NEWS FROM MANY NEIGHBORHOODS

PLEASANT HOME

The Methodist Ladies Aid meeting at the home of Mrs. John Ickler Wednesday afternoon was very much enjoyed by those present. Six new members were added to the membership list.

W. E. Markell made a business trip to Portland Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz, Mrs. W. E. Markell, and Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Gill made a brief pilgrimage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Haworth of the Kelso community late Thursday afternoon.

Another busy day is planned by the Methodists for Sunday, March 11. The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock with W. B. Cory in charge. The church service will begin at 11:15 with the pastor, the Rev. Oliver Gill in charge. The junior choir will furnish the special music. There will be a story as usual. The pastor's subject for the morning sermon will be: "Is Church-Going Needful?" The combined church and Sunday school boards will hold a brief meeting following the morning service. The young people's devotional service will be at 7 o'clock with Arthur Carlson leading. The topic for discussion will be, "The Second Mile." There will be an evening service in the church at 8 o'clock with a special number of music. The pastor will discuss the question, "Are the Forces of Evil Prevailing?" The interest in the services of this church is growing as is indicated by the increased attendance. A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to all who are not planning to attend elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell entertained the Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Gill at dinner Wednesday evening.

E. D. Kellogg, who suffered a stroke two weeks ago, is slowly improving. He has regained the partial use of his left hand and arm and his friends are hoping for his ultimate recovery.

S. Springer has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Macalister and Mrs. Brower are recovering from an attack of flu.

Spring is coming, birds are singing, crocuses, daffodils and violets are dotted over the yards, helping all to forget the long winter.

J. F. Brower is trying to forget how to drive a Ford and is learning to drive a Buick, a recent purchase.

Mr. Rybnick has been working most of the winter building a fine tractor. It is nearing completion and will be a very useful machine on a farm.
