said an English contemporary,
"will be in the appreciation of the character of Washington."
By this true test, mankind is ever marching forward.
Everywhere, the peoples of the world today honor the memory of Washington.
Everywhere, those who have freedom and those who seek it, are insisting upon his ideal of "the practice of a virtuous policy" that the end and purpose of all Governments may be "the aggregate happiness of society."
His influence lives on through the years. His words and his deeds are ever an inspiration to forward-looking peoples.
