as announced for next Sunday at the Methodist church will be on Christianity in its relation to ordinary, everyday living. It is entitled, "Open-Eyed Champions of Jesus." The service planned for the evening hour will be quite out of the ordinary. The story of the healing of Bartimeus will be presented in alternate story and song. The latter will be by both congregation and choir and by soloists. The orchestra will again delight the congregation with their music.

The Sunday school at 10 o'clock offers opportunity for Bible and character study that no one can afford to miss. There are classes for everyone.

The topic for the Epworth League, meeting at 6:30, is "In His Steps." Miss Dolores Baker leads the meeting.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann returned Wednesday from a three-days' auto trip to Seattle and Everett, Washington, where they accompanied the Rev. C. Hoffman of Portland on official business of the Washington mission district.

Shell Oil Location Is Still Uncertain

Wanted, a suitable location for the Shell Oil company's storage plant. Must be along the electric line and far enough removed from residence property to not be remonstrated against as a menace or a cause of depreciation to property values.

The location of the Shell Oil storage tanks and distributing plant for this territory has become a problem since the presentation to the council on Wednesday night of a remonstrance signed by many property owners and residents in the vicinity of the proposed location east of the Beaver State motor factory.

The company had acquired a small irregular tract north of Division street and several blocks west of Main street, where the old portion of the Section Line road approaches the P. E. P. company's right of way. Work had commenced on the ground in preparation for the plant, and material was being assembled. The tract is in the city limits.

The company's representatives had applied to the council for a permit which was granted on February 1. This was probably a formality as it is said the city has no ordinance regulating the location of such a plant, providing it does not become a fire hazard.

Among the objectors are Elton Eastman, Claud, Elvis and Loda Stockton, W. J. Cooper, Frank Hamlin, Roger Newcombe, W. R. Becker and A. McManus, whose residences are a short distance from the oil company's tract. More than 60 persons signed the demonstration, many of them farther removed from the tract in question, but who think the presence of the yellow tanks and buildings would depreciate the residence value of their property.

Following the council meeting on Wednesday night the company ceased work and on Thursday the Shell company's representative, Mr. Ketcham, was shown various other possible locations by Mayor Cleveland.

A site adjoining the Union Oil plant in east Gresham was investigated but it was found to be practically inaccessible. Another tract viewed seemed to meet the conditions. It is located east of the cannery, close to the electric line and Cleveland avenue. It is owned by the Berry Growers Packing company.

Whether serious objection would be made by property owners to the last mentioned location had not developed up to last night and what the oil company will decide to do appears uncertain. A few persons gathered at the city hall last night thinking the council would meet but no meeting was held.

WELL KNOWN EDUCATOR DIES IN PORTLAND

J. E. Calavan, more or less known to residents of Gresham and vicinity through his varied activities in connection with educational work, died in Portland sanitarium Thursday, February 9, following an operation. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from a Portland undertaking chapel, with interment following in Lincoln Memorial park.

Mr. Calavan for eight years had been superintendent of boys' and girls' club work for the state, in which position he was connected with the state department of education. For a number of years he was superintendent of Clackamas county schools and in 1924 ran for the office of superintendent of schools in Multnomah county. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Oregon City.

The deceased is survived by his widow, a daughter Mrs. S. E. Cantrell of Klamath Falls, a sister and three brothers.
