

Gresham Locals

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen drove to Sheridan Sunday where they visited with the latter's brother, J. F. Wilmarth, who has been very sick. At Portland they stopped and took with them Mr. Wilmarth's son Morris and family. The sick man is now improved and well on the road to recovery.

Howard Chalker of Oakland, California, arrived yesterday for a visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chalker and friends in Portland.

Friends S. C. Jones will be grieved to learn of his serious illness at the Portland Surgical hospital, where he underwent a major operation last Tuesday morning. Although he is very low, the doctors still have hopes of his recovery. A slight improvement for the better was noted in his condition late yesterday afternoon. No one is admitted to the sick room.

The cornerstone for the Evangelical Sunday school hall and temporary place of worship will be laid at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. The stone was donated by M. C. Martin and W. E. Fuller, contractors. The public is cordially invited.

Alex. Thompson of the Kane road east of Gresham served on the jury in the circuit court during February.

The Tri-Y girls of the high school went to Milwaukie high school on Tuesday afternoon of last week, where they put on the Girl Reserve ceremonial.

All the household goods and farm implements on the J. W. McCulloch place east of Gresham were sold at public auction on last Saturday. A. H. McCulloch, who has been here since the death of his father three months ago expects to return in a few days to his home in Los Angeles. J. W. McCulloch will live for the present with his sister, Mrs. Laura Sunderland in Portland. The plan is to lease the 80-acre farm.

Mrs. Burt Northrup had the misfortune to break the small bone of her right leg near the ankle on Sunday morning. With her children she was walking down the hill from Gresham Heights to Sunday school, when she slipped and slightly turned her ankle, causing the fracture. The boys came for help and Mrs. Northrup was soon in the care of a physician. She is now at the home of her father, G. A. Cox, where she expects to remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spencer have purchased the W. J. Ott 3/4-acre tract on Division street, west of the W. L. Gorsage property. This tract is admirably located, just within the Gresham city limits, and will make a most desirable building site. They plan to build there later in the spring and make it their future home. The deal was negotiated through E. W. Thorne.

Charlie Erickson, whose home is at Hermosa Beach, California, suffered a fractured leg Friday while at work with the Bent, Brothers construction company at the new dam above Bull Run. A work train on which Erickson was employed jumped the track, causing the injury to his leg. A Red Cross ambulance coach brought the man to Gresham where his leg was set by a local surgeon.

The G. U. H. S. basketball team, accompanied by Principal Cannon and Coach Kruger, will play two coast teams over the coming week-end, at Philomath on Friday evening and at Waldport on Saturday evening. This will conclude the basketball season as far as Gresham is concerned.

Among the pleasant coming events of this week will be the De-Moss entertainment at the Baptist church on Thursday evening and the junior class play at the high school gymnasium on Thursday and Friday evenings.

F. O. Bowlsby and family, who have been occupying the John Bliss ranch east of the Twelve-mile corners, have moved to Portland. The 56-acre ranch has now been leased to Joe Anderegk who, with his family, has taken possession. Three of the Anderegk children yesterday morning enrolled at the Gresham high school. Mr. Bliss, who keeps his ranch in excellent condition, has recently installed a new pump to take the place of a worn one in the electric pumping plant which has been in use on the farm for a long time.

G. W. Klavenaugh, who has operated a barber shop in the Brown building for nearly a year past, has disposed of his equipment to N. C. Pearson of Portland who has been assisting him for several weeks past. Mr. Pearson plans to open a new shop in Portland soon and will use the chairs and other equipment purchased from the Gresham shop. Klavenaugh expects to leave this week for Lewiston, Idaho, where he will assume the management of a barbering establishment which he owns there. En route he will visit relatives in Seattle and Spokane.

Upon hearing that their daughter, Mrs. Lillian Young was ill at her home in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miller and children in Gresham arranged a few evenings ago to surprise her with a long distance telephone call. The connection was made very satisfactorily at the Miller home through the local exchange, each member of the family taking turns in conversing with Mrs. Young.

Among the questions to be discussed at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. to be held at the Gresham library on Thursday afternoon will be "Why do the wets want to elect the next president?" Arguments used against the 18th amendment will be answered, current events will be discussed, and a Union Signal quiz will take place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland were agreeably surprised at their home Wednesday evening by a group of friends who gathered in honor of Mayor Cleveland's birthday. A pleasant social time was enjoyed.

Richard H. Johnson arrived recently from Yakima, Washington, and has taken over the Triple "A" Service station on West Powell street, owned by J. C. Shultz. The station for several months past has been in charge of James and George McAllister. Mr. Johnson plans to inaugurate a special service in oiling, chassis lubrication and battery needs. He is the son of Mrs. Marion Johnson and will reside at the Johnson home.

Mrs. James Sterling has received the information of the death at Los Angeles on February 28 of her brother, Edward T. Conkle. Mr. Conkle was one of the best known newspaper men in the United States, according to a news item from a Los Angeles paper. He was dean of the United Press association, being one of the oldest employees in point of service. For a number of years he was central division manager for the United Press, with headquarters in Chicago. At the time of his retirement about a year ago he was superintendent of bureaus of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Christensen of Bridal Veil are the proud parents of a 9-pound son born to them this morning at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong. The baby has been named Chester Eugene.

The news has been received of the marriage of Miss Violet Langford, a former Gresham Union high school student, to Vernon P. Hansen of Portland. The ceremony was performed yesterday in Portland. Mrs. Hansen is the daughter of Mrs. L. Jensen who lives near Welch's spur.

Mrs. Dan Clingsmith of Newton, Kansas, is the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hunt. Mrs. Clingsmith has been spending the winter at Eagle Creek, Oregon, with her son, Lyle Conner. She is a lifelong friend of Mrs. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad entertained on Tuesday evening the store staff of workers at their home. The evening was enjoyably spent in games, followed by refreshments.

The officers of Gresham Grange have issued a call for their members to meet at the hall on Thursday evening to practice for third and fourth degree team work to be used Saturday morning in the initiation of four candidates. This will be in connection with the regular all-day meeting of the grange held that day. An interesting program is being arranged by Grange Lecturer George Honey. This program will begin at 2 o'clock and is open to the public. Among other things will be a discussion on the proposed $3 automobile license.

H. W. Strong telephoned today from his recently acquired farm near Estacada that he is planting 130 acres of walnuts and has 39 men employed at the work.

Mrs. Annie Wold was most kindly remembered on the occasion of her 55th birthday last Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Maloy. She received many nice presents and flowers. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Wold, Mrs. Maloy, the Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann, Mrs. F. Volbrecht, Mrs. Charles Hansen, Mrs. J. F. Whetstone, Caroline Whetstone, Mrs. Hans Sloan, Ruby Sloan, Mrs. D. L. McKillican, Betty McKillican, Helen Mack, Mrs. Jerome Cockle, Mrs. Alfred Hammar and Regina Hammar.

Mrs. A. J. W. Brown is ill at her home with a severe attack of grip.

Greatest Values ever offered
in Coal Burning Brooders
Buckeye coal-burning brooders
The improved Buckeye Coal-Burning Brooder gives you the most outstanding values ever offered. It saves you money. It gives you larger stoves and bigger hovers to care for your chicks. It gives you a brooder you can depend upon in extremely cold weather. It gives you a brooder you won't have to continually watch—a brooder you won't have to refuel frequently. Here are the facts.
It holds more coal. It burns soft coal or hard coal for a longer time with one fueling. It gives more heat. The thermostatically controlled double-check draft controls the fire with 50% greater efficiency. The fire doesn't go out. It doesn't go down and let your chicks get chilled. It doesn't overheat. The new Revolving Hover saves time and work. Come in and see the Buckeye Coal-Burning Brooder.

Colonic Irrigation
With this apparatus the doctor removes the cesspools in the colon that are the basic cause of constipation, gall stones, catarrh, female troubles, etc. This treatment is followed by specific electrical applications to the weak places as revealed by X-Ray studies. Time and cost to restore health in most chronic and acute illnesses has been reduced over half by modern methods in Physiotherapy. We are conducting an educational campaign on our advanced methods.
A physiotherapy aide from this office will be at the home of Miss Elva Dolan, on Main street opposite the public library, Thursday afternoon and evening, March 8. Feel free to talk with her. No formality or obligation.
At 8 p. m. a Drugless Physician, a Specialist, will give a short informal talk to women only, illustrated with X-ray pictures and colored charts. Come and learn the truth.
