Gresham Locals

A musical program will be given at the Methodist church on Friday evening, March 23, under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Miss Frances Notz of Portland will assist in the program with readings.

In spite of the inclement weather Saturday there was a fair attendance at the all-day session of the grange. At the lecture hour Jacob Feser of the Mountain View Floral company was present and gave a most instructive lecture on rose culture, illustrated by stereopticon slides of a number of popular Little Miss Jean Godbey of Pleasant Valley, a Journal Junior and singer over radio KFJR, sang. Fred Jennings, a rising young cornetist, gave two pleasing selections, accompanied at the piano by Irvin Lundquist.

J. R. Babcock, who has been severely ill for several days with an attack of grip, is reported as convalescing.

Ed. Lewis, of the Lewis & Son auto stages operating between Portland and Gresham, is again ill in a Portland hospital. Some weeks ago he was operated on for appendicitis and had resumed his work as driver of one of the busses, when he was forced to return to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gorsage and family were surprised Saturday afternoon by a visit from their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bing and son Halbert of San Francisco, who were returning south from a business trip to Longview, Washington, made by automobile. Halbert arrived at an opportune time to enjoy the birthday party being given Kathryn and Charles Gorsage that afternoon.

Perry Kitzmiller underwent an operation last Friday at Willamette hospital in Salem for the removal of an ulcer from the stomach. He is reported to be getting along well. Mr. Kitzmiller's wife and mother are at his bedside. The Gresham grange, of which he is a member, remembered him a few days ago with a gift of beautiful flowers.

The home economics club of the Gresham grange will meet at the home of Mrs. John Ed Roberts on Friday afternoon, March 16. Mrs. John Sleret and Mrs. Theodore Brugger will assist the hostess. A full attendance of grange ladies is desired.

Mrs. Nellie Roberts was taken to Portland sanitarium Saturday and the following morning underwent an operation for gallstones. She is resting easily and her condition is considered satisfactory.

Mrs. Oscar Wallin was given a surprise party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dunlop in Rockwood, near which place the Wallin family formerly lived. About 60 guests were invited to enjoy the events of the afternoon, which included a program of musical numbers, followed by dainty refreshments. Mrs. Wallin received a number of beautiful gifts.

William Mueller of Lake Grove, Oregon, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Marie Mueller.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gorsage was the scene of a merry birthday party Saturday afternoon in celebration of the 11th birthday of their twin son and daughter, Charles and Kathryn Gorsage. On account of the rain, the pleasures of the day were enjoyed indoors—musical and other games forming the main diversions. Two beautiful birthday cakes were part of the refreshments served. Mrs. Gorsage was assisted by Mrs. A. M. Sherman and Mrs. A. McManus. Those present were Curtis Johnson, John Sherman, Margaret Wilhelm, Russell Akin, Pearl Stanley, Bobbie Schneider, Eva and Wesley Weintz, Cleo McMurtry, Freddie Lovegren, Roger Kidder, Helen Kilgore, Junior and Betty St. Clair, Herbert Griggs, Eleanor Beers, Juanita Adams, Mildred and Lucile Kaser, Loretta Dahl and Halbert Bing.

Mrs. Alfred Hammar was happily surprised at her home Saturday evening in honor of her birthday. A delightful social time was spent and refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hammar and daughter Regina, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Jones and son Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Blom and Mrs. Blom's mother Mrs. Catherine Ahlquist, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and son Marvin, Mrs. Martha Fieldhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fieldhouse.

Mrs. George Moffitt, Miss Annie Moffitt and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boring of Portland were noted among the audience present Friday evening at the junior class play.

Miss Esther Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zenger drove to Salem Sunday where they visited with the parents of Mrs. Zenger and Miss Peterson. A joint celebration was held in honor of the birthdays of the latter and her brother Ernest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cooper visited their daughter Miss Dorothy Cooper at McMinnville Sunday.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lane were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Snodgrass of Everett, Washington, who visited two days at the Lane home while on their way to California to visit relatives. Mrs. Mary Menane came from Portland Friday and attended the junior play that evening with Mrs. Lane.

A rather unusual accident befell Dr. A. W. Botkin's car window yesterday when a rock hurled from the tire of a passing car struck it full force, completely shattering the glass.

Definite word has been received from Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, that she will be in Multnomah county March 19-24, and that on Thursday afternoon, March 22, she will meet the club members at the Gresham grade school from 1 to 3:30 o'clock. Miss Cowgill is a most enthusiastic worker in club affairs and her visit here will be welcomed by the boys and girls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Green, of Robinson, Oregon, arrived Sunday to visit for a month with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carothers, who recently moved to Gresham. They may decide to make this locality their permanent home.

An 8½-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson Sunday morning at the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman. The baby has been named Louis Robert in honor of the grandfathers, Louis Racine, and the late R. J. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is employed at the Ridge Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cox came from El Centro, California, on Monday of last week and visited until the following Saturday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cox. They were accompanied by Howard Power from California. The party of three, with Mrs. L. D. Calkins, have now gone to Wahkacus, Washington, where the men will look for work and Mrs. Calkins will visit with her brother Gay Cox. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Robert Lambert are caring for the children of Mrs. Calkins in her absence.

L. A. Baker, who has been in poor health for the past year or longer, underwent a major operation Sunday morning at Portland sanitarium. His condition was very serious that evening and is still considered critical.

An appetizing menu has been prepared for the dinner to be served Friday evening by the Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid. In connection with the dinner a sale of aprons and other useful articles will be held, beginning at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Dinner will be served at 5:30. The public is cordially invited.

The Gresham Drug company has improved the appearance of its store by a new border sign painted on top of the show windows.

Miss Alice Sorenson of Portland, is beginning work as a piano teacher in Gresham at the home of Mrs. Roy Cannon on Main street. Miss Sorenson has had excellent training in music and wide experience as a teacher. She played before a delighted audience at the high school today, and will have a part on the program to be given at the Orient school on Friday evening, March 16, by the Gresham band.
