

Gresham Locals

A party made up of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Pullen and children Margaret and Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kaser and daughters Mildred and Lucille, Mrs. George Pullen, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod and son Jimmy, Mrs. C. M. Guenther and children Chester, Mable, Faye and Dale, surprised Mr. and Mrs. George Pullen Jr., Tuesday evening, it being their wedding anniversary. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee, were served.

Mrs. John Winterberger and little son John visited her sister, Mrs. Mike Frutiger of Hillsdale, last week.

The Rebekah Welfare club will hold an all-day meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday, April 3. A pot luck lunch will be served at noon. All Rebekahs are invited to attend.

W. L. Stockton, employed at the Oak Grove project of the P. E. P. above Estacada, is in Good Samaritan hospital where he is convalescing from an operation which he recently underwent for appendicitis. Mr. Stockton, a former resident of Gresham, expects to visit his three brothers and their families in Gresham before returning home.

G. B. Middleton of Powell Valley and Barker road is driving a new Ford cabriolet, purchased through the local agency of Baker & Son.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Loundree of Sandy are celebrating the advent of a baby daughter, born Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bushong. The newcomer weighs six pounds and has been named Beverly Jeanne.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Powell moved today into the Westell house on Second street. They plan to spend the summer only in Gresham and will move this fall to Portland where Mr. Powell has a drug store. The Powell place has been rented to a Lewis family from Portland.

R. W. Mundlin, for some time past the efficient salesman at the Twentieth Century grocery, has resigned his position and will devote his time to his farming interests near Cottrell. A. H. Connell of Parkrose has been sent by the company to assist in the store at Gresham.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. J. Cooper on Wednesday afternoon, April 4. The topic of the afternoon, "Medical Work Under Our Society" will be discussed under the leadership of Mrs. A. W. Shipley. Mrs. James H. Sterling, Mrs. W. W. Hastings and Mrs. A. McManus will serve refreshments.

Peter Roth of Ridgefield, Washington, visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kehrl last Tuesday.

The Gresham Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the grade school. It is desired that every parent with a child in the Gresham grammar school be present to cooperate in the matter of a successful and interesting P-T-A. Mrs. Curtis Johnson is the president of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. White of Vancouver, Washington, are rejoicing over the arrival of an eight-pound daughter on Monday, March 26. Mrs. White will be remembered as Miss Edna Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wood and a graduate of Gresham Union high school.

An interesting trip was made on Thursday to the home of Mrs. J. S. Heyne at Waterloo, Oregon, by her mother, Mrs. A. F. Hoover and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Hoover reports a marked advancement in the season in that locality, and that peach trees and other fruits and flowers are in full bloom. Others who took the trip were Mrs. W. A. Dixon and her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Blanc of Portland, Mrs. Gus Donley and daughter Betty Jean, Mrs. Annie Beers and Mrs. Keith Bertleson of Gresham. Mrs. Beers remained for a visit of two or three weeks.

Mrs. Rowenna Bonney of Gold Hill, Oregon, has been the guest for several days of her niece, Mrs. L. P. Manning. She will leave soon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Manning's children, Lave Manning and Mrs. G. W. McRoy and their families in Portland, also her niece Mrs. B. F. Mulkey of that city. From there she expects to visit with her son at The Dalles, later returning to her home at Gold Hill.

County Commissioners Amedeo M. Smith, Clay S. Morse and Grant Phlegley were in Gresham Thursday where they conferred with S. B. Hall, chairman of the county fair building committee. They expressed approval of the layout of the grounds and the building plans as outlined by Mr. Hall for the Multnomah county fair association. Details of their visit will be reported in the next issue of the paper.

Lad Suffers Severe Injury.

Merl Whitton, 11-year-old boy living on the Coons road, came near losing the middle finger of his left hand Wednesday when he slit it through from front to back the entire length while engaged in splitting wood at the family home. He was brought to the office of a Gresham surgeon who dressed the injury. Although the accident is a severe one, it is thought the finger can be saved.

COTTRELL

At a special school election held at the Cottrell schoolhouse recently Mrs. Ora Van Fleet was elected clerk of the board to fill the unexpired portion of the term of her late husband, E. E. Van Fleet. Miss Rose Potter has been hired as principal of the Cottrell school for next year, and Miss Helen Maxwell as teacher of the primary department.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held Thursday evening, April 5, at the schoolhouse. The program committee announces a well-prepared program which will be presented following the business meeting.

Duke Bettis, son of J. C. Bettis, old time residents of this community, has moved on to the Proctor ranch near the Cottrell school.

Mrs. Signa Rathman, whose husband was killed last Saturday when caught in a dynamite explosion on his ranch near the Cottrell school, will return to her employment in Portland. The foster son, Laverne, will be cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkenson. Mrs. Rathman has rented her place.

Mrs. Josephine Anderson and daughter Dorothy, formerly of the Orient neighborhood, are making their home with Mrs. Ora Van Fleet. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Meyers visited relatives at The Dalles the first part of the week. They also visited Miss Vivian White, former principal of the Cottrell school. Miss White is now teaching near The Dalles.

A number of high school students from this community are taking part in the operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii," to be given this evening by the Sandy Union high school glee club.

Lawrence Harding is visiting his nephew Roy Colson at the Colson ranch. Mrs. Colson and little daughter Dorothy are visiting Mrs. Colson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hornbeck of Centralia, Washington.

The Rev. George Hacking of Portland will occupy the pulpit at the Cottrell community church Sunday at 11 o'clock. The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Rosa Craswell Wednesday with a silver tea at which there was a good attendance. The next Aid meeting, which will also feature a silver tea, will be on Wednesday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mrs. Jim Matthews.

H. H. Watkins and Ray Wilkenson assisted R. H. Browne Saturday in blasting stumps on the Browne ranch. About 75 stumps were blown out during the day. Several ladies were present to assist Mrs. Browne in preparing the chicken dinner.

S. B. Splawn is home for a week from Pilot Rock, improving the time by cleaning out his berries. He expects to return to his work on the highway the first of the week.

Mrs. Otto Hand of Hood River, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Bram, has returned to her home.

HILLSVIEW

Miss Pauline Heacock and Miss Gertrude Sharkey, teachers of the Hillsview school, attended the meeting of the Clackamas county division of the Oregon State Teachers' association held at the new Canby high school last Saturday. Dean Jewell of O. S. T. and Dr. Hewitt of Willamette university addressed the convention.

The upper grade room of the Hillsview school was closed Tuesday due to the funeral of the principal's cousin, Charles Casey, who was killed at South Bend, Indiana, in an automobile accident. He was a student at the University of Notre Dame.
