ADVERTISING Rates reasonable. Our representative will call.

Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the State Editorial Association. Member of the National Editorial Association.

The Oregon State Motor association and the Portland Better Business bureau have united in their efforts to protect the motorists and automotive businesses of this state against "gyp" motor clubs which prey upon the public, usually promising much but delivering little for the money they called. They are on a different footing altogether from our own state organization, officered by Oregon men and having every interest of the state at heart. At the same time membership in the state organization gives one affiliation with motor organization of other states and the National A. A. A.

The state highway department has secured control of all the land bordering on the Columbia River highway between Hood River and Mosier. This is in keeping with the highway department's policy to protect the scenic highways and save parkites and scenic views.

Col. Chas. Lindberg has flown many thousands of miles without an accident. It is hinted that perhaps an element of his safety was the fact that he had no one sitting in the back seat telling him how to drive.

BORING

At the last regular meeting of the Boring L. O. O. F. lodge three candidates were taken into the lodge. After the degree work, a clam feed was enjoyed. Some visiting brothers from the Gresham lodge were present. The Boring lodge is a wide awake lodge and the membership is making a steady increase. George Tacheron, a charter member, now living in Gresham, was present to participate in the work.

At the last meeting of the school board L. H. Mallicoat was elected as principal of the school for the year '28 and '29. Mr. Mallicoat has held this position for the past 12 years.

Robert Jones and family have moved from near Cherryville to their new home one and a half miles south of Boring. Mr. Jones purchased 20 acres of A. B. Johnston.

Week-end visitors at the home of L. H. Mallicoat were Mrs. Mallicoat's brother-in-law, The Boring lodge is a wide awake lodge and the membership is making a steady increase. George Tacheron, a charter member, now living in Gresham, was present to participate in the work.

At the last report H. A. Beck was somewhat improved. Mr. Beck is at a Portland hospital.

Mrs. Fritz Staeger was on the sick list last week.

Mrs. James Imiel who has been in very poor health for some time, has not been quite so well the past week.

L. H. Mallicoat was an Oregon City visitor on Saturday.

Ray Naas, who has been clerking at the W. R. Telford store for a number of years, has accepted a position with the Union Oil company. He took up his duties on Thursday.

A hay haler is at work at the Boring dairy, baling hay in preparation for the big sale of February 25.

H. J. Lau is driving a new Chevrolet roadster.

Arthur Potratz has a contract for clearing land on the Jasper Dugger place.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lund at their home in Portland on February 11.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Miss Frances Hamilton, who has been ill for nearly a month, passed away Saturday evening at the home of her lifelong friend, Mrs. Jasper Crane. Miss Hamilton, whose health had not been satisfactory for some time past, suffered a stroke of paralysis a short time ago. She was one of Portland's old teachers and had given almost 40 years to her profession. She retired from her life work last summer and came to make her home at Cranecraze, a beautiful place with a magnificent view overlooking the Columbia river and the snow-peaked mountains. Here she found rest and happiness. She died without suffering, passing out as peacefully as if she were taking a natural sleep.

Mrs. A. Stuart of Latourelle, who was ill last week, is now well and able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Crowston of Pasadena, California, arrived here for a few days' stay at the home of Mrs. Crowston's mother, Mrs. L. Benfield. The Crowstons are on their way to their wheat ranch in Canada, where they expect to spend part of the summer.

G. Perry of Manucha, who has been at the Portland sanitarium for some time, came home Saturday and is now feeling fine.

Roy J. Anderson of Portland spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Andersen. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen went back to The Dalles Friday after a short stay on their ranch at Sandy.

Mrs. John Larsen of Springdale arrived home a few days ago after spending some time in California. Her health is much better and she reports a grand time.
